

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2224

Burp!

Tang Hao rubbed his stomach and burped. He looked very satisfied.

He could clearly feel that his Fire Lotus had grown bigger and its power had increased when the fire essence had entered his stomach.

“As expected of the purple void Heavenly Fire!”

Tang Hao complimented.

The purple sky Fire was a good thing, one of the few kinds of real fire in the world. The treasure of the purple sky, which could only be owned by the core people of the purple sky.

Only a peerless figure like no beginning immortal venerable could get this genuine fire from the purple sky heaven and cultivate so many fire essence.

Jiang zhengdao and the others behind Tang Hao were stunned.

They were just thinking about how to deal with these fire spirits, but they didn't expect that brat Tang would rush up and swallow a few in one bite.

“This is the purple sky Fire. He's not afraid of holding on!”

Ling Zhanxu was speechless.

The group of fire spirits also seemed to be a little stunned. They were stunned for a long time before they reacted.

They were furious and rushed over while screaming.

These fire spirits were mostly in the form of beasts. There were phoenixes, flood Dragons, Tigers, leopards, and so on. All kinds of birds and animals could be found among them.

As they rushed over, the purple primordial fire surged toward them with a monstrous momentum.

Everyone immediately took out their defensive treasures to block the flames.

“Not good! There are too many of these beasts!”

After resisting for a moment, everyone looked strained.

As a genuine fire, the power of the purple sky Fire was quite powerful. Moreover, there was too much of this fire essence, and with the addition of the effect of the formation, it was somewhat difficult for them to resist.

“More is better! I’ll devour however many there are!”

“Immortal blood!” Tang Hao shouted as he activated the immortal blood in his body. He opened his mouth and sucked in a dozen fire essences, swallowing them into his stomach.

The fire Lotus in his body shook and swallowed the fire essence in an instant.

The size of the fire Lotus had become a little bigger.

Tang Hao was overjoyed. He realized that this place was a treasure trove. There were treasures everywhere. First, it was the archaic blood mosquitoes. Then, it was the fire essence transformed from the true fire. They were all rare items.

Also, the swords in the first killing formation were all good swords. However, he had enough tribulation artifacts and wasn’t interested in them, so he didn’t waste his energy to collect them.

“This Tang kid ... Is really a freak!”

Jiang zhengdao and the others were dumbfounded.

That was true fire!

Most 7th tribulation cultivators would not dare to swallow it directly, as their bodies could not withstand it at all. They had to first use treasures to store it, and then slowly refine it. They were not like this kid, who could swallow it casually.

After digesting the fire essence in his body, Tang Hao opened his mouth again and sucked in a dozen more, which he swallowed.

Just like that, he continued to devour the fire essence in the formation. The fire Lotus in his body continued to expand, and at the same time, its color became darker, from a bright red to a deep dark red.

“Not enough! It’s not enough!”

Tang Hao mumbled.

If he wanted his primordial fire to transform and catch up to or even surpass the power of the connate primordial fire, he needed to swallow more flames.

He opened his mouth and crazily activated the immortal blood in his body, sucking more fire essence and swallowing it.

Very quickly, the amount of fire essence in the array was reduced by half.

The remaining fire spirits were dumbfounded.

“This is a monster!”

A fire spirit groaned.

They were born in the ancient times and were personally cultivated by no beginning immortal venerable. Following no beginning immortal venerable, they had seen many ancient mighty people who were much more powerful than this guy, but they had never seen such an abnormal one.

He was clearly only at the seventh tribulation, but he was not afraid of them at all. Moreover, he could easily devour them, dozens of them in one bite, devouring them was like playing.

“Let’s go!”

“This guy is too fierce!”

They all cried out and fled.

“Where are you running to?”

“Go!” Tang Hao shouted. He caught up to her, opened his mouth, and inhaled.

A terrifying suction force came out of his mouth. Dozens of fire essence could not escape in time and were sucked in and swallowed into his stomach.

When the remaining fire spirits saw this, they trembled in fear and fled even faster.

“Eh? How did it disappear?”

Tang Hao finished digesting the fire essence in his stomach. When he looked again, he could not see the figures of the fire essence.

“Little Tang, they’ve all run away!”

Jiang zhengdao and the others said with a bitter smile.

They had never thought that the second killing formation would be broken just like that, and in such a weird way.

“No! Just a little bit more, don’t even think about running away!”

Tang Hao’s eyes glowed as he scanned his surroundings.

How could they let the treasure that was in their mouths run away!

Seeing this, Jiang zhengdao and the others smiled bitterly again.

“Brat Tang, they should be hiding in the array disc. Do you think you can find it?”

Ling Zhan smiled.

“Don’t waste your energy. Let’s hurry up and go to the next array!”

As he spoke, he waved his hand and beckoned everyone to walk forward.

However, he had only taken a few steps when he stopped. His eyes slowly widened as he stared to the side.

There, Tang Hao was pointing a finger.

At the tip of his finger, a ripple appeared in the void, and a red flag appeared.

“That ... That’s ...”

Jiang zhengdao and the others also widened their eyes in shock.

That was clearly an array flag, the core of this killing array!

How did this Tang kid find it?

How was it possible to find the formation flag and break the killing formation in such a short time?

“That’s right! This was an array flag! Tsk tsk! No wonder you’re no beginning immortal venerable, even your formation flag is an 8th tribulation Emperor weapon, you’re really willing to part with it!” Tang Hao grabbed the flag and examined it for a moment.

“Mother! This pervert is here again!”

“How did he find us?”

The fire spirits in the flag were all stunned!

They thought that they had finally escaped and were far away from this pervert. They didn’t expect that this pervert would pursue them relentlessly and even find the array flags they were hiding in.

“Why are you guys running? why don’t you just let me swallow you?”

Tang Hao mumbled. He sent his divine will into the formation flags.

In an instant, he refined the array flag. Then, he activated the treasure flag and released the fire essence inside. He opened his mouth and inhaled, swallowing the fire essence into his stomach.

The fire essence turned into nutrients and was absorbed by the fire Lotus.

The fire Lotus grew bigger and bigger, and its color became darker and darker. At the same time, the body of the fire Lotus also changed. It grew taller and taller, from a single layer to two layers. The number of petals also increased, and there were twelve petals in both the upper and lower layers.

Tang Hao burped again after he swallowed the last batch of fire essence.

He touched his stomach with a satisfied expression.

This much fire essence was a great fortune for him.

The true fire in his body had evolved from the houtian level to the Xiantian level. Its power was already on par with the Vermilion Bird True fire, the purple sky Fire, and other Xiantian true fires.

The twelve-petal Lotus was the sign of the upper sky.
