

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2168

“What a good immortal Palace!”

Tang Hao stopped in front of the gate of the immortal Palace.

He looked up and exclaimed in admiration.

The immortal Palace in front of him was huge and magnificent. The halls were resplendent and glowed with dazzling divine light. He could also feel a trace of ancient aura from these halls.

A deep and vast pressure filled every corner of the immortal Palace.

“It’s really imposing!”

Ling Zhanxu also exclaimed in admiration, revealing a look of respect.

The two of them paused for a moment before continuing.

After entering through the gate of the immortal Palace, they were faced with a large hall. The people who entered first all poured into this large hall.

At this moment, the hall was in chaos, and there were cries of alarm everywhere.

“Heavens! This table is made from blood Phoebe spiritual wood that is over ten thousand years old!”

“Look at this futon, it’s made of ten thousand years old Ice Silk ... It’s ... It’s too extravagant!”

“The ten thousand year Ice Silk is nothing. Look at this teapot. It’s not a tribulation weapon. It’s just an ordinary teapot. It’s actually made from the highest quality Vermillion Bird blood jade. This Vermillion Bird blood jade is a divine material. It’s a rare treasure that people would fight over even a small piece!”

The group of 7th tribulation experts shouted excitedly, their expressions somewhat crazy.

All the items in the hall were made of Supreme-grade materials, and many of them were divine materials.

“Too extravagant! What a prodigal!”

They were all a little incoherent.

They had never seen such extravagant behavior in their lives.

“Compared to this immortal Palace, the heavenly Peng mountain is nothing. This is the true atmosphere of an immortal!”

Everyone was extremely excited.

If even the ordinary items were made of Supreme-grade materials, then there must be more and better treasures in the palace.

“This praying mat is mine! Don’t fight over it!”

“This stool is mine. I’m going to take it back and put it in my own cave abode!”

For these items, the Group of Seven tribulations started fighting.

They were afraid that they would destroy these items, so they had a tacit understanding not to use their immortal essence. They just rolled up their sleeves and fought with their bare hands, each of them red-faced.

“As expected of one of the hundred ancient Celestials!”

Sweeping into the hall and sweeping his eyes around, Ling Zhanxu was also greatly shocked and extremely excited.

Tang Hao, on the other hand, was much calmer. He had seen the ancient Kunwu ruins, and the level of luxury there was no less than that of the great Yan immortal Palace.

“Look, this pillar isn’t ordinary! What material was this? How come I’ve never seen him before?”

At this moment, a seventh tribulation cultivator pointed at a pillar in the hall and exclaimed.

Everyone looked over and examined it carefully. They also revealed doubtful expressions.

“This material is so hard, it must be extraordinary! It can’t be a divine material, right?”

“No way! This pillar was so big, could it be a divine material? There are a few more in this Hall that are similar!”

Some xiuzhe came forward and used their hands to pinch. Some took out sharp weapons like flying swords and cut at the pillars. The result shocked everyone. The hardness of this material was comparable to Shen materials.

“This should be a divine material!”

At this moment, a seventh tribulation expert stood up and said excitedly, “have you all forgotten that this Great Yan immortal venerable is not only an alchemy God? he also has the same attainments in the Dao of crafts. If I’m not wrong, this is the legendary Great Yan gold.”

“This Great Yan gold is the same as the famous great void gold. It’s not a natural divine material, but an acquired divine material that is the fusion of many top-grade spiritual materials.”

As he spoke, the seventh tribulation cultivator stepped forward and touched the pillar with his hand. His old face was flushed with excitement.

“It really is a divine material?”

The cultivators were even more shocked.

There were eight more of such pillars in the hall!

Nine giant pillars made of divine materials, what an amazing work!

The cultivators’breathing quickened as they looked at the pillars. Their eyes reddened with extreme greed.

Many of the items just now were made of divine materials, but they weren’t big. For example, the teapot made of Vermillion Bird blood jade was only the size of two fists. With that little material, it couldn’t even be made into a flying sword.

However, these pillars were different. Each one was extremely thick, and as long as one could get one, they could refine any treasure. Moreover, they could also refine it into their own immortal mansion to enhance the power of the immortal mansion.

“This is mine!”

In the next moment, several xiuzhe jumped up and charged at the pillar.

Seeing this, the other xiuzhe scattered and pounced on the other pillars.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Before they even got close to the pillar, many xiuzhe had already started to fight. The energy spread and shook the entire Hall.

“Great Yan gold? What a good treasure!”

Ling Zhanxu laughed out loud. His figure burst out and he rushed towards a nearby pillar in an attempt to snatch one as well.

“Old Ling, don’t even think about it!”

At this time, a cold snort exploded.

The sect master of the Qingyuan sect, li Changhe, rushed over with an ancient longsword in his hand. With a swing of his sword, he forced Ling Zhanxu to retreat. Then, he smiled smugly and pounced toward the pillar.

“Hahaha! Old Ling, I’ll kindly accept this treasure!”

As he laughed, he stretched out his hand and a huge green palm appeared. It grabbed the entire pillar and was about to pull it out by force.

But in the next moment, his laughter came to an abrupt end.

“What’s going on?”

He pulled hard, but the pillar did not budge.

He tried again, and his face turned red. He was a little embarrassed and a little angry.

“Hahaha! Old man Li, you can’t do it!” Seeing this, Ling Zhanxu was stunned for a moment before bursting into laughter. He did not even bother to hide his sneer.

Li Changhe stood there stiffly, his face alternating between green and white.

“I don’t believe that I can’t do anything to a pillar!”

He snorted in anger, activating the immortal essence in his body and pulling hard.

However, the pillar still did not move.

As he listened to the increasingly loud sneers from the side, his expression became uglier and uglier.

At this time, in other places, many xiuzhe also encountered the same situation. No matter how they pulled, slapped, or attacked with tribulation weapons, these pillars did not move and could not be taken out.

“How did this happen?”

All the cultivators were confused.

“Look at the ground and the ceiling of the hall. It’s also made of Great Yan gold! The entire Palace is forged from Great Yan gold and is a single entity ... I think it’s not just this Palace, the entire immortal Palace should be a single entity, and this immortal Palace is a treasure!”

At this time, a xiuzhe said.

The cultivators were stunned for a moment before coming to a realization.

It should be like this!

They had seen similar Palace-like treasures, but none of them were as powerful as this one, which was completely forged with divine materials.

“Since it’s a treasure, it can definitely be subdued!”

“Treasures like this all have a core. As long as we can find the core, we can refine it and subdue it!”

Then, all the cultivators became excited.

Although they couldn't get the pillar, they had the chance to get the entire immortal Palace.

A divine Palace made entirely of divine materials and was created by one of the hundred Immortals in the ancient times, the Grand Yan immortal venerable. It was undoubtedly a Supreme artifact-level treasure!
