

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2195

A few days later, more news came.

The old Daoist Fulong had appeared in the East continent.

Tang Hao set off immediately when he received the news.

He didn't go to the East continent directly. Instead, he went to the Ling clan first, then the Shi clan, the Jiang clan, and the other clans.

He had already contacted these few clans, and they were also very interested in the secret of the demon race.

"This Daoist Fulong is quite famous among the demon race. He's a heaven-reaching flood Dragon, the top bloodline of the flood dragon race. Therefore, he's quite powerful. It's said that he once ate a young true dragon and his bloodline returned to its ancestor, becoming closer to the blood of a true dragon."

The old man from the Shi clan introduced them to Tang Hao on the ship that was heading to the eastern barren territory.

This person's name was Shi Qing, and he was one of the seven tribulations of the Shi clan.

"It's true. It happened about six hundred years ago. At that time, a young horned dragon appeared and caused a lot of people to fight over it. Later, it was captured by this old demon and eaten."

The elder from the Jiang clan said.

His name was Jiang zhengdao, the ancestor of the Jiang clan.

"I've also heard of it!" Ling Zhanxu said with a nod.

Then, he sighed and said, "it's quite sad that the true dragon Tribe is not doing as well as the flood Dragon Tribe. Over the past thousands of years, Pangu has produced many true dragons, but none of them survived. They were either eaten or refined into treasures."

Hearing this, the group of elders on the ship shook their heads, feeling a little emotional.

Tang Hao sighed.

The true dragon clan used to be so glorious. In a powerful clan, every adult true dragon was comparable to a nine tribulation Supreme.

Back then, Kunwu's Guardian beast, the flying rain-Dragon, wasn't any weaker than the few Supreme martial artists in Kunwu.

Now, the true dragon clan was almost extinct. Occasionally, there would be young dragons that hatched, but they were also reduced to divine medicine-like existences, eaten or refined by people.

This was also something that could not be helped. As a top creature, the growth cycle of a true dragon was too long, and it could easily take thousands of years. Even the thirty-three heavens could not afford to raise a true dragon.

There was one in the great void heaven, and it was obtained by young master Taixu. However, the great void heaven did not spend much resources to nurture it, and only used it as a Mount.

Everyone sighed with emotion and began to talk about the old monster Rune Dragon.

“Now, all the mighty ones of the demon tribe and many old demons who haven’t appeared for a long time have appeared. Also, those sacred lands of untainted land have made their moves. Many forces of the human tribe have also made their moves. This trip to the East barren will be very lively.”

Shi Qing said.

“To be able to cause such a huge commotion, this so-called top secret is definitely not ordinary. It must involve the ancient demon race!” Ling Zhanxu said with an excited expression.

Jiang zhengdao laughed and said, “it doesn’t matter if this secret is big or small. We must get it this time. With our strength, not many opponents can stop us this time.” We must get this secret!”

Hearing this, the cultivators all laughed, their expressions relaxed.

This time, more than a dozen forces had joined forces. Among them, there was no lack of top clans like the Shi clan and Jiang clan. The Ling clan and the Yushi clan were also powerful.

Such a powerful force was enough to sweep across the world.

“Seniors, although we are powerful, we can not let our guard down. Everything must be done with caution. As far as I know, during this period of time, the night race and the Yao clan have roped in many forces. The Azure Yuan sect and old demon Xue Yin are all in cahoots with them.”

“We’ve made such a big scene this time. They’ll definitely come. At that time, we’ll definitely have a conflict.”

Tang Hao said.

“The night race ... They’re really a little troublesome!”

Jiang zhengdao and the others all frowned when they heard this.

These were all Tang kid’s old enemies, and their strength could not be underestimated. The night clan was good at assassination, appearing and disappearing unpredictably, and had a fierce reputation. The Yao clan was good at alchemy, and had a wide network among the seven tribulations, so they could rope in many people.

This time, their biggest opponent was probably this group of people.

“With our strength, we don’t need to be afraid of them. If they dare to provoke us, we’ll just fight!” Ling Zhanxu patted his chest and said boldly.

“Hahaha! Fellow Daoist Ling is right, we don’t need to worry!”

Shi Qing and the others laughed out loud.

“What Tang said is right. We must be careful in everything. How about this? we will go to the East continent first and hide our traces. We won’t expose ourselves. When we find the right time, we will take action.”

Jiang zhengdao said with a smile.

“Alright!”

The elders all nodded.

While they were talking and laughing, the warship soon sailed into the East continent.

At this time, in the sky, they could already see many flying divine lights. They were all at the seventh tribulation level.

Tang Hao closed his eyes and contacted the clone he had planted in the East continent. He quickly found out where Daoist Fulong had appeared.

“Over there. Half a day ago, Daoist Fulong appeared. He was chased by many cultivators and fled down. Looking at the direction he was going, he seemed to be heading to the East Sea.”

Tang Hao said as he pointed to the East.

With that, he put away the ship, took out the map of the universe, put everyone in, and left through the void.

“Something’s wrong! He changed direction again! It’s over there!”

Before he reached the East Sea, he received more news that Daoist Fulong had appeared in another direction and fled to the South.

Tang Hao immediately changed direction.

There were many xiuzhe and ancient beasts with him.

“Something’s wrong! He’s gone that way again!”

Not long after, more news came, and Tang Hao had no choice but to change directions.

“Daoist Fulong has appeared in the beihuang region!”

“No, no, he’s clearly in the desolate Dragon!”

Not long after, more and more news came from all over the place. Tang Hao was confused.

Then, he realized that this was all a smokescreen created by Daoist Fulong to hide his true tracks.
