

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2262

A ripple appeared in the void.

Tang Hao came out of the hole and heaved a sigh of relief.

He had finally gotten rid of the old devil!

That old demon had been injured by the combined attacks of The Blood King and the great void sect master. He probably wouldn't be able to find trouble with him for a while.

"Who is that old devil? How come you don't even recognize The Blood King and the great void sect master?"

Tang Hao was confused.

There weren't many eight tribulations in Pangu, less than fifty of them, so they should all know each other.

"From the old monster's tone, it seems like he's been in the Dao for a long time. He seems to be an ancient figure ..."

"But there doesn't seem to be any powerful figures among the ancient demon race?"

Tang Hao pondered.

In Pangu, the demon tribe had always been in an awkward position, inferior to the human tribe and the untainted land tribe. In history, the demon tribe had not produced many powerful figures.

"Let's just directly explore it!"

Tang Hao thought for a while, but he could not come up with anything. He opened his heavenly eye and looked around.

When that old demon was facing off against The Blood King and the great void sect master, he had already secretly locked his heavenly eye on that old demon.

To him, old demon Xue Yin and the cursed young master weren't a big threat anymore. The eight tribulations old monster who had come out of nowhere was his biggest threat.

Only by knowing the old monster's whereabouts could he keep himself safe.

Using his heavenly eye, he quickly saw the old monster.

The old monster was traveling at high speed in the void, heading toward the eight desolates.

"Great void heaven! Great void heaven again! When I recover, I will definitely slaughter your great void heaven!"

“And that kid! You really deserve to die!”

He roared in anger as he swept over.

His voice spread out, shaking the entire void.

He was extremely furious. He was the demon Thearch, when had he ever suffered such humiliation!

A mere seven tribulations kid, he actually couldn't take him down, and was even ruthlessly played by that kid. A few days ago, that kid wasn't just wandering around, he was clearly looking for those two guys and then drawing him over to kill with a borrowed knife!

The funny thing was, he didn't see through it at all and was fooled.

Soon, he returned to the beihuang region.

The old demonic Dragon sensed his aura and rushed over.

“Congratulations, senior, for obtaining a celestial treasure!”

From a distance, the old demonic Dragon showed a flattering smile and congratulated him.

“Hmph!”

The desolate evil demon Thearch glared at him and snorted in anger.

The old demonic Dragon's face froze in shock.

He originally thought that senior had returned after catching that brat, but looking at senior's appearance, he seemed to be a little unhappy. Could it be that he had let that brat escape?

But ... How was this possible?

With senior demon Emperor's remarkable abilities, how could that brat possibly escape?

The old demonic Dragon found it unbelievable.

“Didn't you say that the kid doesn't have any background?” Demon Emperor Huang xie rebuked.

“Ah? What's his background?” The old demonic Dragon was stunned. “Yeah! That kid doesn't have any background. He's from the lower realm, so what background can he have?”

“Hmph! What a good 'no background'. Do you know who I met just now? Two 8th tribulation powerhouses! That kid has two 8th tribulation martial artists as his backing, and you still say he doesn't have any background?”

Demon Emperor Huang xie rebuked.

“Two ... Two 8th tribulation tribulation transcendent beings?”

The old demonic Dragon was stunned!

“That ... That kid ... Where did he get two 8th tribulation experts to back him up?” He stammered.

“One of them is the great void sect master! I don’t know the background of the other one, but he has a Blood Immortal treasure!” Demon Emperor Huang xie said.

“The great void sect master? That’s impossible! That brat is the nemesis of the great void heaven sect. That brat once crippled the eldest young master of the great void heaven sect. Why would the great void sect master help him?” The old demonic Dragon couldn’t believe it.

“Who knows!” Demon Emperor Huang xie snorted in anger.

“Then ... Senior, what should we do now?”

The old Demon Dragon bowed and said carefully.

Demon Thearch huang xie stood there with an uncertain expression.

“Let’s return first! I’ve been injured in the battle with those two just now, and I need to rest for a while!”

He said after a moment.

“What? Senior, you’re injured?” The old Demon Dragon was shocked.

“Hmph!” The demon Thearch huang xie snorted. “It’s only because I’ve yet to recover my divine powers that I’m no match for them. If I was at my peak, I could have swallowed them all in one gulp.”

“That’s right! Senior, you’re the famous desolate evil demon Thearch, how can they be compared to you!”

The old demonic Dragon immediately started to flatter.

“Let’s go! It won’t be too late to deal with this brat after I’ve recovered a little!” Demon Emperor Huang xie said.

“But ...”

The old Demon Dragon said hesitantly.

“But what?” The desolate evil demon Thearch revealed a look of displeasure.

“Senior, you also know that the kid is extremely monstrous and his growth rate is unbelievable. If we let him go this time, I’m afraid that after a while, he will ...” The old Demon Dragon said worriedly.

“Hmph! What’s there to be afraid of?”

The desolate evil demon Thearch snorted in anger and interrupted him.

“He only has 500 drops of immortal blood. Even if he’s given a few hundred years, can he reach the 8th tribulation?” The demon Thearch said in disdain.

He was not worried at all. It was not easy to condense the immortal blood. The kid’s 500 drops of immortal blood were refined by swallowing many seven tribulations of the untainted tribe. Such a fortune could only be obtained once. How could the untainted tribe give him such a chance again?

Without such a great fortune, no matter how monstrous that kid’s talent was, he would definitely not be able to reach the eighth tribulation without a thousand years!

“This ... That’s true!”

The old demonic Dragon thought for a moment and nodded.

He also felt that he was overthinking.

“Let’s go!”

The desolate evil demon Thearch turned around and headed toward the North Sea.

The old demonic Dragon quickly followed.

Along the way, the two of them were silent, their expressions somewhat dazed.

Especially the huang xie demon Thearch, who had a gloomy expression on his face the entire time. Not only did he not obtain the celestial artifact this time, he was even injured, and his injuries worsened. It could be said that he had failed to steal a chicken and lost a grain of rice. He was really unlucky.

“Pay attention to that kid’s movements. When I come out of seclusion, I’ll take care of him!”

After warning the old demonic Dragon, he dove straight back to the cave dwelling in the depths of the trench.

He sat down in the cave and flipped his palm. A five-colored divine stone appeared in his palm.

He stared at the divine stone and seemed to be hesitating.

“It’s been more than 50 years. It’s almost time!”

He muttered and threw the divine stone in his hand.

The immortal stone floated in the air and shook slightly. The space around it distorted and a ripple appeared. It was a void passage.

The desolate evil demon Thearch raised his hand and extended it into the passageway. A moment later, he pulled his hand out, and a golden object appeared in his palm. It was some kind of crystal that was perfectly round, and there was a dense golden mist around it.

A thick demonic aura was emitted from the crystal.

“Not bad!”

The desolate evil demon Thearch looked at the crystal and revealed a satisfied expression.

He opened his mouth, threw the crystal away, and swallowed it with a gulp.

Then, he stretched out his hand into the void channel again. This time, there was a blood-red crystal in his palm, which was also emitting a shocking demonic Qi.

“That’s ... A seventh tribulation demon core and demon blood crystals!”

“What’s going on?” Tang Hao, who was peeking in the air, exclaimed.

The demonic core and the demonic blood crystals were the essence of a seven tribulation demon!

“What exactly is that place inside?”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he looked at the ripples in the air.
