

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2134

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The loud Bell rang in the ancient city of the Han clan, shaking the entire place.

When the bell tolled nine times, countless figures in the palaces around the ancient city raised their heads in surprise.

The bell rang nine times, which was a signal to gather all the Council elders. This also meant that something important had happened.

Such a signal had not appeared in the clan for many years.

“What’s going on?”

“Is it related to the Biyue Grotto-heaven?”

They were all guessing.

Soon, figures flew out from the four corners of the ancient city and headed to the center of the ancient city. They all landed in front of the meeting hall.

“First elder, what happened?”

“Did something happen to Shifeng and the others?”

They stepped into the hall and asked anxiously.

The first elder shook his head. “It’s Shifeng and the others, but they’re fine. We’ll talk about the details when everyone’s here!”

Although the elders were a little anxious, they could only hold back and wait patiently.

From time to time, there were lights from all directions of the ancient city. In just a while, thirty to forty people had gathered in the hall. Each of them had a deep aura and all of them were at the sixth tribulation.

In most clans, there were many elders. Those at the 5th tribulation were qualified to be promoted to elders, but only those at the 6th tribulation could be promoted to the higher level of Council elders.

“What happened?”

Suddenly, another ray of light swept over from the sky and landed in front of the hall, revealing a burly figure.

This person had the appearance of a middle-aged man. He had a fair appearance and a dignified expression. His eyes were sharp, like an eagle looking at a Wolf, giving people a great sense of oppression.

He strode into the hall and asked in a deep voice.

“Greetings, chief!”

All the elders in the hall bowed in unison and respectfully called out.

The middle-aged man was the Han clan leader!

Lord Han stepped into the hall and surveyed the surroundings. His gaze then landed on the first elder as he frowned, “Did something happen at the Biyue Grotto-heaven?”

“Yes! But that’s not it either!”

The first elder hesitated for a moment before speaking.

Lord Han was stunned when he heard this. He was a little puzzled.

The first elder laughed bitterly and said, “It’s that Tang Hao! He has appeared!”

“Tang Hao?”

“Oh! It’s that Tang kid! He appeared? I heard that he went into hiding! The night Lord and the others are searching for him all over the world, and he still dares to appear?”

The group of elders was a little surprised.

They had all heard about this young man. He had disappeared three or four years ago, and now he had reappeared in the southern wasteland!

“Hey! This kid’s appearance has nothing to do with our Han clan! With that kid’s current strength, our Han clan can’t do anything to him!”

“That’s right. He has Ye Xi with him. Even a seven tribulation magnate might not be able to kill him!”

Then, they all shook their heads.

The Han clan was naturally drooling over the treasures that the Tang kid had. However, they could do nothing about him. In the past, they did not dare to act rashly with The Old Blood demon’s protection. Now, they could do nothing to the kid even without The Old Blood demon.

That brat was too monstrous. It had only been a few years, and he had already grown to his current realm!

This speed was terrifying!

Lord Han, on the other hand, did not say anything. Instead, his brows furrowed even more.

However, he realized that the first elder's words were a little unusual.

"What do you mean when you say he appeared?"

He asked.

The great elder laughed bitterly again. "He's here!"

Hearing this, Lord Han's face changed.

He knew very well what the first elder meant.

Among this group of elders, several people's expressions changed as they also realized it.

"He's here? What did that mean? Why is he looking for our Han clan?"

But most of the elders had blank expressions.

There didn't seem to be any big grudges between the Han clan and that kid. If they had to, there was. But which of the thousands of clans in the world didn't have grudges with this kid? Why did he have to come to the Han clan?

At this moment, the first elder took out a jade talisman from his sleeve and handed it to Lord Han.

Lord Han took a look and his expression changed again.

"Alright! He's quite bold to bully the Holy Son of the Han clan!" Lord Han roared in anger, "he still dares to come to my Han clan? Hahaha! Does he really think that our Han clan will obediently hand over the person?"

When the elders heard this, they became more and more confused.

"Patriarch, what's going on?" An elder asked anxiously.

"It's Yu Tong!"

Lord Han hesitated for a moment before saying, "at a time like this, I won't hide it from you!"

He then explained their relationship.

"What? There's such a thing?"

"Could it be that the kid is also from the ancestral star?"

The elders were shocked.

They had never known that their han clan had such a relationship with this kid.

“At first, I didn’t know either. It was only later, during the battle of chaotic World Mountain, when exalted celestial Tiandu helped that kid, that I found out!” Lord han said.

“Exalted celestial? That’s right, during the battle of chaotic World Mountain, when many 7th tribulation cultivators attacked, a few of them stood up to help that kid. One of them was this exalted celestial.”

“Could it be that the one who wanted to take Yu Tong as his disciple was this person?”

The elders were surprised.

“That’s right! This is the one!” Lord han nodded and said, “at that time, I felt that this matter was too important and didn’t want our han clan to be involved. Thus, I concealed it and issued a ban to not let Yu Tong leave the ancient city. I was afraid that their relationship would be exposed and cause trouble.”

“That’s true! If we had been exposed back then, our han clan would have been in deep trouble!”

All the elders nodded.

“Is he here to ask for her? Yu Tong has a divine body, and her future is boundless. Moreover, her appearance is outstanding, and she’ll be of great use to our han clan!”

“That’s right! That brat couldn’t even save himself now, so how could he give Yu Tong to him?! Isn’t this harming Yu Tong?!”

The group of elders muttered to themselves for a moment before speaking.

“I naturally won’t give it to you.” Lord han snorted.

Then, he handed the Jade talisman to the elders and asked them to pass it to him.

“Elders, what do you think of Shifeng’s suggestion?” He asked in a deep voice after the elders had finished reading.

When the elders saw this, they were all excited.

“I think Shifeng’s suggestion is good. This is a rare opportunity for our han clan! If we succeed, our han clan will rise to the top and stand at the peak of Pangu!”

“Although that kid is powerful, he’s only at the peak of the sixth tribulation. As long as you attack, you can take him down easily. As for ye Xi, you don’t have to worry at all. As long as he steps into our ancient city, he won’t be able to escape even if he has wings. He’ll be at our mercy!”

As they spoke, their eyes were shining and their faces were red with excitement.

Lord han nodded and said,"I also think it's feasible. Since this kid has delivered himself to our door, there's no reason for us to let him go. However, this kid has many tricks up his sleeve. We still have to make some preparations to ensure that nothing goes wrong."

"Yes! Chief!"

All the elders responded in unison, their expressions becoming more and more excited.
