

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2251

Li gongzi's face also changed.

The Blood King and the great void sect master!

Both of them were eight-tribulation venerable emperors, the peak experts of Pangu.

There were billions of cultivators in the entire Pangu world, but the number of eight-tribulation venerable emperors was less than fifty, and each of them was an earth-shattering figure.

"The one in front is ...?"

She asked.

It's The Blood King!" Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

Young master Li responded with an 'Oh'.

This was normal. Even though they were both 8th tribulation cultivators, their experience was different. The great void sect master attained his Dao earlier and was the master of the great void sect. As for The Blood King, he was just an itinerant cultivator from the lower realm who had only attained his Dao a few hundred years ago.

The Blood King was lacking in terms of cultivation level, divine arts, and Daoist techniques.

"I've long heard that the great void sect master is pursuing The Blood King in the outer-realm void. I didn't expect to meet him here today." She said, "it's been so many years, but they still haven't come to a conclusion."

"No victory or defeat, this is the best!"

Tang Hao mumbled as he looked into the distance.

To him, the best result would be for the two of them to continue fighting like this. It would be best if they could fight for a few more decades. This way, he would have enough time to attempt the eighth tribulation.

"That's true! If the great void sect master wins, he'll definitely come and find trouble with you. He won't let you grow and become the second blood King!" Li gongzi nodded.

"Yup!"

"Okay," Tang Hao replied.

His brows were tightly furrowed, and he was full of worry.

What he didn't say was that he would be in danger if The Blood King won. This was because he had the ninth great void seal that The Blood King wanted.

At this moment, the treasured boat had already stopped. The two of them concealed their auras, not wanting to be noticed.

However, they were still discovered. The divine light in front of them paused for a moment, and a spiritual will swept over from afar. Then, a soft sound of surprise was heard.

"Why is it this kid?"

In the next moment, the divine light that was chasing after them also stopped and swept over.

"It's this kid!"

A low and cold shout came from afar, and the tone was somewhat unfriendly.

"This girl is ... A girl from the Vermillion Bird heaven?"

Then, he noticed Li Gongzi and was a little surprised.

"Junior Li greets the blood Emperor and the great void sect master!"

Li Gongzi bowed to the two of them and called out respectfully.

"Greetings, senior blood!" Tang Hao only bowed to The Blood King. "Senior, you helped me on chaotic World Mountain that day. I will always remember your kindness."

"Not bad, kid! It's only been a few years, and it's already 500 immortal blood!"

The divine light in front of him dissipated, revealing a blood-red figure.

"I know all about what you've done over the years. You didn't embarrass us lower realm cultivators. Even I wasn't as good as you back then!"

The Blood King laughed.

"Hmph!"

The great void sect master snorted angrily.

His body was still shrouded in a resplendent immortal radiance. His appearance could not be seen clearly, and only the outline of his figure could be vaguely seen.

Upon hearing this angry snort, The Blood King immediately laughed out loud. "Old man great void, I've heard that your precious successor has been crippled by him. Your great void heaven is no good!"

The great void sect master snorted angrily again.

“Old demon blood, don’t be too smug. He’ll be next after I’m done with you!”

He shouted coldly.

Then, he glared at Tang Hao coldly.

Tang Hao’s scalp went numb from being stared at. This was an eight-tribulation venerable sovereign. The aura on his body was as deep as the ocean, and he was almost out of breath.

“I’ll keep your little life for now!”

The great void sect master snorted coldly and charged towards the blood-red figure.

“Kid, we’ll meet again!”

“Die!” The Blood King roared as he transformed into divine light and shot off.

The two of them soon disappeared into the vast void.

Tang Hao stood on the treasured boat and watched the two of them leave. His brows were furrowed, and his expression was grave.

When the great void sect master stared at him just now, he could feel that his gaze had stopped between his brows for a long time. The great void sect master might have already guessed that he was the ninth king.

After all, this wasn’t something that was difficult to guess. He was born in the lower realm and was extremely talented. Furthermore, he was related to The Blood King. As long as the great void sect master wasn’t stupid, he should be able to guess it.

“I hope they can fight a little longer!”

Tang Hao retracted his gaze after a long while.

“Brother Tang, you don’t have to worry too much!”

Li gongzi also retracted his gaze and comforted him. He then drove the boat and sped away.
