

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2302

“Actually, I really do know a little!”

Tang Hao looked at the cursed young master and smiled brightly.

He wasn't angry at all even though the cursed young master had provoked him. In the past, the two of them had been considered geniuses of the same generation. But now, they were no longer on the same level.

He already had 5000 drops of blood, while the cursed young master only had 100 or so drops of blood. It was incomparable to his.

To put it bluntly, in his eyes, the cursed young master wasn't even a Grasshopper, and he could kill him with one hand.

Tang Hao did not think much of such a person.

“However, even though I understand, I don't have enough power to break these restrictions alone. I still need the help of the fellow Daoists present. It would be best if you have the cultivation of a thousand blood. I wonder which fellow Daoist is willing to help?”

Tang Hao said as he looked around.

“Hahaha! Since Daoist Tang has already said so, I, Vermillion Bird heaven, will not shirk my duty!”

The first elder of Vermillion Bird sky laughed and took the lead to step forward.

The cultivators were not surprised. Young master Li of the Vermillion Bird heaven was standing beside fellow Daoist Tang at this moment. The two of them had a close relationship, so it was normal for the Vermillion Bird heaven to be the first to stand up and support.

“I, Kunwu, am also willing to give fellow Daoist Tang a helping hand!”

Following that, a few thousand Blood Realm experts from Kunwu heaven also spoke up.

Then it was wahuang heaven.

The cultivators weren't surprised. These two orthodoxies had a deep relationship with fellow Daoist Tang, so it was normal for them to stand out at this moment.

“Since Daoist Tang knows about the divine restraint, The White Tiger heaven will naturally support you. The earlier we open the restraint, the better it will be for everyone,”

The fourth person to speak was Bai Hutian.

“That's right! Helping Daoist Tang is helping ourselves!”

After White Tiger heaven, all the orthodoxies spoke up. The thousand-Blood Warriors stood up and gathered around Tang Hao.

On the void warship, Daoist Xu Heng, the cursed young master, and the others looked at this scene with ashen faces.

The people of these orthodoxies stood out at this moment, which was equivalent to expressing their attitude to them. They all had an attitude of getting close to and roping in this newly rising peerless divine Lord.

“Hmph! I’d like to see how this guy will make a fool of himself!”

The cursed young master gritted his teeth and said with hatred.

When he saw the thousand-Blood Warriors ‘respectful and friendly attitude towards that guy, he was so jealous that he almost went crazy.

“It is this Tang’s honor to receive your help!” Tang Hao smiled at the thousand blood cultivators and said, “everyone, let’s not waste any time. Let’s start.”

“Alright!”

Thousand blood nodded in agreement.

“Let’s start with this restriction. The structure of this divine restriction looks very simple, with only ninety-nine talismans inside. However, this is a talisman unique to ancient gods, different from the talismans of us cultivators. ”

“Look, the overall structure of this divine restriction is like this. There are a total of Five Corners, forming a perfect Pentagon. If you want to break it easily, you just need to attack the five Corners at the same time.”

Tang Hao said, pointing in front of him.

He did not explain the theory of the divine restriction in detail, as it was too complicated. He only needed to briefly explain the method to break it.

“Alright!”

The group of thousand blood split into five groups. After locating the positions of the five Corners, they activated their treasures at the same time and attacked.

Boom boom boom ...

Five explosions sounded almost at the same time.

Following that, everyone gasped in shock. The cultivators saw the complete divine seal in the air. Just as divine Lord Tang had said, it was in the shape of a Pentagon. After withstanding the five attacks, the divine seal collapsed.

The Golden talismans within started to dissolve.

“It’s done!”

“This is too easy!”

All the cultivators exclaimed in shock.

This was an ancient divine seal, a seal exclusive to the ancient gods. Just as the cursed young master had said, even an 8th tribulation expert might not be able to break it easily. He had not expected that a group of 7th tribulation experts would be able to break it so easily under divine Lord Tang’s command.

“As expected of divine Lord Tang. You’re so knowledgeable that you even know such an ancient divine restriction.”

Then, all the cultivators gasped in admiration.

“How ...?”

On the great void warship, the cursed young master was dumbfounded. He couldn’t believe his eyes.

The divine restriction had really been broken ...

“Where did he learn it?”

Daoist Xu Heng, Daoist Nan Wu, and the others all wore dark expressions, somewhat in disbelief.

But even if they were unwilling to believe it, this was the truth. Under Tang Hao’s command, the thousand blood clan worked together and rapidly broke the divine restrictions one by one, advancing inside step by step.

Every time they advanced a certain distance, Tang Hao and the group of thousand blood would take action and collect the divine herbs and rare spirit herbs below. They would also leave some for the people behind.

In order to compete for these treasures, the people behind also broke out in a big conflict.

“Eh? What’s that?”

After breaking another divine seal, Tang Hao looked down to see what kind of treasure was there. Suddenly, he saw a white light flashing in the dense forest below from the corner of his eye.

He looked over and was stunned.

The next moment, he narrowed his eyes and they burst with a terrifying fiery light.

He could clearly see that it was a pony that was completely white, like suet white jade. Its entire body exuded an astonishing aura of grass and wood.

This aura was exactly the same as the one on Xianyun.

This also proved that this was a celestial medicine!

Celestial medicine could take human form, but it didn't necessarily mean that they could take human form. Some could also take the appearance of other living creatures.

"It's an immortal medicine!"

At this time, quite a number of people also noticed it, and they all shouted excitedly.

Many of the thousand blood disciples wanted to grab him, but they stopped themselves in the next moment and looked at Tang Hao.

They knew how to conduct themselves well. They knew that without divine Lord Tang, they would not have been able to break through these divine seals easily. The greatest credit for them being able to make it this far was all due to divine Lord Tang. Naturally, they had to give him this immortal herb as a form of gratitude.

Of course, this was also because they knew that this wasn't the only immortal herb here, so it didn't matter if they gave up the first one.

"Thank you," Tang Hao said. He reached out his hand and grabbed the immortal herb with the moon scooping divine power.

"It's a good thing it's not in human form. If it's in human form, it'll be as weird as little Xianyun. How can I eat it then?"

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He felt lucky.

"Let's continue!"

Tang Hao took the lead and continued to push forward.

At the back, whether it was the cursed young master and the rest, or the people from the night race and the Yao race who were hiding in the void, all of their eyes were spitting fire with jealousy.

Not only did this guy show off, but he also took a celestial medicine. As for them, they could only follow him in a daze and even had to hide in the void, not daring to come out. It was really vexing.

"Look, it's another celestial medicine!"

"There's one over there too!"

As the group in front continued to move forward, more and more immortal herbs were discovered. In just a short while, there were five immortal herbs and even more high-grade divine herbs. The atmosphere became more and more fanatical and excited.
