

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2321

“This damn brat!”

The South Pole’s mighty figure roared in anger, and his face turned livid.

He hated that kid surnamed Tang to the core. He could not wait to kill his way to the gate of fortune and cut that hateful kid into a thousand pieces. Then, he would burn his bones and scatter his ashes.

“This kid is indeed too cunning!”

The other two Almighties were a little scared. They were glad that they didn’t act rashly like this one and fall for that kid’s trap.

“Dao brother doesn’t need to be anxious. This star is still here, it’s just that it’s been hidden. As long as we can obtain the method to break the formation, Dao brother will be able to find it.” The higher-being from the cursed sky consoled.

“Of course I know! However, that kid wouldn’t give us the method to break the formation so easily!” The South Pole Almighty said in frustration.

With just the three of them, if they wanted to force out the method to break the formation from that kid’s hands, it would undoubtedly be harder than ascending to the heavens.

The Almighty of the divine curse realm immediately frowned and stopped talking.

He had to admit that the kid was indeed very difficult to deal with. He had never seen someone so difficult to deal with.

“That might not be the case. With the strength of the three of us, it’s true that we can’t deal with that brat. Even with the addition of my senior brother, it won’t be easy to kill him. However, with the strength of the four of us and the three great orthodoxies behind us, it’s enough to negotiate with that brat.”

At this moment, a powerful being from the great void heaven spoke.

The other two were stunned. Only then did they recall that the second star transformation cultivator of the great void heaven was about to arrive. It was said that this person was more powerful than the three of them. He had reached the star transformation stage a thousand years earlier than them.

“That’s true!”

They muttered to themselves and nodded.

The four star transformation realm experts, in addition to the power behind them, could completely force that kid to submit.

“When my senior brother arrives, the four of us will go to the gate of fortune and negotiate with that kid. We will ask him to hand over the method to break the formation and return the star.” A powerful being from the great void heaven said.

He knew how important a star was to a star realm cultivator. Hence, he had to find the star. Otherwise, no other star realm cultivators would dare to help him in the future.

“Alright!”

The South Pole Heavenly Expert said excitedly.

“Even if that kid doesn’t hand it over, it’s fine. As long as any of the Dao Masters of our three great orthodoxies return and come out of seclusion, this problem will be easily solved.”

The higher being from the great void heaven said.

He said this to calm the South Pole down and tell him not to worry.

The three of them discussed for a while and returned to the 33rd heaven. Half a month later, in the vast void, a beam of divine light flew over and landed in front of the Emperor Pan City, entering the great void heaven.

Not long after, four beams of divine light shot out from the three orthodoxies and headed towards the beihuang region.

The four beams of divine light were as fast as lightning. Soon, they arrived in the desolate north and were close to the gate of fortune.

“Is this kid ... Really so monstrous?”

The new Great void heaven higher being looked at the mountain range in the distance and asked suspiciously.

He had heard of the gate of fortune before. During his time as a planet, the gate of fortune had already declined and become a last-tier power. He did not expect that after a few thousand years, the gate of fortune would suddenly rise and become the number one power in the eight desolates. Their fame was close to the 33 heavens.

The ancient path of creation’s reputation was only at this level when it was at its peak.

And all of this was because of a young man, a young boy who was not even a hundred years old!

It was also because of this kid that the sect urgently summoned him back.

When he received the news from the sect, he couldn’t believe it. How could such a monster still appear in this world?

When he rushed back, the situation he heard shocked him again.

The three star transformation realm cultivators had joined forces, yet they were still unable to kill that brat. Furthermore, they even allowed that brat to snatch away a star.

He was too shocked. At the same time, he was suspicious of whether it was true. Did his junior brothers exaggerate to cover up his mistake and praise the kid to the heavens?

“Of course it’s true!”

The other three all smiled bitterly.

The senior brother was stunned and muttered, “Whether it is or not, I’ll see it for myself later!”

As he spoke, he looked forward again, his eyes locked on the mountain range.

That was the mountain of fortune.

He still had some doubts in his heart, so he decided that when he saw that kid later, he would personally take action and test the kid’s divine ability to see if he was as monstrous as the three people said.

With this thought in mind, they soon arrived at the mountain and stopped.

The South Pole Almighty was about to shout.

However, at this moment, a drastic change occurred.

In that instant, the sky above the mountain range began to change. A huge vortex appeared out of nowhere, and a thunderous roar came from within.

“Boy, come out and die!”

Along with the roar, a monstrous pressure surged out like the might of the heavens. It was extremely terrifying.

“This ... This is ...”

The four of them looked up and their expressions changed drastically.

This aura ... It was clearly the aura of an eight-tribulation venerable Emperor!

Which venerable sovereign was this?

The four of them were a little puzzled. There were not many venerable sovereigns in Pangu, less than fifty of them, and even fewer could show up.

At the same time, they were also a little excited. They were enemies with that kid. Now that they saw a venerable sovereign coming to settle scores with that kid, they couldn’t be happier.

“Hahaha! It must be because that kid is too arrogant. I don’t know how he offended a venerable sovereign, but now he’s here!”

“This is called” those who commit injustice are doomed to destruction “! I’d like to see how this kid can escape from this!”

The South Pole Heavenly Expert laughed heartily, feeling extremely carefree.

When he saw the chaos at the creation sect, he was overjoyed.

In this calamity, even if that brat didn’t die, he would at least lose a layer of skin!

He didn’t make any more sound and restrained his aura. He retreated far away and prepared to watch this good show.
