

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2297

In the blink of an eye, a year had passed.

Tang Hao had spent most of his time repairing the divine boat that year. After such a long time, the creation divine boat had been mostly repaired.

Of course, Tang Hao did not forget to take care of the Buddhist Kingdom.

By now, he had cultivated many believers in all the Buddhist kingdoms he owned. Every moment, there were tens of millions of believers worshipping the Buddha devoutly, worshipping the eternal Buddha.

From these believers, a steady stream of Joss flame power was produced, which was absorbed by the second clone.

The second clone's cultivation was rising rapidly and steadily, approaching the thousand Blood Realm and quickly catching up to the first clone.

The first clone's cultivation base was at thousand blood.

In this one year, the strength of the gate of fortune had also improved by leaps and bounds. The size of the sect had expanded once again, and they had taken in tens of thousands of new disciples. With the current Foundation of the gate of fortune, it was completely capable of raising so many disciples.

With the help of his Grand Yan golden pill, more 6th tribulation cultivators had emerged in the sect, an increase of more than 200.

Among the group of 6th tribulation cultivators, there were also quite a few who had reached the realm of perfection and joined in the ranks of the blood solidification realm.

At this point, the number of people who were in closed-door meditation at the blood solidification realm had reached more than twenty.

As for the outside world, there was no big movement.

One day, Tang Hao was repairing the divine boat as usual when Zao Huazi came to him in a hurry.

"Something big has happened!"

As soon as they met, Zao Huazi's expression turned extremely serious.

"Oh? What's the big deal?"

Tang Hao was surprised.

After all, creation master was a seven-tribulation divine Lord. If he called it a big matter, it must be extraordinary.

"I just got a piece of news from the West barren, saying that a God's relic has been found! It looks like a divine tomb!" Said Zao Huazi solemnly.

"Divine tomb?"

Tang Hao was moved.

The divine tomb and the immortal tomb were both legends of Pangu. Although they really existed, they rarely appeared in the world. The so-called immortal tombs in the world at that time were just tombs built by Immortals who stayed for a long time. They belonged to nine tribulation Supremes, not real Immortals.

Moreover, this grave was not a real grave. It was only used to suppress old demon black sky.

True immortal tombs and divine tombs were extremely rare.

"Is that true?" Tang Hao said in a deep voice.

"This ... I'm not sure. It's said that it's a divine tomb, so it should be true. After all, the aura of gods can't be faked. Also, it's said that when this divine tomb appeared, there were some miraculous scenes."

Said Zao Huazi.

"It's said that there was a strange phenomenon in heaven and earth at that time. The day turned into night, and an extremely huge figure appeared. It was completely silver in color and seemed to be a God."

Tang Hao's expression changed when he heard that.

The silver God ... Could it be him?

He remembered the silver God that had appeared on planet Dong Ling.

Ever since that time, he had never seen this God again. Could the one who appeared today be him?

"This is a huge commotion. Many people in the West barren saw it. That figure disappeared very quickly. When people from all over the world arrived, they discovered this divine tomb. The news has already spread out. The entire eight barren and even the 33 heavens have been shocked."

Said Zao Huazi.

"It disappeared!" Tang Hao mumbled to himself, deep in thought.

He couldn't tell if the mysterious silver figure was the God from the lower realm, but the possibility was high.

"It seems that this divine tomb is very likely to be real! It's worth a visit!" Tang Hao said.

Zao huaizi nodded and said seriously, "This is a must. If it's really a divine tomb, there must be precious treasures inside, such as divine instruments and dharmic decrees. If there's a divine corpse, we can't miss it."

Tang Hao stood up. "Let's not waste any time. Let's set off now. We'll contact senior Ling and the others as well. I'm sure they've received the news by now and are ready to rush over."

"Alright!"

Zao huaizi replied.

The two of them left Mount Zao Hua in a hurry and rushed towards the West barren. Along the way, they contacted the Ling clan, Liu clan, Yu Shi clan, and the other clans and gathered together.

Tang Hao also contacted Master Li and asked her to join them.

A place like the divine tomb must be extremely dangerous. It was naturally best to have more strength.

After the group had gathered, they were already close to the West barren.

"This divine tomb has caused a huge commotion. All the orthodoxies are paying close attention to it and have sent out all their elders. The same is true for the Vermillion Bird heaven."

Young master Li stood at the bow of the ship, side by side with Tang Hao.

"Not only our human tribe, but the untainted tribe also seems to be making a move. Brother Tang, you and the untainted tribe are like fire and water, so we must be careful! There are still some formidable characters in the wilderness."

Tang Hao nodded.

"Also, this time, we have to be wary of not only those 7th tribulation old monsters, but also 8th tribulation experts. A real divine tomb, even an 8th tribulation expert can't resist such a temptation."

Li gongzi reminded him again.

"Don't worry!"

Tang Hao smiled. He already knew that.

"That's good!"

Li gongzi responded and turned around to talk to Yu Shixuan.

The two of them were talking and laughing, but they were quite harmonious.

As the two of them chatted and laughed, they would turn around to look at Tang Hao, as if they were discussing him.

“Ahem!”

Tang Hao was curious, but he did not want to eavesdrop. He coughed awkwardly and looked away.

The warship under his feet was extremely fast. Soon, they entered the Western Desert and were close to their destination.

At this point, the spiritual lights in all directions suddenly increased, densely gathering from all directions. Each of them had an extraordinary aura.

This was different from the time when King Roc mountain appeared. At that time, cultivators from all over the world swarmed in. Whether they were golden core cultivators, nascent soul cultivators, or Saint realm cultivators, they all came to join in the fun.

But this time, most of them were in the Saint realm, and most of them were advanced Saints.

After all, this was the real divine tomb, which was one level higher than the king Roc mountain and more dangerous.

“That’s ... The symbol of the gate of fortune!”

“That’s divine Lord Tang!”

When divine light passed by and saw the large ship, they would exclaim in surprise.

Then, they stopped and respectfully cupped their hands towards the ship. They bowed and called out, “Greetings, divine Lord Tang!”

Their words were filled with respect.

Divine Lord Tang was no longer the divine Lord who had just been promoted a few years ago. He was now a peerless divine Lord with three thousand blood. He had killed many clan leaders in one battle and shocked the entire world.

Even powerful orthodoxies like the great void heaven and the divine curse heaven were at their wits’ end.

On the ship, Tang Hao would smile and nod at them.

Not long after, the ship arrived at its destination.

Not far ahead, a vast mountain range appeared. The entire mountain range was shrouded in thick clouds and mist, and in the middle of the mountain range, there was a huge pillar of light. It was like a giant pillar that held up the sky, piercing straight into the clouds. It was an extremely spectacular sight.

“That ... That’s where the divine tomb is!”

Li Gongzi pointed at the light pillar and said.

Tang Hao looked up and was shocked.

The pillar of light was so huge that he could sense the shocking aura of a God from far away.

Ling Zhanxu and the others looked over and exclaimed in shock.

The ship slowed down and slowly sailed away, finally stopping in front of the light pillar.
