

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2266

“Do you think you can stop me like this? Hmph! You’re underestimating me!”

Tang Hao did not panic at all. He had many ways to deal with these powerful demons.

Soon, in a barren mountain somewhere in the demon Realm, a shocking phenomenon suddenly appeared. The mountain shook and the earth shook. Nine-colored divine light gushed out and shot into the sky.

The divine light was so bright that it lit up the entire heaven and earth. Countless demonic cultivators in the surroundings were alarmed. They all looked up at the sky with shock.

They had never seen such a shocking phenomenon!

“What’s that?”

“Could it be that an ancient divine item has appeared?”

Looking at the nine-colored divine light, the group of demonic cultivators were all overwhelmed with excitement.

Whenever such a phenomenon appeared, it meant that a treasure had appeared. The more shocking the phenomenon, the more powerful the treasure was.

At that moment, countless demon cultivators rushed towards the divine light. From fifth or sixth tribulation sages to golden core cultivators, there were even small demons at the nascent soul realm.

There were also many demonic cultivators who chose to observe. They were all suspicious of this sudden phenomenon.

Especially the Group of Seven tribulation great demons, they were keenly aware that this phenomenon was somewhat unusual. That nine-colored divine light ... Seemed to be a little too dazzling, different from ordinary treasure light.

However, it didn’t take long for news to arrive.

“That’s an ancient ruin ... There are treasures everywhere inside. Dharma Treasures, elixirs, divine medicines, they’re everywhere. The people who went in are going crazy!”

As soon as this news came out, many Yao cultivators who were still watching could not help but rush to where the divine light had appeared, ready to explore it themselves.

When they entered the mountain range that was covered by the divine light, they went crazy like the other demonic cultivators!

The rumors weren't exaggerated at all. In these ruins, there were treasures everywhere. Some of these treasures were buried in the soil, some were frozen in thick ice, and they needed to be dug out with all their might.

The demonic cultivators who had come here were all digging with all their might. Treasures would appear from time to time, causing a crazy fight.

"Look! Another magic weapon was born, Oh my God! It's an eighth-grade celestial treasure!"

With the appearance of a demonic artifact, the entire place boiled over. Countless pairs of eyes stared at it, their eyes filled with greed and madness.

The celestial treasures here were tribulation weapons. An eighth-grade celestial treasure was an eighth-tribulation weapon.

In this world, an 8th tribulation weapon was the most powerful treasure. Not only were they few in number, but most of them were in the hands of the top experts of the 7th tribulation.

Every time an eighth-grade immortal treasure appeared, it would set off a bloody storm.

The one in front of him would not be an exception.

"That's mine!"

"Get lost!"

With loud shouts, countless demonic cultivators from all directions launched their attacks, each displaying their own divine abilities as they charged toward the demonic artifact.

Most of them were 5th or 6th tribulation Saint realm demon cultivators. Many 2nd and 3rd tribulation demon cultivators were also ready to fight for it.

For a time, many demonic cultivators were fighting, and the scene was extremely chaotic.

Ah!

From time to time, some demonic cultivators were injured and let out screams of pain. Some demonic cultivators were even blown up and died on the spot.

"Get lost!"

After the treasures had changed hands several times, a seven tribulation great demon who had been hiding at the side finally made his move.

In the face of an eighth-grade immortal treasure, the most powerful treasure in the world, even a seven-tribulation demon couldn't help it.

The big demon's first move was extremely ruthless. A huge palm that covered the sky slapped out, blowing up all the demonic cultivators who were fighting for the treasure. Then, he opened his mouth and sucked in all the blood, flesh, and essence of these demonic cultivators into his stomach.

Then, he reached out and grabbed the demonic artifact.

"Hahaha! It really is an eighth-grade celestial treasure!" He laughed out loud, overjoyed.

He didn't dare to stay here for long, so he put away his demonic artifact and flew out.

"What a pity!"

The demonic cultivators sighed and continued to dig for treasures.

However, in the crowd, there were many eyes that were staring at the light in the distance. These were all seven tribulation great demons. They rushed out one after another, chasing after the light.

How could they let go of an eighth-grade immortal treasure?

"He's taken the bait!"

Tang Hao, who was hidden in the air, could not help but grin when he saw this.

Everything was just as he had expected.

"One is not enough. I need a few more to make this place more lively!"

Tang Hao's mind flickered as he spoke. A loud boom suddenly came from a corner of the mountain range. A bright light shot into the sky, followed by a cry of alarm.

"Heavens! It was a celestial treasure! An eighth-grade celestial treasure!"

Whoosh!

The mountain range was in an uproar.

This was the second eighth-grade immortal treasure!

Their eyes were all red as they rushed towards that direction, engaging in a near-crazy fight.

The news of two eighth-grade immortal treasures appearing in succession spread quickly, causing a huge sensation in all directions. Those seven-tribulation great demons who were watching couldn't bear it anymore and rushed over to join in the battle.

"Another one! The third eighth-grade immortal treasure has appeared!"

Not long after, another eighth-grade immortal treasure was born, and the entire mountain range exploded.

In order to compete for the immortal treasure, a group of seven-tribulation great demons shed all pretenses of cordiality and fought to the death.

Tang Hao finally made his move after observing for a long time.

His figure moved, tearing open the void. In the next moment, he was already in front of a big demon.

The great demon was on the run, but he had failed to snatch the treasure from the other great demons. He fled with injuries and was caught by Tang Hao before he could get far.

“You ... Who are you?”

The demon was shocked when it saw Tang Hao.

The aura of the person in front of him was clearly not of the demon race!

Tang Hao did not say a word. He raised his hand and took out the mirror.

Weng Weng Weng!

The mirror of thunder and lightning flew out and expanded in the wind. The light of Buddha shone brightly and boundless power of Buddha rolled out like a deep hell.

On the surface of the mirror, there was a bright divine light that gathered like a sun in the sky.

“Rank...Rank-9 ... You’re a rank-9 ...”

The great demon’s eyes widened in disbelief.

Wasn’t a ninth-grade immortal treasure a legend?

Who was this person? Not a demon, and he had a ninth-grade immortal treasure that shouldn’t have existed in this world!

“I came from beyond the heavens!”

Tang Hao said indifferently.

With that, his mind moved, and the mirror shook, blasting out a shocking divine light, directly blasting the big demon away.

This big demon originally had a cultivation level of thirty blood, but after an intense battle, it was already an arrow at the end of its flight, so it was killed by him in one blow.

With a flick of his sleeve, he kept the demon blood and demon core and ran to his next target.

These great demons who had been injured in the fight for the treasures were all his targets. With ye Cha's help, he had easily caught up with these great demons and killed them when they were caught off guard.

Most of them were big demons with dozens of drops of blood. Killing one of them was equivalent to killing seven or eight of them.

Just like that, he continued to attack. One after another, the great demons fell in his hands, and their flesh and blood were all collected by him.

He had done it so discreetly that no one had noticed him. Great demons continued to surge in from all directions, one after another.

Tang Hao would kill those with lower cultivation bases and wait for an opportunity to attack those with higher cultivation bases.

In the beginning, Tang Hao would count how many he had killed, but later on, he was too lazy to count and would just kill them.

"It's not enough! I'm going to kill all the seven tribulations here, not leaving a single one for that old monster. After I kill all the seven, five, and six tribulations, I won't let them go either. Their flesh and blood are also great tonics."

The more Tang Hao killed, the more powerful the demons were.
