

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2328

As soon as the divine light protecting the palace was broken, the palaces inside were no longer guarded. The seven tribulations on the ship jumped out one after another and swept toward the various palaces.

Soon, the herb garden, elixir warehouse, and beast garden were discovered one after another, and there were many treasures in them.

“This is indeed an old senior!”

Tang Hao walked around the hall where the cultivation techniques were displayed. He saw many familiar cultivation techniques, such as the mountain moving art and the true martial Sword Art.

When he first saw these cultivation methods, Tang Hao could not remember them. He only felt that they were somewhat familiar. Then, he thought about it. Weren't these cultivation methods from those forces on Qiyuan? and Qiyuan was the birthplace of Pangu.

The master of the Holy Zhi Palace should be one of the people who had come out of Qiyuan.

“I wonder what cultivation level this senior had back then. If he was at the ninth tribulation, that would be incredible. He's an amazing person from the same era as the few Supreme martial artists in Kunwu!” Tang Hao guessed. He was a little surprised.

All of the nine tribulations back then had astonishing divine abilities.

“These cultivation techniques ... Are the most ancient cultivation techniques. My Vermillion Bird heaven also has many of them, but they're not as complete as these. I want to make a copy of all these cultivation techniques and store them in the Scripture library of my Vermillion Bird heaven.”

Elder lie was a little excited when he saw these cultivation techniques.

Then, he got to work. Tang Hao also went around and picked some that he had never seen before. He made a copy of each of them. He wanted to prepare a copy for the gate of fortune and Kun Lun.

To an orthodoxy, cultivation techniques were very important. The more, the better. This way, all kinds of flowers would bloom and all kinds of geniuses would be cultivated.

Then, he went to the herb garden.

The people in the medicine garden were busy counting the number and types of spirit herbs.

This was a cooperation, so naturally, they couldn't just fight for it. Everything had to be distributed.

“Good news, there are three immortal herbs!”

When he saw Tang Hao, Ling Zhanxu walked up to him with a wide smile.

“Three stalks! It’s not bad!”

Tang Hao was quite satisfied. After all, it was an immortal herb, which was very rare. Only one was born in the ROC King sacred mountain. As for the divine tomb, it was a special case. It was nourished by the essence of a God, which was why so many immortal herbs could be born.

In a nine tribulations Dao Palace like this, it was already a pretty good harvest to find three immortal herbs.

Out of the three, he would definitely be able to get one, which would increase his HP by a few hundred.

He walked around and collected some rare spirit herbs. Then, he went to the pill storage. There were many ancient pills there. He calculated that the portion he could get would be enough for him to gain another fifty to sixty drops of blood.

“As expected, it’s still so fast!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He was very satisfied.

The first ruin had already given him 400 hp, which was a good start. There were still many more ruins to come, and he would definitely get more.

After half a day, they had thoroughly searched the entire Dao Palace, inside and out. They didn’t even let the floor tiles, tiles, pillars, and pillars go.

Back on the ship, the group had finished dividing the loot and were all satisfied.

“Go! Hurry up and go to the next one!”

Ling Zhanxu’s eyes were red. The gains from this trip were equivalent to two to three hundred years of his bitter cultivation.

“This time, we’re looking for a mountain, a Ghost Mountain!”

Tang Hao looked at the name list and raised his head.

“What is the ghost Mountain?”

“This mountain is a bit strange. Its position is unpredictable all year round, appearing and disappearing unpredictably like a ghost. One moment it’s here, and the next moment it’ll go to another place.” Tang Hao explained.

“That’s right!” Elder lie laughed. We’ve been paying attention to this mountain for many years, and we’ve found it a few times. However, because of the disciples and the elders “low cultivation, we couldn’t go up and take a look, so we could only record it down.”

“Then I’m afraid it’ll be a little difficult to find!” Ling Zhanxu said.

“Not really. The location of this mountain can still be traced. It only appears in the same star field. We have the strength to find it with our numbers.” Elder lie said.

The divine boat moved forward at full speed, turning into a bolt of golden lightning. It sped through the void with great momentum.

Seven days later, they arrived at their destination.

Tang Hao turned around and said.

He had to stay on the divine boat and protect the 5th and 6th tribulation saints on board, so he naturally couldn’t leave. The mission of finding the Spirit Divine mountain could only be done by these 7th tribulation Dao friends.

The Group of Seven tribulations responded and flew out in unison, scattering in all directions. Then, they released their divine senses and began to search.

Tang Hao sat on the divine boat. He opened his heavenly eyes and scanned the space in front of him to help search.

Just like that, after two days, an elder of Vermillion Bird heaven sent back news that they had found it.

Tang Hao followed the direction of the message and opened his heavenly eye. After searching for a while, he found the so-called specter divine mountain.

The divine mountain was five to six hundred thousand feet tall. It was not very eye-catching among all the divine mountains Tang Hao had seen. However, this divine mountain was quite strange. It was shrouded in a thick black mist that he could not see through.

There were not many things that his heavenly eyes could not see through.

The stranger it was, the more likely it was that there would be a treasure. Tang Hao was well aware of this. He immediately sent out a message and summoned everyone back to the Spirit Divine mountain.
