

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2336

“Do you know what the most important thing in the eighth tribulation is?”

Shangyang Zhenren asked.

“Physical body!” Tang Hao said.

Each of the nine tribulations of the sage realm was different. From the primordial spirit tribulation, the physical body tribulation, to the longevity tribulation, the immortal mansion tribulation, and then to the immortal blood tribulation, each tribulation had a different emphasis.

As for the eighth and ninth tribulations, they were a little unique. They were similar to the primordial soul tribulation and the physical body tribulation. One cultivated the physical body, while the other cultivated the soul.

However, it only looked similar. In reality, they were completely different.

The previous physical body tribulation had only strengthened the body to a certain extent to withstand the Thunder tribulation. However, the eighth tribulation required one to cultivate to the ten thousand Blood Realm and use immortal blood to nourish the body, thoroughly remolding it and changing it into an immortal body.

This immortal body was also known as the undying immortal body. Once it was cultivated, the body would be close to indestructibility. As long as there was a drop of blood or a piece of flesh, one could be reborn.

Moreover, his body would also emit the undying celestial light.

This process was a rebirth of the body!

Once one had advanced to the 8th tribulation, it would be very difficult to kill their physical body unless one completely destroyed their flesh and blood with absolute crushing strength. The difficulty was a hundred times more difficult than killing someone of the same level in the 7th tribulation.

Therefore, it was very difficult for an eight-tribulation venerable Emperor to die.

“That’s right! It was his physical body! Nirvana rebirth and a new immortal body!” Shangyang Zhenren said with a nod.

“However, this alone is not enough.” He paused for a moment before he continued.

“Why?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“It’s very difficult to break through to the eighth tribulation!” Shangyang Zhenren said solemnly. It would be very difficult! At this level, the lightning tribulation is already extremely terrifying. No matter how powerful your immortal body is, you won't be able to withstand it. The more powerful your body is, the stronger the lightning will be. "

"Just like you, you have a strange immortal blood. After Nirvana, you will definitely transform into a Supreme immortal body. However, the stronger you are, the more heaven can't stand it and will send more powerful lightning to kill you."

"This logic is the same as the thing in your body, but it's not as exaggerated. The lightning tribulation triggered by that thing has a 10% chance of survival, while the lightning of the eighth tribulation has a 90% chance of survival."

"Then, is there any way to increase the success rate of the Tribulation?" Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

"Of course there is. You must know that the wisdom of humans is infinite. In order to deal with this lightning tribulation, the ancient cultivators tried many methods. In the end, they discovered that wood elemental treasures can transfer the lightning of tribulation, greatly increasing the success rate of the Tribulation."

"A wood element treasure? Then, nothing else?" Tang Hao was surprised.

"No! This eighth tribulation lightning is different from the previous ones. If you use other treasures, you'll die even faster. The lightning tribulation will go berserk and its power will multiply. Only wood element treasures can help you pass the Tribulation without triggering the lightning tribulation. " Shangyang Zhenren said.

"I see! What about the pill?"

Tang Hao said.

"Of course you can, but it won't be of much use. This lightning tribulation will last for a long time. How many pills of this grade do you have to squander?" Shangyang Zhenren said.

"That's true!"

Tang Hao said.

With his alchemy skills and his collection of spiritual medicine, he would not be able to refine many pills of this grade.

This was because only eight tribulation pills could be used during the lightning tribulation. Pills of this grade were too precious.

"So, the best way is to prepare as many wood element treasures as possible. When you can't take it anymore, you can throw one out to help you. Only then will you have a chance to cross."

Shangyang Zhenren said.

'I don't think I have many wood element treasures ...' Tang Hao muttered to himself.

He had many treasures on him, but not many of them were of the wood element. This was because there were not many of them, and even fewer of them were of a high grade.

Compared to gold and iron, wood element treasures were rarer, so there were fewer people who refined them.

He searched in his ring and only found about a hundred of them. Their grades were not high, and they probably would not be of much use.

"I guess I'll have to collect more wood element treasures after I get out of here. Oh right, let's go to Emperor Pan City and check out the spirit treasure heaven. There must be a lot of treasures there." "I'll make a few more myself if I really can 't," Tang Hao said to himself.

Tang Hao had quite a few wood element treasures on hand. He had a few of the three bamboo and seven Lotus, as well as all kinds of spirit wood, all of which were excellent materials for refining wood element tribulation weapons.

"Senior, many thanks!"

Then, he cupped his hands and expressed his thanks to Reverend Shangyang.

"No need! You'll find out about this sooner or later. " Shangyang Zhenren laughed."You'll realize that cultivation is even harder when you've ascended to the eighth tribulation. But I think it's not a big problem for a freak like you."

"After the completion of the eight tribulations, it's the ninth tribulation, which is even more difficult. It's the divine soul tribulation. After passing it, the primordial spirit will transform into an indestructible true spirit. At that level, you'll be half a true immortal."

"After that, you'll have to undergo ascendance. Once you succeed, you can vindicate your Dao and become a true immortal, which is my level."

"At this level, the standard to measure one's cultivation is one's Dao attainment. I've only cultivated for a thousand years, so I can't compare to the ancient Almightyies."

Shangyang Zhenren introduced.

"True immortality ... Is too far away!"

Tang Hao smiled wryly when he heard that.

In this world, it was far too difficult to become a true immortal!

"It's not far! It's not far!" "I'm sure you'll make it with your talent," Shangyang Zhenren said with a smile."But you still have to be careful of the nine-colored tribe. You won't be able to avoid this disaster."

"This Junior knows!"

Tang Hao said seriously.

“I have nothing more to give you, and I don’t have any treasures on me. Most of them were destroyed in that battle, except for this lamp. But this lamp can’t be moved, because if it does, my true spirit will be extinguished.”

Shangyang Zhenren looked left and right and said, a little embarrassed.

Tang Hao’s eyes darted around when he heard that.

“Senior, this tree ...”

He pointed at the ancient tree in front of him.

This was an ancient tree that was tens of thousands of years old. It must be very precious.

“Al! This won’t do. Without the tree’s nourishment, this old man’s true spirit won’t be able to last long. ”

“Then ... This Go board ...”

Tang Hao’s eyes shifted to the stone table in the middle of the courtyard. The chessboard and chess pieces on it were also treasures.

“No! No! Without this treasure, how am I supposed to kill time?”

Shangyang Zhenren said anxiously.

This kid was referring to his precious treasures.

“That ... That sign at the entrance, I remember it’s also a treasure.” Tang Hao said after some thought.

“No! What’s more, without the plaque, can this still be called ethereal immortal Palace?” The corner of Shangyang Zhenren’s mouth twitched.

This kid even had the idea of getting a plaque.

“None of them work! Al! “Forget it then. You may be my senior, but you don’t have to give me anything. I understand ...” Tang Hao sighed.

Hearing this, Shangyang Zhenren felt very upset.

He was a true immortal, but he was being looked down upon by a seven tribulation kid!

“There should still be something in the palace, let me look!”

He muttered in a low voice as he explored the immortal Palace.

“There it is!”

He waved his hand, and a few beams of red light appeared in front of Tang Hao.
