

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2313

The Green Phoenix patted her ears hard, wondering if she had heard wrong.

On the void traveller, the eyes of young master divine curse and the others almost popped out, and their expressions were twisted.

The three star realm cultivators were also dumbfounded!

The surroundings fell into a deathly silence.

“Senior is too polite!”

Tang Hao smiled and looked at ease.

Seeing this scene, everyone was stunned and even more shocked.

This kind of relaxed expression didn't seem like a stranger's, but more like an acquaintance's. But how was this possible? How could this kid be related to such a powerful God?

“You can take this!”

The silver deity raised the green wood crystal core in his hand and blew at it. Wisps of green liquid seeped out of it and gathered in front of Tang Hao.

“This is ... Divine essence?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

The silver godly spirit shook his head and said, “it's not divine essence. But it's still a good thing. It's the essence of the green wood clan. Just a drop of it can cause the growth of countless plants!”

Tang Hao was surprised at first, but then his eyes burned with passion.

The essence of the Greenwood clan was the best of the best. Even the celestial water he had cultivated couldn't compare to this essence.

“The celestial water can absorb the essence of the sun and moon and produce it continuously. But this essence is different. It's the essence of a God spirit and is even rarer. I've only heard of it and have never seen it before.”

Tang Hao was excited.

To him, this thing was even more useful than divine essence.

He took out a Jade bottle and carefully collected the essence of the green wood.

“If I use this to cultivate spirit herbs, the effects will be even more heaven-defying ... No, I can’t waste such a treasure. I already have the celestial water, there’s no need to waste such a treasure ...”

“That’s right, senior locust tree, with this treasure, he’ll be able to recover his magical powers faster!”

Tang Hao thought about it and thought of senior locust tree who was still in the lower realm.

Senior locust tree’s strength was recovering very slowly, but with this, it would not be a problem.

“Many thanks!”

Tang Hao put the Jade bottle away, then thanked him.

“No need!”

The silver deity smiled. “I should leave as well. I have gained quite a lot this time and can recover quite a few divine abilities. I will continue to travel and look for opportunities.”

“Little brother, I believe that we will meet again.”

He patted Tang Hao’s shoulder and was about to leave.

But then, as if he had thought of something, he stopped and said in a low and serious tone, “Little brother, you have to hurry up and cultivate. Otherwise, it will be too late when the great change comes.”

“Drastic changes?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“In these years, I’ve travelled around and discovered something. This world is very different from when I was asleep. Soon, a great danger will come.” The silver deity said.

“When that time comes, cultivators like you and even gods like me won’t be able to escape.”

Tang Hao was shocked.

If even such a character was not confident of being able to escape, just how powerful was this crisis?

Could it be ... That it was related to that mysterious old man and the nine-colored blood that he mentioned?

Then, Tang Hao thought of his encounter at the King Roc Mountain and the two nine-colored skeletons ...

“Remember this in your heart and make early preparations!”

The silver God did not explain. After giving a warning, his figure flickered and he disappeared.

Tang Hao stood where he was and fell into deep thought.

All sorts of guesses kept appearing in his mind.

After a long time, he had a vague idea.

While he was deep in thought, the surroundings were still deathly silent. Everyone's eyes were focused on him, revealing strong shock and fear.

They had seen the scene just now clearly. The silver God and divine Lord Tang knew each other, and they were not just familiar with each other.

This caused them to be both shocked and aghast.

That deity was equivalent to a nine tribulations Divine Spirit!

In today's world, there were no longer any real nine tribulations. The living Supreme that appeared in the spirit treasure heaven was not a real nine tribulations realm either!

Such a powerful existence could be said to be unrivaled. And yet, such a person was actually related to divine Lord Tang. How could this not shock the world? The cursed young master and the others were even more shocked and terrified.

"This bastard, how can he be so lucky!"

"Damn it!" The cursed young master gnashed his teeth and cursed.

First, it was that living Supreme Being, and now, there was a living God. This kid's luck was really F*cking strange, so good that it was somewhat unbelievable!

Why didn't he know any of these awesome people?

"This ... This kid ... Is too demonic!"

The South Pole's star realm cultivator swallowed his saliva with a look of lingering fear.

He had never thought that this kid would be able to pull out a living God. He had just attacked this kid. Just thinking about it made him break out in a cold sweat.

If the God had made a move at that time, none of them would have been able to escape.

"This kid should only know that God. Their relationship is not very deep. That God only gave treasures out of gratitude. After all, it was that kid who helped to break the divine restriction."

"That's right! We've forced that kid into a corner, but that God didn't do anything. It means that we don't have a good relationship with him. Even if we really want to kill him, that God won't do anything for that kid."

The few star realm cultivators discussed among themselves and felt slightly more at ease.

However, in the depths of their hearts, they were still a little apprehensive. This was only their guess. No one knew what the relationship between the boy and the God was.

What if they were really on good terms? if they killed that brat, that God would be furious and kill their way to the 33 heavens. What would happen then?

When they looked at Tang Hao again, they hesitated. They did not dare to make another move.

“Let’s take advantage of this kid’s daze and leave!”

On the side of the untainted land, Qing Qiang screamed out and called her clansmen to run away in a hurry.

He didn’t want to take revenge anymore. At this moment, all he wanted to do was to escape from this place and get as far away from that damn brat and that God as possible.

“This kid ... Is actually related to that silver God spirit!”

When the numinous treasure path master and the others returned to their senses, they looked at Tang Hao in a different light.

The Golden-scaled venerable sovereign, in particular, no longer looked down on him.

“I didn’t expect little friend Tang to know that senior!”

Numinous treasure path master smiled as he walked toward Tang Hao. The smile on his face was even more enthusiastic than before. In his eyes, little friend Tang Hao’s weight had undoubtedly increased. He was no longer just a young genius with a bright future.

Emperor Xu Yuan and the others also laughed and greeted Tang Hao warmly.
