

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2226

“That’s ... The ancient blood mosquito? Oh my God! Why are there so many of them?”

“Could that be the netherworld water?”

Saints kept pouring into the empty tomb. When they saw the sky full of mosquitoes and the yellow spring sea below, they all gasped in shock.

Before they came, they already knew that this place was extremely dangerous. After all, this was a tomb set up by the number one person in the hundred Immortals. However, they didn’t expect that this place would be so dangerous. The first thing that came up was peerless fierce creatures like the immemorial blood mosquitoes and the yellow spring water.

Many saints immediately backed out and lingered at the entrance, not daring to take half a step forward.

They observed for a while and discovered the secret of the boats on the sea. Only then did they dare to rush down and board one of the boats. They followed the large group and sailed toward the island in the distance.

Some unlucky ones were surrounded by the mosquitoes before they could reach the surface of the sea, and they were caught in a tough battle.

Ahhhh!

From time to time, there would be screams of pain.

Even a seven tribulation Saint couldn’t stop so many ancient blood mosquitoes. Most of them were injured, and the battle was tragic.

They had no choice but to use all kinds of life-saving means to rush out of the mosquito swarm and escape in a hurry.

“Legend has it that even true immortals are afraid of these ancient blood mosquitoes!”

“The cultivation of these blood mosquitoes is not high. Most of them are at the 5th or 6th tribulation. If they were a group of 7th tribulation blood mosquitoes, it would be terrible. Even if an 8th tribulation venerable sovereign came, he would be so scared that he would turn and run!”

The cultivators on the boat looked up at the sky and discussed in low voices.

They looked around for a moment before they retracted their gazes and looked forward.

“Those are people from Black Tortoise heaven! That’s the West Pole ...”

They pointed at the figures in front of them.

The orthodoxies of the 33 heavens were at the front of the group. They were in the lead by a large margin.

“Look, there’s a ship at the front!”

As their line of sight swept past these ships, they discovered that there was another ship at the forefront. This ship was particularly large, dozens of times larger than the ship they were standing on, and there were many people on it.

“Then which orthodoxy is it?”

All the cultivators were shocked.

Most of the orthodoxies from the 33 heavens were in groups of three to five people. After all, even the 33 heavens didn’t have many seven tribulation saints. They could only send three to five people at most. However, there were clearly forty to fifty people on this ship.

Which force in the world could gather so many seven tribulation saints?

“It’s the night Lord! And the medicine master and the others!”

All the cultivators activated their spiritual pupils and Dharma eyes to size up the figure for a moment and finally saw it clearly.

“So it’s them!”

All the cultivators suddenly understood.

Everyone in Pangu knew that the night clan and the Yao clan had gathered a group of seven tribulations to form an alliance to deal with divine Lord Tang.

All the cultivators’ expressions turned ugly.

With such a powerful force, their hope of snatching the great Dao Bell was very slim.

“They’re the fastest, far ahead of the other Dao universes. They should be the first to arrive. They’re the ones who discovered this virtual tomb!”

“It can’t be wrong. I’ve long heard that the night Lord and the others are looking for a treasure that can restrain ye Xi. The great Dao Bell has such a divine power. Now, they’ve finally found it!”

“I think the bell will definitely fall into their hands this time. With the bell, divine Lord Tang will be in danger!”

“Yup! Not only do the night clan Alliance have a large number of people, but they also have the support of the great void heaven. It’s said that all the clans in the untainted land have joined them. With this treasure that can restrain ye Xi, divine Lord Tang is really in trouble. ”

The cultivators discussed and shook their heads.

Originally, the night clan Alliance was stronger than the creation Alliance. However, divine Lord Tang was too powerful. With ye Cha around, the night clan Alliance could not do anything to him.

But now, with the appearance of the great Dao Bell, the situation was probably going to be reversed.

“Look, who’s that?”

Just as everyone was sighing with emotion, someone exclaimed.

All the cultivators looked at the ship again and were shocked.

“That’s ... The cursed young master?”

“Why is young master jinx on that ship?”

All the cultivators exclaimed.

They didn’t know that the God of curse had joined the night race Alliance!

“That’s not surprising. The cursed young master and divine Lord Tang have been enemies for a long time because of Master Li. The cursed young master was in seclusion to break through to the seventh tribulation. It seems that he just came out of seclusion and joined forces with the night Lord to deal with divine Lord Tang!”

Someone explained.

All the cultivators were shocked.

First, it was the great void heaven. Then, it was the divine curse heaven. With the support of two ancient orthodoxies, the power of the night race Alliance had reached a terrifying level!

How could the creation Alliance, led by divine Lord Tang, be a match for him?

Furthermore, the night race Alliance was about to obtain the great Dao Bell!

“Hmph! It’s good that you recognize me!”

At this time, the cursed young master turned around on the boat. He placed his hands behind his back and looked at the cultivators arrogantly.

“This great Dao Bell belongs to me. Don’t even think about snatching it from me. If anyone dares to have any ideas about the bell, don’t blame me for being impolite!”

He shouted unceremoniously as he looked around.

All the cultivators were silent, not daring to respond.

Even the people from the various orthodoxies didn't make a sound.

Even they didn't dare to provoke the night race Alliance and the cursed sky.

Furthermore, people from the great void heaven had also arrived. If they discovered the bell, they would definitely help the night race Alliance.

"I'm afraid there's no hope for this great Dao Bell!"

"Let's see if there are any other treasures!"

The people of the orthodoxies shook their heads and gave up on the idea of snatching the bell.

Seeing that no one responded, the cursed young master snorted and retracted his gaze in satisfaction.

"Young master is divine!"

Li Changhe and the others beside him immediately complimented him.

"Haha!" The divine curse young master laughed heartily, feeling quite proud of himself.

"The precious Bell should be on the islands in front! I can't wait any longer. Once we obtain the precious Bell, we'll immediately charge towards the gate of fortune and kill that Tang fellow to prevent any accidents from happening!"

He said as he looked at the few islands in the distance.

"Don't worry, young master. That kid won't be able to run away. Once we get the bell, I'll contact all the tribes in untainted land. They've been waiting impatiently for a long time. Once you give the order, we'll kill our way to the gate of fortune and destroy the kid and the gate of fortune!"

The night patriarch laughed.

As the islands got closer and closer, he became more and more excited.

Li Changhe, old demon blood Yin, and the others were all the same.

The great Dao Bell was their hope for revenge!

Now, this hope was close at hand!

Plop! Plop!

As they got closer and closer, their hearts were beating faster and faster.

When the ship was about to reach the shore, their hearts were about to jump to their throats, and they were so excited that their bodies were trembling.

“Eh? Isn’t this brother ye, brother Yao!”

“Aiya! Brother divine curse, why are you here? Long time no see!”

But at this moment, a familiar voice came from the island.

When the night patriarch and the rest heard that, they trembled as if they were struck by lightning and were stunned on the spot!
