

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2318

As he landed on the star, the eyes of the origin core avatar shone brightly as he looked around.

Soon, his eyes focused, and he found the core inside the star.

If he wanted to control this star, he had to first seize the core.

The origin core avatar sank down, turned into a golden light, and escaped into the ground toward the deepest core. After he entered the core, he began to refine the core according to the star transformation secret skill given by young master Li.

“Everything is going smoothly!”

Tang Hao nodded at Master Li.

“That’s good!” Young master Li heaved a sigh of relief. “It seems that when the old man left, he didn’t think that he would be discovered, so he didn’t leave any tricks behind. It’s convenient for us.”

“Yup!” Tang Hao smiled.

Just a few days ago, when that old man had returned to confirm the safety of this planet, he had not thought that this planet would be discovered and had not laid down any more tricks. He had indeed been a little careless.

“He still doesn’t know!”

He activated his heavenly eye and peeked at the South Pole. Then, he smiled.

The old man was still unaware that the star had already fallen into his hands.

“Then we don’t need to make it public. We can secretly eat this star. When he comes back and finds out that the star has changed hands, his expression will definitely be very interesting.” Li gongzi pursed his lips and smiled.

Tang Hao smiled when he heard that. Not only was her expression interesting, but she was probably going to vomit blood!

After a few days, the origin core avatar successfully refined the core and became one with the star.

The moment he completely fused with the star, Tang Hao felt as if he had become a star as well. His senses spread out and covered the entire star. Every corner, every tiny sound, could not escape his senses.

It was as if he could control everything on this star.

“When the demon Emperor Huang xie dominated that middle world, did he feel the same way?”

Tang Hao suddenly thought of the old demon Thearch and the huge middle world.

“It should be a little different. After all, that was a complete world. The old demon Emperor was equivalent to the heavenly Dao there and could control the Dao laws at will. However, right now, I’ve only turned into a star.”

“Even if I can control the life and death of all the living beings on this planet, I can’t control the Dao laws.”

Tang Hao muttered to himself.

He was still very envious of the old demon Thearch’s middle world.

A moment later, he gathered his thoughts and began to try to absorb the immortal Qi in the star.

As the star rotated, it would continuously absorb energy from the heaven and earth and turn it into pure immortal Qi. If it was not absorbed, the immortal Qi would accumulate and turn into immortal veins after thousands or even tens of thousands of years.

But now, the immortal Qi was directly absorbed.

“This speed ... It’s not bad!”

An ordinary star transformation Saint could condense about 1000 drops of blood in 500 years. Some could even condense it a little faster, which was related to the quality of the star.

The star in front of him was slightly faster. According to Tang Hao’s estimation, it could produce about one thousand two hundred drops of blood in five hundred years.

To Tang Hao, it was slow, but to ordinary saints, it was already very fast.

“Eh? No, why did it go faster?”

Tang Hao quickly discovered that something was wrong. The speed at which the star was absorbing energy from heaven and earth had suddenly increased significantly.

“Oh right! It’s because of the heaven and earth original embryo. The heaven and earth original embryo is the number one original embryo in the world, born in the ancient Godstone. It’s naturally close to the heaven and earth and can absorb celestial Qi very quickly. Now that it has fused with the star, it’s equivalent to turning the entire star into the body of the original embryo!”

Tang Hao was overjoyed when he realized that.

Originally, he didn’t expect this star to increase his clone’s cultivation by much. He just didn’t want to waste it, so he let his clone stay here for a few years. He didn’t expect to have such a pleasant surprise.

“I’m a little faster!”

Soon, the speed changed again.

At this time, even Li Gongzi noticed the abnormality and revealed a surprised look.

“It’s because of the heaven Earth origin core!” Tang Hao explained.

He waited for a while more and found that his speed had increased again.

“As the clone fuses further with the star, the speed will be even faster. Perhaps it won’t take five hundred years. In just two or three years, the clone can increase its cultivation by 1000 blood.”

Tang Hao was excited.

This speed was rather shocking. If he could really achieve it, the origin core clone would be able to catch up to his main body’s cultivation level as soon as possible.

As for his second avatar, as the Buddhist Kingdom continued to expand, it was improving at a rapid pace. There was hope that it would catch up soon.

At that time, he would have two more great helpers.

“This star is a good thing. I have to set up some large formations to protect it so that the old man won’t be able to find it even if he comes.”

Initially, Tang Hao was not very interested in constellation. He had only wanted to take revenge on those old monsters, but now he realized that he had picked up a treasure and his thoughts changed.

He immediately began to make a formation, and it was the best one. He even used the immortal-binding formation to ensure the safety of this star.
