

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2188

On the peak of fortune, a ray of light fell.

It was Tang Hao.

On the way, Ling Zhanxu bade him farewell and returned to the Ling clan.

This time, Ling Zhanxu's harvest was not small. In the medicine garden alone, he had obtained forty stalks of divine medicine that could semi-transform, which was enough for him to condense another ten drops of blood.

He already had over thirty drops of blood. As long as he refined these divine medicines, he would reach the realm of forty drops of blood.

As for the other tribulation weapons and medicinal pills, he had also split them quite a bit.

"You're finally back!"

As soon as Tang Hao landed, Yun qingzi came out of the main hall to welcome him. "How was it? Who can go to that immortal Palace?"

The news of the great Yan immortal Palace's emergence had long spread throughout Pangu, so he had naturally heard of it. He also knew that all the array Masters in the world had gathered in the immortal Palace, trying to crack the ten thousand ancient strange arrays in order to obtain the core of the immortal Palace.

Now that elder Tang had returned, there must be a result.

Tang Hao smiled at him without saying anything.

"It can't be sovereign Xi heaven, right? I've heard that the three elders of Emperor Xi have all gone. They are the top figures in the Dao of formations, the true Almighty!"

Yun qingzi said.

Tang Hao was still smiling.

"You're not? That's strange! How could it not be them? everyone thought that the immortal Palace would definitely be in the hands of Xi Huangtian this time! In terms of array Dao, who can compare to Emperor Xi heaven!"

Yun qingzi was puzzled.

"Then ... Could it be the Baili clan? Also not? Could that be the nine Palace mountain?"

Yun qingzi continued to guess.

“None of them!” Tang Hao smiled. “Look, What’s this?”

As he spoke, he raised his hand and the palm-sized Great Yan immortal Palace flew out and hovered in his palm.

“This ... This is ...”

When Yun qingzi looked at it, he trembled as if he had been struck by lightning.

He couldn’t help but open his mouth wide. His expression was one of extreme shock.

“You ... You ... This is ...?”

He looked at the immortal Palace, then at Tang Hao. He was so excited that he was almost incoherent.

Not even in his dreams did he think that this immortal Palace would be obtained by elder Tang.

“That’s right! This is the immortal Palace!”

Tang Hao laughed out loud.

“F * ck! Amazing!”

Yun qingzi was stunned for a moment before he suddenly slapped his thigh and trembled with excitement.

This time, elder Tang had once again made the gate of fortune proud!

“Let me see how powerful the immortal Palace refined by the famous Grand Yan immortal venerable, one of the hundred ancient Immortals, is!”

Yun qingzi stepped forward, took the immortal Palace, and looked at it carefully. He touched it with a look of admiration.

“This immortal Palace must be very powerful!”

Yun qingzi said excitedly.

“I’ve tried it. It’s powerful. Besides, this immortal Palace is protected by the five-colored divine light. Its defensive power is amazing!” Tang Hao said.

This Great Yan immortal Palace was indeed a pretty good treasure and was suitable to be used as a cave abode.

“But I don’t plan to use it. I’m going to refine it ...” Tang Hao said after he took it back to the immortal Palace and weighed it in his hand.

“W-what? You ... You refined it?”

Yun qingzi was stunned. He thought he had heard wrong.

He was actually going to refine such a good treasure? Moreover, this was a ninth tribulation supreme weapon. How could it be so easy to refine?

“You didn’t hear wrong. The material of this immortal Palace is Great Yan gold, a divine material comparable to creation true gold. I want to refine it and use this Great Yan gold to forge my own immortal abode!”

“This immortal Palace can allow me to forge a Supreme immortal abode!”

Tang Hao said with a smile as he kept the immortal Palace.

“Right, these things are for you. Put them in the sect’s treasure house. They are all divine medicine, tribulation weapons, and the like!”

Tang Hao tossed a ring to her, then turned around and left.

Yun qingzi took the ring in a daze and stood there, unable to come back to his senses.

Oh my God! What did he just hear?

That kid wanted to refine the immortal Palace just to obtain that Great Yan gold to forge his own immortal abode?

This ... This was such a luxury! What a prodigal!

Yun qingzi’s face twitched violently, and he had the urge to vomit blood.

That was a supreme weapon. No matter who obtained it, they would treat it like a treasure. However, this kid actually wanted to refine this supreme weapon in order to obtain the raw materials.

This ... This was simply insane!

If those who were fighting for the immortal Palace knew about this, they would vomit blood.

“Forget it! Forget it! Who asked him to have so many treasures! Let him do whatever he wants!”

After standing there for a long time, Yun qingzi came back to his senses. He shook his head and laughed bitterly.

Tang Hao returned to the cave abode and sat down.

He first entered the mobile immortal’s cave and took a look at the Saint wood.

With the celestial water and the care of Xianyun, the Saint Tree had recovered a lot of vitality.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao was very satisfied.

He took out the divine medicine that he had cultivated during this period of time and the creation divine fruits that had borne, then left the mobile immortal’s cave.

“I’ll refine the creation divine pill first!”

He took out the Shennong cauldron and started to refine the elixir.

He had refined the creation divine pill countless times and was extremely familiar with it. His success rate was also quite amazing. He had to refine it dozens of times before he could waste a furnace.

Very quickly, he finished refining.

“It seems that the target of 500 pills will be completed soon!”

Tang Hao smiled delightedly. He called Yun qingzi over to retrieve the pill.

“With senior Ling’s help, I think we’ll be able to gather some of the materials for the great Yan golden pill before long. I don’t have to worry. Next, I’ll refine these half-transformed divine herbs into pills to improve my cultivation.”

Tang Hao did not plan to absorb the half-transformed pills directly, as the absorption rate was not high. He wanted to concoct the pills to maximize the effects of the divine herbs.

He had refined 19 pills out of the 19 half-transformed divine herbs without any failure.

“I don’t think it’s enough!”

Tang Hao made a rough estimation. He then took out more ordinary divine herbs and made more than thirty pills.

After he was done, he swallowed it all.

Once the pill entered his stomach, it turned into the purest immortal Qi and rushed to his limbs and bones. After walking one round, it rushed to his dantian’s sea of Dao and was absorbed by the drop of mother’s blood.

The mother’s blood continued to expand, and after reaching a certain level, it split open and split into a drop of chaos immortal blood.

After absorbing all the elixirs, he split three drops of blood.

“Eight drops of immortal blood!”

Tang Hao clenched his fist and smiled delightedly when he felt the explosive power in his body.

He originally only had five drops of blood. Now that he had three more, his strength had increased by a lot.

“I just need to condense two more drops and I will be in the ten Blood Realm. By then, I will be able to fight the night Lord with all my might.” Tang Hao mumbled.

When he had just advanced, he had exchanged a few moves with the night patriarch. Although he could fight, their strength was not on the same level. When he reached the realm of ten blood, he would be able to fight with the night patriarch with all his strength and be evenly matched.

“My cultivation level has already increased. Next, I should study this array Dao Comprehension to prepare for my re-forging of My Immortal abode.”

Tang Hao rested for a while, then took out the five-colored divine crystal and began to study the great Yan immortal venerable’s formation Dao.
