

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2150

“This kid ...”

Zhao Tianbao stood there, dumbfounded.

After a long while, he finally came back to his senses and laughed bitterly.

He had been worried about this kid. Who would have thought that this kid was so abnormal? not only had he advanced to the 7th tribulation, but even old demon Xue Yin was no match for him.

“This kid ... Is too demonic!”

He sighed with emotion.

He had never heard of such a young seven tribulations!

“Four years, it’s only been four years and he’s already passed the seventh tribulation! It was too unbelievable! No wonder he dared to show himself!”

“Even old demon Xue Yin is no match for him. He’s too powerful!”

At this moment, the crowd was in an uproar.

Everyone couldn’t hold back the shock in their hearts and exclaimed.

When they looked at the white-robed figure again, their gazes had changed. Other than shock, there was more respect.

At this moment, they saw the rise of a peerless magnate.

In Pangu, once a person reached the seventh tribulation, their status would change dramatically. They would become a giant, on the same level as the clan leaders, and belong to the small group of top experts in Pangu.

Not only did this young man advance to the seventh tribulation, but he also had such powerful strength as soon as he advanced. In addition, he was so young that his future was limitless. Even if he could not become the Supreme Emperor, he would be invincible among the seven tribulations and become a peerless magnate.

How could they not Revere such a figure?

“This kid ... Has truly risen to power!”

“The heavens of the eight desolates are about to change!”

All the cultivators sighed.

Before this, after the battle on Mount Tian Peng, everyone had asserted that this kid had grown up and was difficult to deal with. But now, he could be considered to have truly risen.

From now on, Tang Hao's name no longer represented the number one figure among the younger generation of Pangu. Instead, he was an Overlord who could shake the world!

The birth of a magnate Qi Practitioner would often bring about changes to the eight desolates, and the changes brought about by this young man would have an unparalleled impact on the eight desolates.

This was because he had some enmity with the ten thousand tribes in the eight desolates. The hundred Tribe Alliance was his mortal enemy.

Now that he had become a magnate and displayed his strength, how could these clans not be shocked? the situation of the entire eight desolates would change because of this.

"The gate of fortune ... Will definitely rise up and become one of the top forces!"

"Night Master, medicine master and the rest will probably be in a state of shock!"

The cultivators discussed enthusiastically, their expressions excited.

Tang Hao retracted his aura and headed toward them.

Their expressions changed, and they hurriedly stopped talking. Then, they adjusted their appearance, bowed respectfully, and called out in unison, "Greetings, divine Lord Tang!"

"No need to be so polite!"

Tang Hao said with a smile.

"Thank you, divine Lord!"

All the cultivators stood up, their faces still respectful.

"There's nothing else for you here, you can all leave!"

Tang Hao said, waving his hand.

"Yes!"

All the cultivators responded and turned to leave.

"This news is too shocking! We must inform the clan as soon as possible so that they can make preparations and head to the gate of fortune to formally offer our congratulations!"

They were all a little impatient. After flying for a while, they all increased their speed, returning to their ancient cities.

They should be the first batch to receive this news. Hence, they had to grab hold of this opportunity and head to the creation sect to offer their congratulations. Only then would they be able to leave a good impression on divine Lord Tang and befriend him.

“Elder, let’s go! Go back and inform the clan!”

At this moment, the people from the Zhao family turned around and were about to leave as well.

“Why are you leaving!”

Zhao Tianbao rolled his eyes. “This isn’t over for the Zhao family!”

“Elder, what do you mean by this?”

When those few people heard this, they were all somewhat puzzled.

When they saw the figure walking towards them, they were all nervous.

“Oh no, could it be that the Zhao family offended this person in the past and now he is going to settle the score?”

“No way! Wouldn’t that be the end!”

They muttered a few words and their faces turned pale.

“What’s done!” Zhao Tianbao rolled his eyes again.

“Elder Zhao!”

Tang Hao approached him and smiled at him.

“I’m Zhao Tianbao. Greetings, divine Lord Tang!”

Zhao Tianbao bowed in respect.

“Elder Zhao, you don’t have to be so polite to me!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“We still need to be polite!” Zhao Tianbao said.

Then, he turned to look at Zhao Qingxue and said, “I don’t think it’s a coincidence that you came to the desolate Dragon World. You’re here for the Zhao family!”

“That’s right!”

Tang Hao nodded. “It’s time to take her away. I wonder what the Zhao clan thinks about this?”

“This ...”

Zhao Tianbao hesitated.

At this moment, the people from the Zhao family seemed to have noticed something. This divine Lord Tang's visit seemed to be related to Qingxue.

They looked around and heaved a sigh of relief.

As long as this person wasn't here for revenge, it would be good news for the Zhao family if he was related to Qingxue. They could use this to build a good relationship with him.

Zhao Tianbao pondered for a moment and said, "I already knew about the relationship between the divine Lord and Qingxue. It is understandable that you want to take her away. With your strength, you can protect her now. The Zhao family has no objections."

"However, we need the family head's approval. If you don't mind, you can come to the Zhao family for a chat."

"Alright!"

Tang Hao nodded.

He wasn't afraid that the same situation would happen to the Han family. After all, the Han family didn't know that he had reached the 7th tribulation. Now that he had shown his strength, the Zhao family wouldn't be stupid enough to deal with him.

"Divine Lord, please!"

Zhao Tianbao took out a treasured boat and gestured for them to leave.

"Let's go!"

Tang Hao turned around and extended his hand to Zhao Qingxue.

Zhao Qingxue stood there with reddened eyes. She hummed in acknowledgment and walked up to him to hold his hand.

The young men from the Zhao family were all stunned. They had never seen her so delicate before. In their impression, Senior Sister Qingxue had always had a fiery temper, not this kind of delicate woman.

"Hey! This is called 'everything has its weakness,' do you understand?"

They followed behind and started discussing in low voices, their faces full of gossip.

The group boarded the boat and set off for the ancient city of the Zhao family.
