

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2180

As soon as he stepped into the hall, the void around him changed.

The next moment, Tang Hao appeared in another space.

He looked around and found himself in a wide corridor, with tall, dark walls on both sides.

There was a deathly silence, not a single sound.

Tang Hao even used a spell on purpose, but there was still no movement.

“In this immortal-binding array, the sound shouldn’t be able to travel far.”

Then, Tang Hao tried to release his divine sense again, but there was a strange force that suppressed it. It could not reach out at all.

Tang Hao paced back and forth in the same spot. He was not in a hurry to explore further. Instead, he sat down and muttered to himself.

“This immortal-binding array is a maze-type array. I’ve seen many of such arrays. The maze array in the star-picking painting and the eight trigrams sky array in the tianlao sacred mountain are the same.”

“Among them, the bewildering formation on tianlao sacred mountain is also considered a top-notch one. It was set up by an ancient Almighty. However, compared to this immortal-binding formation, it is much simpler. Back then, I was able to break it easily.”

“That one is based on the number of the eight trigrams, and from there, various changes can be derived. There is an obvious pattern to follow. This one is chaotic and disorderly. How should I break it?”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself, his brows furrowed.

“No! A complete Immortal Binding array is truly chaotic and disorderly, without a trace of order and almost impossible to crack. The immortal Binding array before us is not complete. Perhaps what Dayan immortal venerable found was only an incomplete array map.”

“Through his own deductions, he completed the formation map. Therefore, the originally disorderly formation now has a trace of order.”

Tang Hao’s eyes glowed when he thought about that.

“If I were Grand Yan immortal venerable, I would definitely imitate the chaotic and disorderly state to complete the formation. Therefore, the pattern will be extremely complicated, far beyond all the eight trigrams and nine palaces, and the number of stars in the sky.”

“It will take an unimaginable amount of time and effort to crack this formation. But there is still a glimmer of hope.”

Tang Hao stood up. He was full of energy and fighting spirit.

He was very confident in his array Dao attainments. As long as there was the slightest possibility, he would definitely be able to break it.

He didn't just want to solve it, he wanted to solve it as soon as possible. There were many formation Dao experts here this time, and he believed that it wouldn't be long before more formation Dao experts came from all over Pangu to solve this ancient formation.

He had to be the first one to crack it. Only then would he be able to get the core and control the immortal Palace.

He stepped forward and began to explore the maze.

After exploring for a while, he discovered that the size of this bewildering formation was beyond his imagination. The bewildering formation was changing every moment, giving birth to new branches. Everything in the formation was changing.

He released countless split souls to help him record every change in this maze.

He needed to analyze these changes and find a pattern from these seemingly chaotic and disorderly changes.

Two hours, four hours ...

In the blink of an eye, a day had passed.

Tang Hao was still clueless.

Then, another day passed ...

Tang Hao was completely immersed in breaking the formation, completely forgetting the passage of time.

At this moment, outside the hall, a figure fell out of the door and landed on the ground.

"Someone else is coming out!"

The xiuzhe outside all looked over.

"Motherf * cker, what kind of stupid formation is this? can a human break it? I've been wandering around for a few days, and I've been wandering around blindly."

The xiuzhe climbed up from the ground, patted his butt, and cursed.

"I'm not going!"

He spat at the hall and turned to leave.

The cultivators were used to it, and many people who came out from inside were like this.

In fact, this was still considered good. At least, they still had the strength to curse. Many of them were just like nine tune Daoist when they came out, dazed and crazy, as if they had gone silly.

“Something’s wrong! It was wrong! It’s not like this!”

“How could this be? How come I can’t find any pattern?”

They were all talking in their sleep.

And these people were mostly array Dao experts.

“Is this immortal-binding array really so difficult that even these array Masters are going crazy?”

The group of xiuzhe was extremely shocked.

“Look, someone else is coming!”

Not long after, several beams of celestial light swept over from the sky above the celestial Palace, heading straight towards them.

Everyone looked over and recognized the person.

“It’s the Baili clan!”

“That’s Baili Yunyu, the most senior elder of the Baili clan. He has lived for thousands of years. Although he is only at the sixth tribulation and has never had the chance to advance to the seventh tribulation, his attainments in the Dao of formations are extremely amazing. He is one of the top formation Masters in Pangu!”

“Even he’s here! He’s the treasure of the Baili clan, and his attainments in the Dao of formations are even higher than Daoist Jiuqu ‘s!”

All the cultivators looked at one of them and exclaimed.

This person was an old man in a white robe. His white hair was disheveled and casually draped over his shoulders. He looked a little sloppy and unkempt.

However, this person’s identity was extremely extraordinary. He was the number one person in the Baili clan, a great clan that specialized in the Dao of formations. He was a formation expert whose name shook Pangu.

“If it’s him, he might have a chance to break this array!”

Many xiuzhe sighed.

It had been more than two days since the core appeared, and the news had long spread in Pangu. Many array Dao experts had come before, but none of them could compare to Baili Yunyu.

“This is where the formation is?”

The people of the Baili clan landed and looked at the palace.

“The immortal-binding array is an ancient magical array! The Grand Yan immortal venerable was also an ancient array Dao great expert! This old man has to break through this formation!”

Baili Yunyun looked into the hall and laughed while stroking his beard.

His eyes flashed with excitement and his expression was full of confidence.

He was very confident in his array Dao. If he couldn't break it, then no one could.

“You guys wait here, I'll be right back!”

He smiled and strode into the hall.

“As expected of master Baili! This bearing is really different!”

Many xiuzhe exclaimed.

After a heated discussion, the cultivators waited patiently.

From time to time, people would come out from inside, either cursing or looking silly.

Every once in a while, immortal light would sweep over from the top of the immortal Palace and land on this place. They were all formation Dao experts from all over Pangu.

“Look! That was the old monster of the Ji clan! He's a famous array master!”

“I know that person. He is Grandmaster Jiu Gong from the nine Palace mountain of the western wilderness. The nine Palace mountain is a famous force in the array Dao. They are on par with the Baili clan!”

“Heavens! Look at that symbol, that's a person from sovereign Xi heaven! Why are the people of Emperor Xi heaven here?”

Many of them were well-known figures, and when the people of Emperor Xi heaven arrived, it caused a great sensation.

Sovereign Xi heaven was a mysterious place in the 33 heavens and rarely appeared.

“This Emperor Xi heaven is the inheritance left behind by the ancient great God Fuxi, and the great God Fuxi can be considered one of the ancestors of the array Dao. One can only imagine how terrifying the array Dao of Emperor Xi heaven is.”

“Huangxi heaven is the number one power in Pangu’s Dao of formations. They’ll definitely be able to break the formation! I’m afraid that the core of this immortal Palace will also fall into their hands.”

The cultivators discussed in shock.

They really didn’t expect that the appearance of the immortal-binding array would attract a force like xihuang heaven.

The people of Emperor Xi heaven descended, and a total of three people entered the hall.

After that, more and more famous people of array Dao came and entered the array.

This immortal Palace had become the focus of Pangu’s world of formations. Almost all the famous formation Masters had come to this place, fighting to break this ancient formation.
