

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2205

In the past few months, the eight desolate lands had been very lively.

The focus of everyone's discussion was still on divine Lord Tang.

Ever since he had broken the ancient formation and obtained the great Yan immortal Palace, divine Lord Tang had once again done something sensational.

He had stolen the demon race's Secret and dug up tens of thousands of true dragon corpses from the ancient dragon burial ground!

That was the corpse of a true dragon!

Just one was enough to cause all the races in the world to break their heads, let alone ten thousand.

As for whether the number was real or not, no one would go into detail. After all, it was the legendary ancient dragon burial ground. There were at least a thousand true dragon corpses in it. To them, there was no difference between ten thousand and a few thousand.

"Divine Lord Tang's luck is truly heaven-defying! We've just obtained a Supreme immortal Palace, and now we've obtained so many true dragon corpses!"

"Not just him, but also the Jiang clan and the Shi clan. They must have also divided a lot of the true Dragon's corpse!"

All the xiuzhe in the world were discussing with envy.

"I heard that the demonic clan and the untainted clan are going crazy. Recently, many demonic clans and the untainted clan have appeared in the beihuang region. They seem to be targeting the gate of fortune with ill intentions!"

"Hey! This so-called secret belongs to their race, but I didn't expect that it would be seized by our human race. How could they swallow this?"

When it came to the demons and the untainted land, most of the humans were a little jesting.

As humans, they were happy to see the treasures of the demons fall into the hands of humans. They all felt that divine Lord Tang had given them face.

"It seems that quite a number of people from the wilderness have gone. Will divine Lord Tang and the gate of fortune be in trouble?"

As more and more giant beasts appeared in the desolate north, many xiuzhe started to worry.

Although divine Lord Tang was a monster, he was still young and had just advanced not long ago. He had only defeated old demon Xue Yin and the others with the help of the Buddha treasure. How could he be a match for those brutal old monsters of the untainted land?

Those old monsters all had the bloodline of the ancient times. They were born with powerful divine abilities and were top-tier living beings.

One or two might not be a big deal, but the number of behemoths that had appeared in the desolate north had reached 20 to 30. This was a terrifying force, and their numbers were still increasing.

Every day, there would be new news about which race's old monster had appeared in the beihuang region.

"Right now, the gate of fortune only has divine Lord Tang as a seven tribulation expert. Even though he has strong support behind him, he can't send out many seven tribulations experts to help him fend off so many chaos monsters. The situation is not looking good!"

"These demons and the primeval old monsters are not making any big moves. They are all entrenched near the creation mountain range. I think they are using this method to force the creation sect to hand over some of the Dragon corpses. If they can't get the Dragon corpses, I don't think they will leave!"

As the days passed, the cultivators grew more and more worried.

The mountain range of fortune had become the lair of giant beasts, and giant beasts that were hundreds of thousands of feet long could be seen everywhere.

"There are more and more giant beasts. This game ... Is getting harder and harder to break!"

"The gate of fortune won't be broken unless we cut some flesh!"

In the four corners of the mountain range, there were also many xiuzhe gathered.

They didn't dare to get too close, so they stayed far away and looked at the mountain range.

Looking at the giant beasts, they were all frightened.

This scene was too scary!

Even if all the seven tribulation magnates of the Jiang clan and the Shi clan were here, they would not be able to deal with so many giant beasts!

"It's been a few months! The gate of fortune is also not doing anything. I think they are also afraid and want to drag this out to see who is more patient and can last until the end. "

They all shook their heads when they looked into the mountain range of fortune.

There was no movement in the mountains, and no one came out to pay attention to these giant beasts.

In the blink of an eye, another month had passed.

The number of giant beasts in the mountains increased, but there was still no movement from the gate of fortune.

After waiting for so many months, the prehistoric behemoths had lost their patience. Their deafening roars reverberated in all directions. Some of them even waved their huge palms and began to hit the mountain peaks, causing loud noises.

“Hmph! This kid is quite good at enduring.”

Several figures were hidden in the void, peeking at the situation below.

The person leading them was the medicine master.

He looked down and the corners of his mouth lifted slightly, revealing a playful smile.

He was the one who came up with the idea of instigating the untainted tribe. He was also the one who personally spread the rumors by various means. In just a few days, he had spread the news to the entire untainted tribe.

He was extremely satisfied with the current situation.

If that brat insisted on not handing it over, then these people from the great wilderness would not disperse. They would continue to surround the mountain range of fortune so that the brat would not dare to leave the gate of fortune easily.

This way, he would be able to successfully pin down that kid.

That kid was too demonic, and his luck was too heaven-defying. If he went out for a few rounds, he might get some lucky chance and have a breakthrough in his cultivation. However, if he stayed in the mountains all the time, there would be no lucky chance.

At this moment, the night Lord was leading the others to search for the treasure mentioned by the great void heaven. As long as they found it, there was a great chance that they could kill this brat in one fell swoop, eliminating any future trouble.

“Go on! Stop fooling around! It’s best if we can force that kid to come out and have a big fight, that’ll be even better.”

His lips curled into a cold smile.

Several days passed, and the situation below became more and more lively.

Many mountain peaks were smashed apart by the giant beasts. Some of the giant beasts even began to charge at the mountain gates, activating the great formation that guarded the mountain gates.

“It’s not enough! It’s best to make a bigger scene!”

The medicine master said excitedly.

“I’ll go!”

A black-robed old man behind him said.

He stepped out of the ripples in the void and stretched out his body, instantly turning into a giant python. He was 30000 meters long, covered in black scales, and exuded a monstrous evil Qi.

He rode on the clouds and landed in front of the mountain range. He shouted righteously, “Despicable human brat, hand over the Dragon’s corpse!”

Then, he swung his tail and whipped it toward the mountain Gate.

Bang!

In front of the mountain Gate, a barrier appeared and blocked this attack.

“Right! Hand over the Dragon’s corpse!”

Seeing this, the other giant beasts became much more courageous. Just now, many giant beasts did not dare to charge directly and just smashed things at the mountain Gate. Now, they did not care anymore and directly swung their fists at the mountain Gate, smashing it.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The sound was like thunder, reverberating between heaven and earth.

The formation that covered the entire mountain range trembled under the attacks of the beasts.

“Let’s continue. I don’t believe that the kid will dare to not come out. If he really doesn’t come out, we’ll keep smashing until we flatten this array and the creation mountain range!”

The old demon that was transformed from the black python shrieked.

With him taking the lead, the group of giant beasts began to bombard the area without restraint.

“You have guts!”

The bombardment continued for several hours. Suddenly, a shout came from the inside of the mountain Gate. It was like a muffled Thunder, shaking the world.

In an instant, all the sounds in the surroundings disappeared.

The giant beasts all stopped. They looked in the direction of the sound, and their pupils shrank.

It's that kid!

He's here!

Furthermore, it was a person!

This made them find it hard to believe. How did that kid dare to come out alone in front of so many of them?

If this wasn't seeking death, what was?
