

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2179

“A legendary ancient formation?”

All the cultivators were shocked.

“That’s right!” Daoist nine songs said solemnly, “this array is called Immortal Binding!”

“What? The immortal Binding array? No way! This formation has been lost for a long time. It’s said that it has been gone since the era of the hundred Immortals!”

The cultivators were even more surprised.

This immortal-binding array was quite famous in array Dao. As long as one studied array Dao, most of them would have heard of it. However, this array was too ancient and had been lost long ago. It had already gone extinct in the era of the hundred Immortals.

“It’s the immortal-binding array!” Daoist nine songs said with certainty, “I’ve read many ancient books and studied this ancient formation. I can’t be wrong!”

After a pause, he continued, “although according to most ancient records, the immortal-binding array was lost in the era of the hundred Immortals, don’t forget that the Dayan immortal venerable is not an ordinary person. He’s not only an array master, but also a nine tribulations Supreme. There are dangerous places that he can’t go to. It’s not difficult for him to find a long-lost ancient array map.”

“This ... That’s true!”

All the cultivators nodded.

Then, they frowned.

The immortal Binding array!

This was more difficult to deal with than many killing formations!

Immortal Binding, Immortal Binding. It meant that even a true immortal could be trapped and never break through.

It was said that in the ancient times, the people who could break this immortal-binding array could be counted on one’s fingers, and all of them were legendary figures in array Dao.

“Is this the complete celestial binding array?”

Someone asked Daoist nine songs.

If this immortal Binding array was complete, they would have no hope of breaking through.

“I’m not sure about that!” Daoist Jiu qu shook his head and said with a bitter smile, “even if it’s not complete, it’s almost the same. I’ve used everything I’ve learned just now, but I still can’t break this array. If I didn’t have some attainments, I’m afraid I wouldn’t even be able to get out.”

When the cultivators heard this, they were all silent.

Daoist nine songs ‘attainments in array Dao were considered top-notch in the current array Dao world. If even he said so, how could they have any hope of passing through?

Moreover, this bewildering formation could trap people. What if they couldn’t even get out after entering? wouldn’t they be trapped inside forever?

“Daoist Jiuqu, I hope you can give me some guidance on how to find the way back.”

Some xiuzhe came forward and asked nine tune Daoist about the method they had found.

Seeing this, the other xiuzhe all came to their senses and squeezed forward.

For the sake of the immortal Palace’s core, even if there was a slight possibility, they would still have to try. In order to avoid being trapped, they could only take the Scriptures from this fellow Daoist nine songs.

“Good, good! Fellow Daoists, don’t worry! I’ll write down some of your insights, and you should be able to come out safely. As for how to break the formation, I don’t know either, so you can only think of a way on your own.”

As he spoke, he took out a Jade slip and recorded his insights, then made many copies.

Ling Zhanxu squeezed his way forward and exchanged a treasure for a copy. After he had a look at it, he passed it to Tang Hao.

Tang Hao took it and looked at it, then kept it.

“Immortal-binding array!”

He mumbled to himself as he fell into deep thought.

Of course, he had heard of this ancient formation.

Moreover, he had heard of this when he was in Qiyuan. Qiyuan was the place where everything originated. In that magical great void realm, there were too many ancient scriptures, all of which came from the oldest orthodoxies.

The reason why he was so powerful in the three Dao of alchemy, weapons, and arrays was because of these Scriptures. This was his unique advantage.

The immortal-binding array was mentioned in the ancient array books.

“This immortal-binding array can be said to be the most powerful bewildering array. It’s said that this array has endless changes and has more bewildering arrays than the eight trigrams, nine palaces, and heavenly stars. It’s extremely difficult!”

“This formation is not like the other maze formations, which use the eight trigrams, nine palaces, and the stars as the foundation to develop all kinds of changes. This formation is completely chaotic and disorderly, without any rules to follow.”

“However, this shouldn’t be the complete Immortal Binding array, because if it was complete, it would be impossible for nine tune Daoist to come out so easily and even find a trace of its pattern!”

“Since it’s not complete, there’s hope of cracking it!”

Tang Hao breathed a sigh of relief when he thought of that.

“Fellow Daoist nine songs, many thanks!”

Many xiuzhe saw Daoist Jiuqu’s comprehension, and their confidence increased greatly. After thanking him, they walked toward the hall and entered the array.

However, there were still some who had doubts and chose to wait and see.

“Senior Ling, you don’t need to go in. Wait here, I’ll go in and take a look!”

Tang Hao said to Ling Zhanxu.

“How can this be!” Ling Zhanxu panicked.

“Senior, don’t worry! Even if I can’t, I can still come out safely!” Tang Hao smiled.

Although this senior Ling was powerful, he had no achievements in the Dao of arrays, the Dao of crafts, and the Dao of alchemy. It would be a waste for him to enter. It was impossible for him to make it through.

“Alright! Then be careful!”

Ling Zhanxu said helplessly.

Tang Hao nodded at him, then turned around and walked toward the palace door.

“It’s that kid!”

“He’s also going in!”

In an instant, the eyes of all the cultivators focused on him.

The eyes of many of the seven tribulations were filled with respect and awe.

This divine Lord Tang had caused quite a stir among the seven tribulations circle recently.

The youngest divine Lord in Pangu!

This title was very resounding!

Countless seventh tribulation cultivators had attended the celebration at the gate of fortune. The scale and scale of the event were unprecedented!

Today, in the immortal Palace, he had caused a sensation. With his newly promoted strength, he had sent the sect master of the Qingyuan sect flying with a single punch. Many people were shocked!

“It’s said that he’s not only talented in cultivation, but he’s also highly accomplished in alchemy, weapons, and arrays, especially in alchemy. He’s the best in Pangu and has been named the great alchemy Saint by the Saints of the alchemy realm. He’s a leader of the alchemy realm.”

“His array Dao is not as brilliant as his alchemy Dao, but it’s still extraordinary. I heard that he broke many ancient array techniques at the tianlao sacred mountain!”

The cultivators discussed in hushed whispers.

“In my opinion, his array Dao is much worse than his alchemy Dao. After all, he’s also a human, and his energy is limited. Besides, he’s so young and his alchemy Dao is so high. He must be much worse in the Dao of arrays and weapons!!

“His array Dao attainments are probably not low, but they should be far from some of the old monsters here. For an array Dao expert like Daoist nine tune, I don’t think he has any hope of breaking through and getting the core!”

In the midst of the discussion, many xiuzhe shook their heads.

They were not optimistic about divine Lord Tang’s chances.

There were so many array Masters here, anyone could break through and retrieve the core, but it would definitely not be divine Lord Tang!

After all, he was too young!

Under everyone’s watchful eyes, Tang Hao finally reached the front of the hall. He took a deep breath and strode in.
