

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2158

“Another ship!”

“He’s also going to the desolate north, right?”

All over the eight desolates, countless cultivators raised their heads to look at the sky.

In the sky, streaks of majestic spiritual light streaked across with astonishing momentum!

Looking at the direction they were heading, they were all heading towards the desolate north!

Seeing this spectacular scene, the people of the world were excited and shocked!

Each ray of spiritual light represented a force. These clans and sects had the same goal, which was to head to the beihuang region and the Fortune sect to congratulate the monster surnamed Tang on reaching the seventh calamity.

A few days ago, the news had spread throughout the eight desolate lands.

The demon surnamed Tang had advanced to the seventh calamity and defeated Sir God Xue Yin!

The news was like a bolt of lightning that struck the entire Pangu continent.

The eight desolates were boiling with excitement!

The world was shocked!

Before the news came, they were still discussing whether Tang Hao’s appearance in the southern Wilderness would attract the pursuit of a group of seven tribulations, and whether he would be killed by the night patriarch and the others.

No one had expected such shocking news to come from the desolate Dragon World a few days later!

When they first heard this news, the world thought it was a joke.

How could there be such a young seven tribulations?

Also, he had just advanced to the seventh tribulation. How could he defeat an old Sir God who was famous for his ferocity?

This was too ridiculous!

However, when they saw the actions of the various great clans, they had no choice but to believe that the news was absolutely true. The monstrous genius surnamed Tang had really advanced to the seventh tribulation and had even defeated an old Sir God.

Otherwise, these clans wouldn't be so panicked, rushing to the desolate north as soon as they received the news.

"Such a young seven tribulations, I've never heard of him!"

"It's only been a short four years! It's unbelievable!"

Then, the world was extremely shocked.

As the news spread, the land was in a frenzy. In every city and every restaurant, people were discussing fervently. They were shocked, fanatical, and excited.

The scale of this commotion was far greater than the one caused by the battle of the ancient deity plateau.

During the battle of the ancient deity plateau, the monstrous genius surnamed Tang shocked the world and shook the eight desolates. He was named the number one monstrous genius of Pangu, which also caused huge waves.

However, it was far from comparable to this time.

This time, the demon surnamed Tang had advanced to the seventh tribulation and became a magnate! Not only that, but he had also defeated an old divine Lord. The impact this had on the world was far greater than the battle on the ancient deity plateau.

No matter how powerful the number one genius of Pangu was, he was still at the 6th tribulation. There were countless 6th tribulation cultivators in the eight desolates, but 7th tribulation cultivators were different. They were Giants, experts who stood at the peak of Pangu's cultivation world.

A powerful monster would only make people respect him, while a magnate would make people fear and worship him.

A few days ago, there were many cultivators who scoffed at this demon surnamed Tang and mocked him. They laughed at him for being chased around by the night patriarch and the others, hiding and not daring to show his face. One day, he would fall in the hands of the night patriarch and the others.

But at this moment, no one dared to do so.

Their hearts were filled with fear and trepidation. When they mentioned the demon surnamed Tang, they addressed him respectfully as divine Lord Tang, and their faces were full of admiration.

"I heard that after the Jiang clan received the news, they hurriedly prepared gifts and went to the gate of fortune!"

"The Ji clan too! I saw with my own eyes that their treasured boat was heading towards the desolate north!"

Every day, the people of the world were discussing fervently, and those clans were rushing to the desolate north to congratulate.

There were simply too many clans, they could not even count them.

Among these clans, the Ji clan and the Jiang clan were the most eye-catching. This was because they were originally members of the hundred clan Alliance. However, they had now switched sides, causing the world to sigh with emotion.

When the hundred clan Alliance was first established, everyone thought that the kid was going to be defeated. After all, it was an Alliance of hundreds of clans, including the Jiang clan, the Ji clan, and other ancient clans.

At that time, who would have thought that only a few years had passed and the hundred clan Alliance would fall apart and become like yesterday's yellow flower!

"The night clan and the Yao clan don't seem to have any reaction. However, I think that the expressions of the night patriarch and the others must be very interesting!"

"There's still the Tang Clan! I heard that when the news reached the Tang Clan, everyone's face turned black and they almost vomited blood!"

The world also started to discuss the night clan, the Yao clan, and other clans. They were the demon's sworn enemies.

There was also the Tang Clan. Every time they talked about this monster, they would be brought up and ridiculed. This time was no exception.

"Hahaha! That's for sure. If I were the Tang Lord, I'd find a piece of tofu to knock myself to death right now. They've missed out on a peerless monster who has already reached the seventh tribulation at such a young age!"

"If they had stood up to help us back in the chaotic World Mountain, we wouldn't be where we are today!"

This time, the world laughed even harder!

A peerless genius who had the potential to become an omnipotent expert had been missed because of the Tang clan's wrong decision. What a joke!

"I heard that the 33 heavens have been alerted as well. Each of them has sent their important figures down. Even the eldest young master has come personally. They all want to rope in this newly-advanced divine Lord."

"The great void heaven is a little strange. There's no movement from it, and there's no news from young master Taixu either. I reckon he's still in seclusion, and no one knows when he'll come out! He has already lost in terms of cultivation speed!"

The world was also paying close attention to the movements of the thirty-three heavens.

When they heard that the eldest young masters had personally come down to congratulate the gate of fortune, they were all shocked.

But very quickly, they were relieved. Such a monstrous seven tribulation magnate with a bright future, even the 33 heavens could not ignore him and would definitely try their best to win him over.

“Divine Lord Tang is too powerful!”

“Divine Lord Tang is truly the idol of our generation!”

At the same time, there was a huge commotion among the younger generation.

This divine Lord Tang had become the idol of the younger generation in the eight desolates, with countless people worshipping Him.

“Let’s go to the gate of fortune to pay our respects to divine Lord Tang!”

From all over the world, countless fanatical cultivators swarmed toward the gate of fortune.

At that moment, in the Great Hall of the gate of fortune, Yun qingzi sat there with a dumbfounded look on his face.

“Report! Elder, another ship is approaching our sect!”

“Elder, the Yao clan of the Dragon wilderness requests an audience. The leader of the Yao clan has come in person!”

“Report ...”

Outside the main hall, disciples kept rushing in to report.

Yun qingzi was a little confused!

Since this morning, large ships had been continuously sailing over and gathering outside the gate of the creation sect. They were all from the great clans of the Dragon wilderness. Moreover, each clan was in a great formation. The clan leader led the team and all the sixth tribulation elders followed.

Such a luxurious lineup was clearly unusual.

What was even more bizarre was that these people were not here to find trouble. Instead, they were here to congratulate elder Tang of the creation sect for reaching the seventh tribulation!

“Seven tribulations? Fellow Daoist Tang has already passed the seventh tribulation? You must be joking!”

Yun qingzi pondered for a long time before shaking his head and sneering.

He knew that fellow cultivator Tang's talent was astonishing, but it had only been four years and he had already advanced to the seventh tribulation. How was that possible?

"Maybe this is a scheme by these clans to trick me into opening the formation and letting them in!"

Yun qingzi snorted.
