

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2221

“There’s also one in front!”

Tang Hao and the others traveled for a while before they heard a buzzing sound in front of them.

In that direction, countless immemorial blood mosquitoes were also swarming over.

“Let’s go!”

Jiang zhengdao shouted and dashed in another direction.

But not long after, another swarm of mosquitoes appeared in front of them, blocking their way.

In an instant, they were surrounded by mosquitoes from all directions.

“Damn, why are there so many?”

Ling Zhanxu cursed in a low voice.

Everyone looked around, and their expressions were a little ugly.

Surrounded by mosquitoes and the yellow spring sea below, it was a dead end.

“Go down!”

Seeing that the mosquitoes were about to reach them, everyone could only choose to rush down. At the same time, they took out their treasures and attacked to stop the blood mosquitoes.

A moment later, they were approaching the yellow spring sea below.

When they reached a height of 30 meters above the sea, they did not dare to go any further. The sea was not calm, and waves would occasionally surge. If they were splashed by the yellow spring water, it would be very dangerous.

However, as the swarm of mosquitoes kept coming, they soon couldn’t resist it. They could only fight and retreat, and then fall down.

Seeing that the sea was getting closer and closer, and that the waves were about to roll over them, everyone was a little worried.

“Eh? Why did they stop?”

When they were three meters above the sea, the blood mosquitoes suddenly stopped and wandered around, not daring to go down, as if they were afraid of something.

“They are also afraid of the netherworld water!”

Jiang zhengdao said in surprise.

“That’s great!” Everyone heaved a sigh of relief, having a feeling of coming back from the dead end.

After resting for a moment, everyone kept close to the surface of the sea and glided towards the island. Everyone was very careful. Not only did they have to pay attention to the mosquitoes above, but they also had to pay attention to the sea below, for fear of being swept by the waves.

“Look, what’s that?”

After travelling for a moment, Ling Zhanxu suddenly shouted and pointed forward.

Everyone looked over and saw a boat floating on the sea.

As the waves surged, the boat bobbed up and down, like a floating duckweed, floating towards them.

“What kind of ship is this?”

Everyone was a little surprised.

This was the water of the netherworld. Ordinary flying ships would be corroded quickly if they were put in it, but ye Qingzhou was completely fine and was not afraid of the water at all.

“Let’s go and take a look!”

Tang Hao said.

Jiang zhengdao and the others nodded and led the way.

“There’s nothing wrong with this boat!”

They scouted from a distance and only dared to approach after confirming that there were no problems.

“It’s really strange. This boat is neither big nor small, but it can accommodate so many people!”

After sizing up the boat, everyone felt a little strange.

The size of this boat was just right!

“It seems that this empty mound has a spirit. This boat was prepared for us!” Ling Zhanxu said as he took the lead and descended.

Everyone went down in a single file and landed on the boat.

“Let’s go!”

They studied it for a while and quickly mastered the method to operate the boat. They immediately controlled the boat and swept forward.

However, no matter how they tried, the speed of the boat could not be raised. It could only slowly sweep forward, causing the impatient Ling Zhanxu to watch helplessly.

“It’s good to be slower! This wave is going to kill you!”

Jiang zhengdao and the others laughed.

“Such a large yellow spring sea and so many immemorial blood mosquitoes. No wonder he’s no beginning immortal venerable!”

Everyone stood on the boat and looked in all directions, revealing an expression of amazement.

Tang Hao sighed. Then, he activated his heaven’s eye and continued to search for the whereabouts of the great Dao Bell.

“There are many islands over there ... Could the great Dao Bell be on one of them?”

Tang Hao muttered as he looked into the distance.

“If they’re really on an island, those islands must be extremely dangerous. Perhaps there’s something even more terrifying than these ancient blood mosquitoes! Or is the bell not on the island but in the yellow spring sea?”

Tang Hao had a bold idea.

“If it’s really in the sea, then it’ll be troublesome!”

Tang Hao mumbled. His brows furrowed slightly.

“Forget it, let’s not care about this for now. I’ll explore those islands first. For now, I’ll collect some treasures!”

Tang Hao retracted his gaze and raised his head to look at the sky.

There, countless blood mosquitoes were wandering around, like a sea of blood, covering the sky and the sun.

The ancient blood mosquito was a legendary and vicious creature. Ordinary cultivators avoided it like a snake or Scorpion. However, at the same time, the ancient blood mosquito was also a treasure. Its bloodline was extremely ancient, not inferior to those of the primordial bloodline.

“No matter how I look at it ... This thing doesn’t taste good at all!”

Tang Hao grinned as he studied the mosquito.

This blood mosquito's ugly and ferocious appearance made him unable to eat it at all. Moreover, mosquitoes didn't have much flesh on their bodies.

"Not good? F * ck! Little Tang, your taste is too strong! You even want to eat this?"

When Ling Zhanxu heard this, he couldn't help but be speechless.

Tang Hao smirked. He stomped his foot and soared into the sky toward the swarm of mosquitoes. He stretched out his hand, and a huge blood-red palm appeared and grabbed the mosquitoes.

The mosquito swarm became restless and retreated.

However, a few of them were unable to Dodge in time and were caught by his palm.

He activated the Red Lotus true fire and refined these blood mosquitoes, obtaining their blood essence.

"Collect!"

He took out a Jade bottle and collected all the blood essence.

This blood essence was the essence of these blood mosquitoes. It could be directly consumed to improve cultivation or used to refine a great supplement pill.
