

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2337

“Feather?”

Tang Hao focused his eyes and saw that the red light was actually red feathers.

The feather was huge. When it was spread out, it was like a blanket. One could imagine that the owner of this feather must be huge.

“It’s a Phoenix!”

Then, Tang Hao remembered.

On the way here, he had seen many scenes, which should have been scenes from ancient times. One of them was a Phoenix, flying around the immortal Palace.

“That’s right! These are the feathers of five real phoenixes. Moreover, this real phoenix has the cultivation of a true immortal. Every feather is a rare treasure, and even true immortals would fight for it.” Shangyang Zhenren said proudly.

This Phoenix was a treasure of his ethereal immortal Palace. Back then, many fellow Daoists were envious and wanted to ask him for a few feathers to refine into treasures.

“It’s really a treasure!”

Tang Hao said happily.

This real phoenix was much stronger than the one in Nirvana sect.

“There’s still the aura of a true Phoenix inside!”

Tang Hao reached out and touched the feathers. He could sense the aura of a true Kang within them.

“How is it? not bad, right?”

Shangyang Zhenren said smugly.

“Many thanks, senior!”

Tang Hao quickly put away the treasure and bowed.

“You don’t have to thank me, just don’t waste these feathers.” Shangyang Zhenren laughed and flicked his sleeve. “You should leave too. Your companions have already left.”

Tang Hao bowed again, then walked out.

On the way, there was no more zither music, and he walked out smoothly.

“This kid ... He actually walked out of the ancestral land. He’s not ordinary! He was so freakish. Could it be that all the luck of the ancestral land had been transferred to him? The ancestral land is the source of everything.”

Under the ancient tree, the immortal Shangyang looked out of the courtyard, a little dazed.

“That’s right. When I investigated him just now, I didn’t find any special treasures on him. Could it be that he still hasn’t obtained the treasures in the ancestral land?”

Suddenly, his expression changed.

“I have to remind him!” He immediately shouted towards the outside of the courtyard.

“Pay attention to the ancestral land. When you have time, go back and have a look. Perhaps you can find some good fortune there. Whether you can find it or not, it depends on your fortune.”

With that, his figure dispersed, turned into smoke, and burrowed into the eternal flame.

“The ancestral lands?”

Tang Hao was walking out of the door when he heard the voice.

He stopped in his tracks and revealed a puzzled expression.

According to the senior’s words, there seemed to be some treasure on earth that even true immortals would care about?

“The earth isn’t big. I’ve been around a few times, but I haven’t found anything good!”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows. Back then, he had to go around the Earth a few times in search of magical weapons.

“Senior must know something. He wouldn’t have warned me for no reason. Perhaps my cultivation base was too low before, so even if there was a real treasure, I wouldn’t have been able to find it. I’ll go back and take a look.”

“Why don’t we bring sis Xiangyi and the others back to take a look after they’ve come out of seclusion ...”

Tang Hao pondered for a moment before he walked out of the door.

“How is it?”

“Did you find anything?”

Seeing him come out, the cultivators at the door immediately surrounded him.

They were all curious. Tang Hao had entered first, but he was the last to come out.

"I met a senior who gave me some pointers!" Tang Hao said.

"Senior? Supreme martial artist? Or ...?" Elder lie exclaimed,"after I went in, I didn't see anything. I was in a daze and I don't know how I came out."

"Senior, you are an ancient true immortal ..."

Tang Hao briefly explained the situation inside.

As for Dragon count and the nine color clan, he didn't say anything. It was better to keep this a secret to avoid causing panic.

"So there really are true immortals inside ..."

"What a pity! I didn't get to see him!"

The few people who had gone in just now felt a little regretful.

"If we can't see him, it means we don't have the right or the Fortune. Don't mind it!" Elder lie consoled him,"since the matter here is over, let's go to the next place."

"Let's go, let's go!"

Ling Zhanxu and the others could not wait any longer.

Everyone boarded the divine boat. Tang Hao steered the divine boat and headed to the next destination.

After deciding on the direction, he let Zao Huazi take the helm and returned to his room.

The divine craft creation boat was extremely huge, and there were cave abodes inside. Each cave abode used the Sumeru mustard technique. It looked like a small room, but there was a large space inside.

Tang Hao's room was the main room, which was the largest.

Moreover, these cave abodes were not only large in space, but also rich in immortal Qi. The entire divine boat was equivalent to a machine that absorbed immortal Qi, and could absorb immortal Qi from the void all the time.

Some of the immortal Qi was stored as power to supply the divine cannon in battle, while the rest was distributed to various immortal caves.

The divine boat was like a moving Mountain Gate, a fortress.

He sat down in the cave and took out the five Phoenix Feathers.

“It’s indeed worthy of being a true immortal level item. With my strength, I’m afraid it’ll be a little difficult to refine it into a tribulation weapon.”

Tang Hao shook his head when he tried.

He was still not strong enough to refine these feathers.

“That’s right, that egg!”

Suddenly, Tang Hao seemed to have thought of something. He rummaged through the ring and took out a huge egg. It was the Phoenix egg he found in the Nirvana sect ruins.

Previously, he had been busy repairing the divine boat and did not value this thing much, so he had not hatched it and had left it in the corner.

He was wondering if he could use these feathers to nourish and hatch the egg. The energy in the feathers could also be used as nutrients for the Hatchling to speed up its growth.

This way, the egg would not be so useless.

“We can try!”

Tang Hao pondered for a moment, then placed the egg on a feather. He then covered the egg with the other feathers and wrapped it up tightly.

After waiting for a while, he realized that the surface of the egg started to shine and become hot. The power of true Kang on the feathers was being drawn into the egg.

Furthermore, as time passed, the rate of absorption continued to increase.

After about four hours, a cracking sound came from the egg, and the surface cracked.

“You’re out just like that?”

Tang Hao was surprised. He did not expect it to happen so soon.

After a while, there was another cracking sound. The eggshell continued to crack. In the end, the entire shell cracked open, and a bare little bird crawled out. It flapped its tiny wings and chirped.

“This ... Is the Phoenix?”

Tang Hao was stunned when he looked at it.

F * ck! This newly born Phoenix was too ugly! It didn’t look like a phoenix at all. At first glance, it looked like a chicken!

The little bird did not seem to notice Tang Hao's disdain. It flapped its wings and walked toward Tang Hao with a happy expression.

"I hope she'll be more beautiful in the future!"

Tang Hao smiled. He reached out and patted her head.

Then, he picked up the feathers and placed them on top, letting them continue to absorb the power of true Nirvana.
