

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2214

“The divine Spirit Scripture? Why is that kid looking for the divine Spirit Scripture?”

In the void outside the region, the night Lord and the others met with the medicine master again.

“It’s said that it’s for his immortal mansion. He wants to use the divine Spirit Scripture to set up more Divine Spirit statues to enhance the power of his immortal mansion!” The medicine master said.

“I’ve counted. There are nearly 10000 palaces in that immortal mansion, but only a hundred of them have divine statues. Think about it, there are only a hundred divine statues, and the immortal mansion is already so powerful. If he can condense more divine statues, how terrifying will the power of the immortal mansion be?”

Upon hearing this, the night patriarch and the others’ expressions changed.

The power of that immortal mansion had always made them incomparably apprehensive.

Back at the Dragon burial ground, that kid had relied on the power of the immortal mansion to fight one against two without being at a disadvantage.

“This Divine Spirit Scripture is one of the ancient rare Scriptures. It records countless ancient divine spirits. If that brat really gets it, he’ll definitely be able to erect hundreds and thousands of statues, which will make the immortal mansion even more powerful.”

“No matter what, we can’t let that kid find the Scripture!”

The night patriarch gritted his teeth and said with a serious expression.

“Brother ye, don’t worry. He won’t be able to get this Scripture no matter what.”

The medicine master laughed out loud and said.

“Oh? From brother Yao’s words, you seem to know where the Scripture is?”

The night patriarch was stunned.

“That’s right!” The medicine master nodded his head, “I went to the great void heaven to ask. So this mysterious Scripture has always been in the God curse heaven!”

“God curse heaven? Hahaha!”

The night patriarch was stunned for a moment before he laughed out loud.

“I don’t think that kid would ever dream that the thing he wants would be in the cursed sky! With the relationship between the cursed young master and him, how could he possibly give him the Scripture? it’s just a dream for him to get the Scripture and upgrade immortal mansion!”

Li Changhe also laughed out loud, his face full of joy.

The medicine master laughed. "I heard from elder Xu Heng that the Scriptures are in the treasure house of the cursed sky. No matter how powerful that kid is, he can't possibly reach into the treasure house of the cursed sky to get the Scriptures. We don't have to worry about this."

"Then I'm relieved!"

The night Lord nodded.

"By the way, brother ye, how's your search going? Do you have any clues?"

The medicine master asked.

"This ... I didn't!"

The night Lord laughed bitterly, "this void is too big and there are many ancient ruins. Many of them are quite dangerous for US 7th tribulation cultivators. If we are not careful, we might die. Therefore, it is not easy to find them."

When the medicine master heard this, he revealed a disappointed expression.

"We can't continue like this!" He frowned and said, "it's said that after that kid ate the flesh of the primeval tribe, his cultivation has increased by a lot. He probably has three or four drops of immortal blood. He's getting more and more difficult to deal with."

"What I'm more worried about is that after offending the untainted clan, the boy will have no scruples and madly devour the flesh and blood of the untainted clan. In this way, his cultivation will definitely soar. At that time, even if we find the treasure of no beginning, we can't deal with him."

When the night patriarch and the rest heard this, they all revealed worried expressions.

In the seventh tribulation realm, there was indeed a shortcut to improve cultivation, and that was the flesh and blood of the untainted tribe.

The flesh and blood of the untainted race were comparable to divine medicine. Moreover, the body size of the untainted race was huge, comparable to many divine medicines.

However, almost no one dared to do so, because the untainted tribe was too powerful. A single seven tribulations human was generally no match for the old monsters of the untainted tribe of the same level, and it was very difficult to kill one.

Moreover, the untainted tribe was very United. Anyone who ate the flesh of their tribe would be hunted down to the end.

Therefore, they did not dare to do so. Even the people of the 33 heavens, and even the eldest young master, did not dare to do so.

However, the boy surnamed Tang was different. He was so bold that he even dared to poke a hole in the sky. Why would he be afraid of the untainted clan?

The fact that he dared to eat their flesh in front of so many ancient monsters proved that he was not afraid at all.

"I've visited all the tribes in the untainted land during this period of time. They're all very worried and have sealed their mountain gates, not daring to let their tribesmen step out. They're all afraid of that kid."

"That's why they agreed to join hands with us to get rid of that kid!"

The medicine master said.

"With the participation of the untainted tribe, our strength has become extremely powerful. We don't even need that treasure of no beginning anymore. We may be able to kill that kid!"

The more the medicine master spoke, the more excited he became.

"If we keep waiting like this, when will it end? to find that treasure, we might need another three years, or even five years. If that kid is given three to five years, who knows how much he will grow?"

When they heard this, the night patriarch and the others revealed a look of interest.

"Then What do you mean, brother Yao?"

The night patriarch hesitated.

"I can't wait! We must act as soon as possible and kill this disaster!" The medicine master said viciously.

"This ... Is good! We can try!"

The night Lord considered for a moment and weighed the current situation before nodding.

They had the advantage of numbers, and it was the best time to attack.

"This Divine Spirit Scripture is our best chance to lure that brat into the trap. That brat thinks he's smart, so even if he knows it's a trap, he'll definitely come." The medicine master stroked his beard and smiled, looking very confident.

"But what this kid doesn't know is that we've already joined forces with the primeval tribe. If he dares to come, he'll only have a dead end!"

"Hahaha! Good! If that brat doesn't come, we won't suffer any losses, but if he does, we'll make sure he dies without a burial place!" The night patriarch smiled happily.

The medicine master said, "I already have a plan. The first step is to go to the heaven of heavencurse and get the Scripture. With the real Scripture, that kid will take the bait."

"The second step is to set up a trap ..."

After a long discussion, they finally came up with a plan.

Everyone was overjoyed.

They all felt that they would definitely succeed this time.

As long as that brat took the bait, he would die without a doubt!

"Then let's follow the plan. I'll bring fellow Daoist Changhe and the others to the heavens to retrieve the Scriptures. Brother ye, you guys go and set up a trap."

After the medicine master finished speaking, he brought li Changhe and the others and headed straight for the divine curse heaven.

"You guys want the divine Spirit Scripture to deal with that Tang fella?"

In the divine curse Palace, they saw young master divine curse, who had just come out of seclusion.

"Good! As long as it's to deal with that guy, no matter what treasure it is, I'll lend it to you, not to mention a useless Scripture. I'll have someone bring it over later." "Okay!" The cursed young master agreed readily.

"I really didn't expect that guy to become so powerful after I went into seclusion for a few years. Even young master Taixu was crippled by him. His current cultivation has already surpassed me, the cursed young master."

After saying that, the divine curse young master gritted his teeth, and a look of jealousy and hatred appeared on his face.

He had thought that he would be ahead of that guy surnamed Tang after he came out of his closed-door cultivation, but he did not expect that the moment he came out of his closed-door cultivation, he would receive the news that that guy had advanced to the seventh tribulation.

What shocked him even more was that young master Taixu was still defeated by that guy even though he had condensed the immortal blood of no beginning.

He still lost, he was not as good as that guy!

This was something that he, who had always been proud, could not accept.

Now that he heard that these people were going to deal with that guy, he naturally agreed. He wanted to see that guy die more than anyone else.

“Go! Bring me the Scripture!”

He turned around and gave an order to the attendant standing at the side.

After about 15 minutes, the servant returned with a purple jade box in his hand.
