

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2346

A moment later, Tang Hao was already sitting in the shop.

He sipped his tea and waited patiently.

He knew that his order was frighteningly large and that the orthodoxies wouldn't make a decision so quickly.

This was because if they wanted to supply his orders, these orthodoxies would have to gather all their resources to rush his orders. Even the 7th tribulation elders who could refine weapons would have to do it. This was not an easy task.

After waiting for about an hour, Taoist Bao Yun was the first to return.

"Divine Lord Tang, I've checked the inventory just now. There are a total of 231 seventh tribulation wood element tribulation weapons."

"I've reported your request to the seven tribulations elders. They've discussed it and agreed to accept the order. However, it depends on what kind of remuneration you're offering. We won't accept it if it's in ordinary currency."

Said Bao Yun.

He, the numinous treasure heaven, had no lack of ordinary currency. For such a super large order, he had to collect something more valuable so that he, the numinous treasure heaven, would not lose out.

"If we don't accept money, what about pills?" Tang Hao was not surprised.

"What pill?"

Asked Bao Yun.

"The Grand Yan golden pill!"

Tang Hao said with a smile.

"The Grand Yan golden pill?" Daoist Bao Yun's body trembled, and he revealed a look of shock.

As a member of the spirit treasure heaven, he was familiar with all kinds of treasures in the world. How could he not know what the Grand Yan golden pill was!

This was a rare treasure pill created by the ancient alchemy Almighty, the Grand Yan immortal venerable. It could allow a cultivator to quickly comprehend the Dao. One grand Yan golden pill could quickly create a six tribulation Saint.

Such a treasure pill was something that all the forces in the world dreamed of.

As expected, divine Lord Tang had obtained the recipe for the Grand Yan golden pill from the Grand Yan immortal Palace and had refined quite a few of them. So many six tribulation saints in the creation sect had been created from these Grand Yan golden pills.

Otherwise, how could the gate of fortune have nurtured more than 1000 sixth tribulation experts in such a short period of time?

It should be known that the completion of the fifth tribulation was a threshold that had stumped countless cultivators. The major forces had no good ways. Only this magical Great Yan golden pill could quickly break through this threshold and advance to the sixth tribulation.

“Gulp!”

He swallowed hard, and his eyes were a little red.

Ling Baotian was determined to get this order at all costs. Furthermore, they were going to mobilize all their forces to refine a seven-tribulation wood-type treasure!

“Divine Lord Tang, I, Ling Baotian, will accept this order. However, the price ...”

“No rush!” Tang Hao smiled. “We can discuss this when the others are back!”

“Yes, yes! No rush! No rush!”

Said Bao Yun.

He sat down at the side, still very excited.

This was the great Yan golden pill. No matter how many seven-tribulation wood-element treasures were exchanged for one, the spirit treasure heaven would still profit. The spirit treasure heaven had never lacked treasures, but they lacked cultivation. With this Great Yan golden pill, the spirit treasure heaven could cultivate more six-tribulation saints.

Even for the 33 heavens, the 6th tribulation was very important. It was the main pillar. Only with enough 6th tribulation could more 7th tribulation be born.

After a while, Daoist Zichen returned.

“Divine Lord Tang, I’ve reported this to my superior ... Your order is too big. I, Zi xutian, can’t satisfy it. If you’re willing to lower the quantity, we’ll accept it.”

Daoist Zichen said with some difficulty.

It wasn’t that Zi Shengtian was unwilling. After all, they were also doing business. How could they not accept the order? it was just that this order was too big for Zi Shengtian to take.

“Hahaha!”

Hearing this, Bao Yun laughed out loud.

This Zi xutian was really stupid. He didn't even ask divine Lord Tang what treasures he wanted to exchange for it and rejected it!

He could already imagine how this fellow would cry in regret and kneel down to beg divine Lord Tang when he found out what kind of treasure he had taken out.

"What are you laughing at?"

Hearing this laughter, Daoist Zi Chen was a little displeased. He felt that baoyun was mocking him and Zi xutian.

In the business world, the two families were rivals. The competition between the two was fierce, and they did not like each other.

"It's nothing!"

Daoist Bao Yun spread his hands. "I'm laughing at you for being stupid. And your purple void heaven, you can't either!" You can't even handle a small order, no wonder you can't catch up with our Ling Baotian. "

"You ..."

Zi Luan was infuriated and her face turned red. "What small order? how can you say that? it's such a big order. It's hard for your Ling Baotian to complete it!"

"No, no, no! This is a piece of cake for the Ling Bao heaven!"

Bao Yun laughed.

"Hahaha! A piece of cake? I think you're just puffing your own face up! If you accept this order, your spirit treasure heaven will have a hard time for the next few years. Don't you think I know how much you're worth?" Zi Ying sneered.

He was somewhat disdainful. After fighting for so many years, how could he, the purple sky sect, not know how much Ling Baotian was worth!

"What's there to be sad about? for divine Lord Tang, Ling Baotian is willing to do everything we can to fulfill his orders. However much he wants, Ling Baotian will refine as much as he wants. It's worth it no matter how tiring it is or how much we have to pay."

"Unlike you, Zi xutian, you don't even dare to accept orders. You're a bunch of cowards!"

Baoyun retorted.

"You ..." Zi Xu was getting angrier.

He was about to counterattack when he suddenly frowned and noticed that something was wrong.

This baoyun's reaction didn't make sense!

Was it worth it even if he had to do everything he could and pay a huge price?

This was too enthusiastic!

No matter how high divine Lord Tang's status was, he shouldn't have acted this way!

He knew the situation of the spirit treasure heaven. Even if they could accept the order, it would be very difficult. Before he came, he thought that the spirit treasure heaven would reject the order like he, the purple sky sect!

Unexpectedly, Ling Baotian actually accepted it and accepted it very happily!

It doesn't seem like he's trying to anger me, but why?

Zi mo pondered, becoming more and more confused.

"You don't understand! That's right, it shows that you people of the purple sky heaven are a group of fools, idiots!" Bao Yun said proudly.

"You ... Who are you calling an idiot!" Zi mo said angrily.

"Before doing business, you didn't even ask what the other party offered and you rejected it. If this isn't stupid, what is?" Bao Yun sneered.

Zi dan was taken aback. Could it be that divine Lord Tang had taken out a treasure that Ling Baotian could not reject? was that why Ling Baotian was so enthusiastic?

However, what kind of treasure could move Ling Baotian?

He could not understand what other treasures would catch the eyes of the spirit treasure heaven.

Even if it was a Supreme artifact, it shouldn't be that bad!

Although Supreme weapons were precious, there were still many of them in the spirit treasure heaven.

"I'll tell you! It was the Grand Yan golden pill! Do you understand now?" Bao Yun said.

"Da ... Da yan golden pill?"

Hearing this, Zi Luan's entire body trembled as if she had been struck by lightning.
