

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2250

"I see!"

Tang Hao mumbled, a little disappointed.

He was not far from the thousand Blood Realm, so he really needed this secret skill.

"There's no need to be anxious, brother Tang. I'll go and ask again. As long as the path master really knows about this secret skill, I'll definitely be able to get it." Li gongzi laughed.

"Thank you!" Tang Hao cupped his hands.

"What are you thanking me for? You don't have to be so polite with me!" Li gongzi waved his hand.

After a pause, she continued, 'the branch you gave to wahuang heaven belongs to senior locust tree, right? At that time, I really didn't expect him to be The Guardian of Emperor Yan heaven!"

Tang Hao nodded.

He was actually a little surprised. He did not expect senior locust tree to have such a high status in wahuang heaven.

"I've heard some of his legends, but I didn't expect that ... He's still alive and that I'll be able to see him again!" Young master Li sighed and said, "this is a real nine tribulations Supreme Master, an ancient top power!"

"Oh right, did you tell the people of wahuang heaven that senior locust tree is still alive?"

Young master Li asked.

"No, I didn't!" Tang Hao shook his head. "After all, senior's cultivation hasn't recovered yet, and he's still very weak. For safety's sake, it's better not to reveal that he's still alive."

"That's true!"

Li gongzi nodded and said, "senior locust tree is a spirit of nature and was once a nine tribulations Supreme martial artist. Every leaf is a Supreme divine object. If the news that he is still alive spreads, it will inevitably attract some coveting. Even the people of wahuang heaven may not be able to resist it."

"That's right!"

Tang Hao replied.

"You convinced the people of wahuang heaven with this branch and even took out a Kunwu token to convince them. I'd like to hear how you got this Kunwu token."

Li gongzi asked curiously.

“Well, it’s a long story!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

Following that, he recounted his relationship with Kunwu in full detail.

“You actually found the Kunwu ruins ...”

“I’ve heard of this young master lie. He was one of the most brilliant geniuses of that era. However, the ending was a little tragic. Both father and son died in that battle. I didn’t expect that ... He would still have a wisp of his soul left behind.”

Li gongzi listened and occasionally showed a surprised look.

When she heard that young master lie was guarding the Kunwu ruins alone, she sighed again, feeling a myriad of emotions.

By the time Tang Hao finished, an hour had passed, and the treasured boat had already entered the outer region of the void.

After a while, a bright light suddenly flashed in the dark void.

“What’s that?”

The two of them immediately noticed it and looked over.

There were very few people in this void. If there was someone, it must be a seventh tribulation old monster.

“It seems like someone is hurrying on their way.”

Li gongzi looked at it for a while and muttered, “but it’s too far. I can’t see it clearly.”

She had already activated her spiritual pupils, but she still could not see clearly.

“Let me see!”

Tang Hao opened his heavenly eye and looked over.

He could clearly see that it was a brilliant divine light. The divine light was so dazzling that even he could not see through it.

“This divine light ... Something is wrong!”

Tang Hao was shocked.

A seven tribulation Saint would not have such a dazzling divine light.

“Don’t tell me it’s the eighth tribulation?”

Tang Hao was shocked.

Then, he activated his heavenly eye and looked into the divine light.

He could vaguely see a blood-colored figure.

“This is ...”

Tang Hao shuddered and exclaimed.

Bloody, and he’s an eighth tribulation. Could he be The Blood King?

Before he could figure it out, another divine light appeared behind this one. It was also extremely bright, and it seemed like this divine light was chasing after the one in front.

Tang Hao’s expression changed.

“What’s wrong?”

Li gongzi was surprised.

“The Blood King! The great void sect master too!”

Tang Hao said in a deep voice, his expression extremely serious.
