

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2219

After galloping for a while, a Broken Star piece appeared in the void ahead.

On the fragment, there was a dilapidated Taoist temple.

At first glance, this Daoist temple looked very ordinary. It was just an ordinary and slightly dilapidated Daoist temple.

However, Tang Hao and the others' gazes were drawn to the sign on the temple's door.

"No beginning? It can't be wrong, this meaning ... Can only be written by peerless mighty people like no beginning immortal venerable."

Ling Zhanxu praised.

On the plaque were the words 'no beginning'.

If an ordinary cultivator came here, even if they recognized the two words "no beginning," they would not be sure that this was the true "no beginning." However, they were all at the 7th tribulation and could feel the hidden Supreme aura from the words.

"Since it's the No beginning genuine work, this temple must be extraordinary!"

Jiang zhengdao looked at the temple with a burning gaze.

He stood in front of the temple and bowed to the plaque before entering the temple.

Tang Hao and the others did as they were told and walked in.

"Guys, look, isn't that a Cenotaph?"

Stepping into the temple and looking around, they saw a mound of Yellow Earth, but it looked very much like a grave.

"Hahaha! This was the tomb! It's one of the five fake tombs that no beginning immortal venerable set up!"

Ling Zhanxu laughed.

"This yellow mud tomb is where the entrance is!"

As he spoke, he walked forward excitedly.

"We've found Xu Zhong, but we don't know how to open it and enter."

He circled around the yellow mud tomb a few times and frowned.

Jiang zhengdao and the others stepped forward and studied it, but they were also at a loss.

For a moment, they were all dumbfounded. They had found Xu Zhong, but they did not know how to open it. What should they do?

“Why don’t ... I try to kowtow a few times?”

Yushi min suggested.

“Kowtow?”

Everyone was stunned, and then revealed a difficult expression.

They really didn’t expect this. Furthermore, as seven tribulation saints, they were all big shots. How could they lower their faces?

If there was really no beginning immortal venerable buried here, he could kowtow for the name of the first man of the hundred Immortals era, but there was no such thing, it was just an empty grave.

“You guys, what’s there to be embarrassed about!”

Seeing this, Yu Shibao chuckled and stepped forward. He knelt down in front of the tomb and kowtowed three times.

After the third time, when she lifted her head, the yellow mud tomb suddenly shook, and the entire Taoist temple shook.

“There’s really a reaction!”

Ling Zhanxu and the others were startled, somewhat caught off guard.

Then, before they could react, the yellow mud tomb trembled violently, and a bell sound came from the tomb.

The sound of the bell came from far away, as if it came from ancient times. Gradually, it became clear and loud, shaking people’s eardrums and souls. First, the entire Taoist temple, then the broken star pieces, all trembled violently under the sound of the bell.

As the bell rang louder and louder, the void around them trembled. The sound waves turned into tangible ripples and spread out in all directions.

Soon, the sound of the bell spread throughout the vast void.

All the cultivators in the void heard the bell.

“Eh? What’s that sound?”

“A Bell? Where did the bell come from?”

At this moment, somewhere in the void outside the region, on the night clan’s warship, the night Lord and the others looked around with a blank expression.

It was hard to even see a person in this void, so where did the bell come from?

After listening for a while, their expressions changed from confusion to extreme shock.

The sound of the bell was clearly coming from an extremely far place. Furthermore, the sound of the bell had traveled so far, yet it could still make their primordial spirits tremble. It must be a world-shaking treasure!

“The bell! The bell ... Do you think it’s the treasure we’re looking for?”

The night patriarch said in a low voice.

“It can’t be?”

Li Changhe and the others were a little suspicious.

If this was really the treasure of no beginning immortal venerable, how could it ring at this time?

Who was it that triggered the bell?

“In my opinion, this must be the great Dao Bell. I don’t believe that there’s another Dao Bell in this world that has such power that it can spread across the entire void. Listen, the bell has spread to all directions and it’s not stopping.”

An elder from the heaven of Holy curses shouted from the crowd.

“This is too much of a coincidence!”

The cursed young master said with a frown.

“Young master, this is indeed the great Dao Bell. Someone must have discovered the No beginning empty tomb by chance and triggered the bell. This is a blessing from heaven! Even the heavens are helping us!”

Another elder from the heaven of Holy curses said.

“Hahaha! It seemed like it was true! The way I see it, even the heavens can’t stand that surnamed Tang, so they’ve come to help me find this treasure and kill him!”

“Hahahaha!” The cursed young master laughed.

“This is young master’s luck! You see, as soon as you came, we found something!”

“Young master is truly the one chosen by the heavens!”

The surrounding cultivators saw the opportunity and began to flatter him.

“Hahaha! Good! Since the heavens are helping us, we must seize this opportunity! Let’s go! Hurry up and snatch the Dao Bell!”

“Die!” The cursed young master shouted, and his face was red with excitement.

“Let’s go, let’s go!”

The night patriarch and the rest could not wait any longer. They immediately urged the ship to sail in the direction of the Dao bell at the fastest speed.

At this time, in the thirty-three heavens, countless cultivators opened their eyes and looked at the sky.

There, the sound of a Dao Bell pierced through the void and came in.

“This Bell ... Could it be?”

“The great Dao Bell! This was the great Bell of Dao! Hahaha! The first treasure without beginning has finally appeared!”

Joyful laughter came from all over the 33 heavens.

Soon, many rainbows flew out of the thirty-three heavens and into the depths of the void.

In the eight desolates, countless cultivators also looked up at the sky with shock.

“This Bell is vibrating in the depths of the void, but the sound can spread to all directions. It’s definitely not an ordinary item!”

“It seems that another peerless treasure has appeared in the void. I’ll go and check it out!”

From the ancient cities, divine light shot into the sky and reached the nine Heavens.

“Mother, it’s bad!”

Meanwhile, in the Taoist temple, Tang Hao and the others were stunned for a moment before they finally came back to their senses.

Their expressions changed.

This commotion was too great. It was afraid that the entire void, and even the eight desolates, would be alarmed. Not to mention the night Lord and the others in the void, even the seven tribulations of the various races would be attracted over. This was not good news.

“Let’s go!”

Jiang zhengdao shouted and took out all kinds of defensive treasures. He wrapped himself up tightly and rushed toward the yellow mud tomb.

Above the tomb, the void rippled and an entrance appeared. It was obvious that it led to the real empty tomb.

“Let’s go in first! Brat Tang, fellow Daoist rain master, you two will be the last!”

Ling Zhanxu followed closely behind and rushed in.

“Let’s go!”

In the end, Tang Hao and Yushi min looked at each other and rushed into the entrance together.
