

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2184

The surrounding crowd was deathly silent.

Everyone was stunned. Their faces were filled with extreme shock and disbelief.

They looked at the three elders on the ground, who were holding their formation plates with fanatical expressions. They looked up again at the white-robed young man who stood with his hands behind his back and an indifferent expression. They were all in a daze.

They felt like they were dreaming!

The person who broke the ancient formation wasn't the three old seniors of Emperor Xi heaven, but this young man?

This ... This was absurd! It was unbelievable!

They would rather believe that it was broken by a few less famous masters than that it was broken by this kid!

How old was this kid?

It was already shocking for him to advance to the seventh tribulation at this age. He had become the youngest seven tribulation Sir God!

Moreover, he had amazing attainments in the Dao of alchemy. His status in the Dao of alchemy was comparable to that of the three elders of Emperor Xi in the Dao of arrays.

He had already attained such astonishing achievements in these two paths, so how could he possibly have the same achievements in the array path?

This was simply impossible!

"I don't believe it!"

When li Changhe came back to his senses, his face was livid and extremely ugly.

"This must be fake!"

He said through gritted teeth.

He didn't want to and didn't dare to believe that the immortal Binding array was really broken by this kid.

If this was true, it would be a slap to his face.

He had just laughed at this kid.

“I don’t believe it either!”

The night patriarch shouted.

Many xiuzhe heard this and nodded to themselves.

To be honest, they couldn’t believe it either. If it was really broken by this kid, then he not only had extreme achievements in cultivation and alchemy, but also in array Dao.

This was too shocking!

“Let me see!”

With a loud shout, Daoist Jiu Gong walked out from the crowd and impatiently walked towards the three elders of Emperor Xi.

“I’ll take a look too!”

The old monster of the Baili clan had also come.

Following that, formation path experts walked out from the crowd and rushed forward, their expressions extremely anxious.

When they stepped forward and took a closer look, they shouted in excitement.

“It’s true! This is real!”

“Hahaha! This really was a formation plate, unbelievable! It’s unbelievable!”

The group of formation path great experts were ecstatic.

Seeing this, the surrounding cultivators were stunned.

Since so many masters had confirmed it, then there was absolutely no mistake!

Then, there was a loud gulp of saliva.

Everyone’s eyes looked up and fell on the figure in white.

Their eyes were filled with extreme shock.

A person who was less than a hundred years old, but had extreme attainments in the Dao of cultivation, alchemy, and formation. What kind of freak was this?!

“This kid ... Is really a freak!”

“I thought he was already monstrous enough. I didn’t expect him to be even more monstrous. I’m afraid there hasn’t been a freak like him in thousands of years!”

All the cultivators gasped and gasped in surprise.

The way they looked at Tang Hao was filled with even more respect.

As for Li Changhe, the night Lord, and Lord Yuchi, their faces were flushed red and they were extremely embarrassed.

“How could it be like this!”

Li Changhe clenched his fists and gritted his teeth. He was extremely ashamed and resentful.

This damn brat, how could he be so powerful!

“It’s really this kid!”

On the side of the crowd, Ling Zhanxu and the others were also extremely shocked.

Just now, even they didn’t believe that it was this kid who broke the array.

“Hahaha! I told you, this kid isn’t ordinary!”

Then, they laughed out loud in joy.

“So that’s how it is! The structure of this immortal-binding array is so complicated!”

“As expected of the Grand Yan immortal venerable, he can even set up such a complicated array!”

The group of Masters studied the formation plate together, intoxicated.

“Grandmasters, since you like it so much, I’ll give you this array disc!” Tang Hao smiled at them.

“This ... How can this be!”

“This isn’t appropriate! This thing is too precious!”

The group of Masters came to their senses and hurriedly stood up.

“Yeah! Daoist Tang, this thing is too precious. We’re already very satisfied that we’re fortunate enough to be able to observe it!” The three elders of Emperor Xi said.

“No harm! Wasn’t it just a formation disk? I’ve already thoroughly studied this formation, so there’s no point in keeping the formation plate!” Tang Hao said.

“That’s true! Even fellow Daoist Tang has completely broken the array!”

All the Masters nodded.

“Daoist Tang! I really didn’t expect that you would have such amazing attainments in the Dao of arrays at such a young age. We elders are really ashamed!”

“That’s right, fellow cultivator Tang. You’re so young, yet you’re so accomplished. You’re a freak!”

Then, the grandmasters exclaimed in surprise.

Most of them had studied array Dao for hundreds or even thousands of years. For example, old monster cloud picture had studied array Dao for thousands of years. However, in the end, he couldn’t even compare to a young junior. This kind of feeling really made them sigh with emotion.

“Junior was just lucky enough to obtain some ancient array books and studied them for a while. That’s how I made a small achievement in the array Dao!”

Tang Hao said humbly.

“Hey! You call this a small achievement? you’re trying to embarrass us old seniors!”

“Kid, you’re really a monster. I heard that you also have amazing talent in alchemy! I see that your talent in the array Dao is even more impressive than your talent in the alchemy Dao!”

“Daoist Tang, you’re definitely a rare genius in the field of array Dao!”

The group of Masters burst into laughter.

They were all very enthusiastic.

If the person who broke the array was someone of the same generation as them, they might still feel a trace of jealousy and unwillingness in their hearts. But it was a young junior, so there was only surprise and joy left in their hearts.

With such an outstanding junior, his array Dao world would have a chance to flourish.

“Daoist Tang, what school of array Dao did you learn? If you’re free, come to my sovereign Xi heaven and let’s have a good exchange. Our sovereign Xi heaven’s array Dao might not be the best in the array world, but it’s still quite famous!”

“My young friend Tang, the door of the nine Palace mountain will always be open for you. You can come up the nine Palace mountain at any time. You can read all of the ancient books on array formations here!”

Then, they all fought to invite him.

“Rest assured, Masters. If I have time, I will definitely visit you and discuss the Dao of arrays together!”

Tang Hao agreed.

“Good, good, good!”

The group of Masters nodded in satisfaction.

“Come! Let’s continue to study this immortal-binding array!”

“I’ve long seen that this formation isn’t perfect. However, it’s still extremely difficult to break it. Give me one or two years and I might be able to break it! Little friend Tang only used three months! You’re amazing!”

They continued to study the formation plate, intoxicated.

Tang Hao turned around and walked toward the center of the hall.

He beckoned at the five-colored crystal, and the crystal flew over and landed in his palm.
