

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2264

“This is a middle world?”

Tang Hao was in disbelief.

Middle Worlds were extremely rare. In Pangu, only the 33 heavens had one.

The caves and historical remains he had seen before were all small worlds and small chiliocosm. This was the first time he had seen a middle world outside the 33 heavens.

A small world was not a complete world. There would be various flaws within it. Only a middle world could be considered a complete world. It had its own Dao laws and everything in the world could cycle naturally.

This was also the reason why Middle Worlds were so precious.

“That stone ... Could it be Emperor Yan’s treasure?”

Tang Hao recalled the five-colored divine stone and was shocked.

It was said that the thirty-three heavens were created by an ancient God using Emperor Yan’s treasure. This treasure was also a stone and was called the sky-mending divine stone.

Only such a divine item could create a middle world.

“It seems like it’s close to the mark!” Tang Hao took a deep breath. He was a little shocked. He had never thought that the five-colored divine stone would have such a shocking origin.

“This demon Emperor Huang xie is indeed an unparalleled mighty figure of the ancient times. He even has such a divine item!”

“Wow!” Tang Hao exclaimed enviously.

A piece of sky-mending divine stone that contained a middle world was priceless. In his eyes, no nine tribulations supreme weapon or even no beginning’s precious Bell could compare to this treasure.

Carrying this stone was equivalent to carrying a world with him. The space of all his mobile immortal’s caves added up might not even be one percent of this world.

This middle world was simply too huge. He could plant countless spiritual herbs and nurture countless disciples.

“What a pity!”

Tang Hao also knew that it was impossible to snatch such a treasure from the hands of the desolate evil demon Thearch.

“Since we can’t snatch the divine stone, we’ll snatch the things inside. We’ll snatch as many as we can!”

Tang Hao’s eyes swept around the world.

After making some inquiries, he was once again shocked by the vastness of the space in this world. Moreover, this world was full of immortal Qi, and there were all kinds of divine mountains everywhere. There were spirit herbs everywhere, many of which were extremely rare species.

There were demons everywhere in this world, so many that Tang Hao couldn’t even count them. There were all kinds of bloodlines, even rare bloodlines like the Golden-winged ROC.

“This old demon ... What a big move!”

Tang Hao was shocked.

This huang xie demon Thearch must have put in a lot of effort and spent tens of thousands of years to cultivate such a prosperous demon race.

And those rare spirit herbs and divine materials must have been collected by the desolate evil demon Thearch as well.

He treated the heaven and earth as a breeding ground. He did not breed any beasts, but demons like him. When these demons’ cultivation reached a certain level, they would be devoured by him and absorbed as nutrients.

The seven tribulation great demons that were devoured just now were the top experts of the demon race. After they were fattened up, the desolate evil demon Thearch devoured them.

In the eyes of the desolate evil demon Thearch, these seven tribulation great demons were like great nourishing pills.

“I planted spirit herbs, but this old demon planted living humans ... He devoured his own kind. He’s just as the rumors say, brutal and Savage!” Tang Hao mumbled.

Just as he was sighing, his mind suddenly moved. He raised his head to look at the sky, and his expression changed slightly.

His body sank and he fell down. At the same time, he tried his best to restrain his aura and hide himself.

In the next moment, Thunder rumbled in the sky. Dark clouds rolled and turned into a huge vortex. Inside the vortex, a huge eye appeared, shining a divine light and looking in all directions.

Tang Hao knew that it was the desolate evil demon Emperor.

Since the desolate evil demon Thearch controlled the divine stone, he naturally controlled the entire middle world. In this world, he was the strongest existence, above all other living beings.

“Strange, why was there a strange aura just now ...”

At this moment, in the cave abode outside, the desolate evil demon Thearch looked at the divine stone floating in the air with a suspicious look.

Just now, he had felt a slight movement in the void.

However, after scanning the world inside, he did not find anything unusual.

“You’re probably overthinking it!”

He muttered.

This was his immortal’s cave, how could there be an accident!

Soon, he was relieved. He opened his demonic eye again and looked at the sea.

“Where’s that brat!”

He looked around and didn’t find any trace of that kid surnamed Tang.

“But ... I clearly felt it just now ...”

The old Demon Dragon asked doubtfully.

“Even if he did appear, he would have run away by now. Ye Xi is with him. I can’t do anything to him for now. I’ll deal with him later!”

The desolate evil demon Thearch waved his hand and sent the old Demon Dragon away.

“This damn brat still dares to appear in the North Sea. He’s really audacious!”

He sat down in the cave and cursed angrily.

As soon as he thought of that kid, he was so angry that he couldn’t help but want to immediately swallow that kid alive.

After cursing for a long time, he stopped and continued to explore the ripples in the void. He kept taking out demon cores and demon blood crystals.

Inside, Tang Hao had witnessed several lightning tribulations. These lightning tribulations appeared out of nowhere and enveloped a seven-tribulation demon, then struck him to death with lightning.

The bodies of the great demons seemed to have been shattered by the lightning, but Tang Hao knew that the old demon had captured them. The so-called lightning tribulation was just a smokescreen to confuse the demons in this world.

“These demons are really pitiful!”

Tang Hao said.

From the moment these demons were born, their fates had been decided. No matter how hard they cultivated, they were nothing more than nutrients for that old demon.

The saddest thing was that these demons would never know that they were being raised by others until their death.

“Rather than being devoured by this old demon, it’s better for you to be devoured by me. At least I’ll be grateful to you!”

Tang Hao mumbled. His eyes gradually brightened.

With a rough look just now, he found that there were many seven tribulation great demons here. There were not many at the hundred blood level because once they reached this level, they would be harvested. However, there were still many great demons with dozens of drops of blood left.

There were even more people who had just advanced.

“Mine, all of them are mine!”

Tang Hao’s eyes glowed with a green light as he looked around.

At this moment, he felt as if he had entered someone else’s vegetable garden, and this garden just happened to be full of vegetables, a scene of a bumper harvest.

The feeling of stealing vegetables was too exciting.

Tang Hao scouted around again and quickly determined his target. After the lightning tribulation disappeared, he activated the Nightingale and traveled through the void. He appeared in front of a seven tribulation demon who was meditating in a cave.

Without another word, he smashed the mirror down on her face.

This great demon had just advanced not long ago and only had three or four drops of demon blood. With the strength of the Joss flame clone, it could easily kill it.

After killing it, he put away the demon core and the demon blood Crystal, storing them in the mirror.
