

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2345

“Al! Why did you faint?”

Tang Hao shook his head helplessly as he looked at the two people lying on the ground.

He hadn't even done anything, and the two of them had already fainted. Their mental fortitude was really bad!

Those who had escaped were the same. What was there to be afraid of? He didn't even make a move, so why was he escaping? It wouldn't be too late for these people to escape after he made his move!

He cursed silently and walked toward the counter.

He looked around and found a few wood element tribulation artifacts, one of which was a seventh tribulation one. He took it, threw down 100000 Pangu coins, and walked out of the store.

Outside, the situation was a little quiet. Most of the people on this Street had run away. In the distance, there was a commotion. They were all shouting that the devil had arrived.

From time to time, there would be light shooting into the sky and escaping out of the city.

“These people, why are they so timid? I don't eat people!”

Tang Hao looked up at the sky and made a few 'tsk' sounds. He looked disappointed.

Inside the shop, the yin-yang sky Saint who had jumped in first was lying on the ground with his eyes half-closed. He looked outside and heard Tang Hao's mumbling. He wanted to vomit blood.

F * ck! Where did this devil get the face to say that they were timid? it was obviously because he was too cruel. Also, he didn't eat people, but his actions were even more terrifying than eating people. He was simply inhumane and angered both man and God!

He roared in his heart.

He had also participated in the battle back then. He had thought that he could suppress this troublemaker and make the yin-yang sky famous. However, it had turned out to be a nightmare. His fellow brothers who had come with him to save Emperor Pan City were still deeply traumatized.

“Forget it, let's go directly to the spiritual treasure Shop! After that, we'll go to the shops opened by Zi Shengtian.”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He walked along the street toward the center of the city.

The bigger shops were in the central area, and the biggest spirit Treasure Shop was in the center.

He still didn't know how powerful his eighth Thunder tribulation would be, so he could only prepare as many wood element tribulation weapons as possible. Ling Bao heaven alone might not be able to meet his needs, so he had to find a few more.

And this purple sky heaven, apart from the Ling treasure heaven, was the one with the biggest weapon robbery business.

Tang Hao walked for a while. Before he even reached the Central District, he saw a group of people appear on the opposite side of the street. They were peeking in his direction from a distance. They were all tiny and looked nervous.

Tang Hao recognized one of them. He was middle-aged, chubby, and looked like a rich man. It was Taoist Bao Yun from spirit treasure heaven.

This Taoist Bao Yun was the managing elder of Ling Bao Tian. He was in charge of receiving him during the treasure falling ceremony.

"Isn't this fellow Daoist Bao Yun?"

Tang Hao shouted from afar.

Hearing this, Bao Yun trembled and was a little scared. Then, he forced a smile and shouted from a distance, "Long time no see, divine Lord Tang!"

He squatted there, not daring to move forward.

He had heard that this man was making trouble again. Back when he was only at the early stage of the sixth tribulation, he had already turned the whole city upside down. Now, he had 5000 to 6000 health points, and he had a treasure that was comparable to a fairy weapon. If he continued to make trouble, no one would be able to stop him. He would probably destroy the entire city.

"Tang ... Divine Lord Tang, let's ... Let's talk this out ..."

"Right! Right! Let's sit down and have a good talk, don't fight!"

The people around baoyun were all elders who had been stationed in the city.

"I didn't do anything!"

"Which eye of yours saw me do that?" Tang Hao asked.

The elders of the heavens shivered in fear when they heard this. Divine Lord Tang's tone seemed to be a little angry.

"No... We didn't mean that ..."

"Please calm down, divine Lord Tang! Divine Lord, are you here to buy something? Just tell us, we will do our best to satisfy your request!"

They hurriedly said.

“The people of the purple sky sect are also here! Just in time!”

Tang Hao’s eyes swept across the crowd and saw Zi xutian’s uniform.

“I am Zi Luan. Divine Lord Tang, please tell me what you need!”

The manager of the purple sky heaven sect stepped forward and bowed.

“I’m here to buy some tribulation artifacts. I was just about to go to the spiritual treasure Shop!” Tang Hao said.

“Buy a tribulation tool? That’s great, what kind of tribulation equipment do you want? How much do you want? My spiritual treasure Shop will give you a 30% discount!” Bao Yun’s eyes lit up when he heard about business.

Tang Hao smiled. “I’m asking for a lot. I’m afraid that the spirit treasure heaven can’t provide enough. That’s why I want to go to the purple sky.”

Daoist Bao Yun was stunned. With the scale of his numinous treasure heavenly artifact path, how could he not supply enough?

They had underestimated Ling Baotian!

The others were also a little surprised. They knew how powerful the spirit treasure heaven was. In terms of the foundation of treasures, none of the 33 heavens could compare to the spirit treasure heaven.

“What I want is a wood element tribulation tool, the seventh tribulation!”

Tang Hao said.

Daoist Bao Yun’s expression changed slightly. A wood element tribulation weapon, and one at the seventh tribulation. That would be a little difficult, because there was not much demand for wood element tribulation weapons. He did not refine many of them in the numinous treasure heaven, so there was not much in stock.

“I don’t have many heavenly wood tribulation-causing weapons, but I do have about a hundred of them. If you want more, we can make them as soon as possible to satisfy your needs.”

Bao Yun patted his chest and said.

“A hundred? It was too little! The number I want is in the tens of thousands. ” Tang Hao said, shaking his head.

“Ten thousand?”

The group of managers were stunned, and then, with a hiss, they sucked in a cold breath.

At least 10000 seventh tribulation wood element tribulation weapons?

They had never encountered such a huge order.

“Ten thousand pieces!” Bao Yun broke out in a cold sweat.

He had thought that there would be a few hundred pieces at most. He did not expect divine Lord Tang to ask for ten thousand pieces, and possibly more than ten thousand, because he said that it was counted in ten thousand pieces.

“What’s wrong? Is that too much?”

Tang Hao said.

“No! We can discuss it, but this order is too big. I can’t make the decision as a managing elder. I’ll have to report it to the higher-ups and let the great elder make the decision. ” Said Bao Yun.

He looked a little excited. Although the number of orders was a little too large, it was still possible for him to complete it with the ability of the spirit treasure heaven. Taking this order would also bring him great benefits.

“Alright!” Tang Hao nodded. Then, he looked at Daoist Zi Shang.”What about your Zi Xu heaven?”

“I have to report it too!” Daoist Zi Shang’s face revealed a difficult expression.

“Okay, go back and ask how many 7th tribulation wood element tribulation weapons you can make in the next one or two years. I’ll take as many as you have. There’s no limit.”

Tang Hao said.

He didn’t know how much he would use, so he could only collect as much as possible. In any case, it wouldn’t be a waste. In the future, the people around him would also have to pass the eighth tribulation, so he could also use it.

Bao Yun and Zi Luan responded and immediately left to report.

“Divine Lord Tang, do you accept our service?”

The remaining few managers asked tentatively.

“Of course!”

After getting an affirmative answer, they also left and returned to their respective sects.
