

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2349

At the gate of creation.

Divine light continued to fall as the emissaries of the various orthodoxies appeared.

Most of them were personally led by the great elder, followed by a group of seven tribulation elders.

This movement also attracted the attention of the surrounding xiuzhe.

“Look, isn’t that the people from Shang Qing Tian!”

“Those seem to be people from the West Pole and the Black Tortoise heaven ... What’s going on? Why are there so many heavenly orthodoxies suddenly?”

In all four directions of the mountain range, in all the major cities, many cultivators rushed into the sky and looked over from afar, constantly letting out cries of surprise.

“They’re all extraordinary characters! Look, these people’s auras are all at the seventh tribulation! The leader’s aura is even more terrifying. I’m afraid it’s thousand blood!”

Many xiuzhe could see the cultivation of these people and were even more shocked.

“Are you here to cause trouble?”

Some xiuzhe guessed.

The gate of fortune was full of trouble. Previously, they were besieged by a hundred races and an eight tribulation venerable Emperor came to kill them. They were already used to it. Thus, when they saw so many mantras, they all thought of it.

“How is that possible? These orthodoxies are on good terms with divine Lord Tang. They even sent envoys to congratulate him when he was promoted.”

“That’s right. Even if they’re here to cause trouble, it can’t be just these people. The current divine Lord Tang has five to six thousand health points. Even if all of them were to join forces, they wouldn’t even be able to defeat him!”

Immediately, many xiuzhe retorted.

This statement was acknowledged by most people.

The current divine Lord Tang and the gate of fortune were no longer the same as before. With a divine fate boat that was comparable to a fairy weapon in hand, they could blow away an eight tribulation venerable Emperor with one shot. With such strength, who would dare to provoke them?

In the eyes of the world, the gate of fortune was already as famous as the 33 heavens.

“Look! These people are so respectful, how could they be here to cause trouble!”

A xiuzhe shouted.

Everyone took a closer look. Wasn't that so? the elders of the various heavens were all standing there respectfully. Their leader was talking and laughing with the creation sect leader.

Even from a distance, they could hear the hearty and enthusiastic laughter.

Everyone found it unbelievable. If this person was divine Lord Tang, the thousand-Blood Warriors' attitude could be understood. After all, divine Lord Tang was powerful and this world was ruled by the strong. Even the thousand-Blood Warriors from the various demonic mantras had to be respectful when they saw him.

However, this creation sect master ... Although he was a sect master, his strength was too low. He was afraid that he would not be able to enter the eyes of these thousand-blood strong practitioners!

They might have treated creation sect leader courteously because of his status as a sect leader, but they did not have to be so enthusiastic. They even had to deliberately compliment him.

“I'm afraid that they're here to ask for a favor from the gate of fortune!”

A xiuzhe sighed, his expression full of emotion.

A few years ago, such a situation would have been unimaginable.

“You have a request for the gate of fortune? No way! That was thirty-three heavens! How deep was his Foundation! Moreover, why would so many orthodoxies come to the gate of fortune to seek help? What is it for?”

The cultivators were both confused and shocked.

Soon, the news spread and shocked the entire beihuang region.

Everyone knew that dozens of orthodoxies from all over the world had come to the creation sect to seek an audience with divine Lord Tang. The one leading them was a great elder, and the ones following behind were all seven tribulation elders. The scale of their arrival was rather frightening.

No one knew the exact reason, and they did not care. They only knew that these people were here to see divine Lord Tang.

“Divine Lord Tang is awesome!”

Everyone in the world was amazed.

In this world, the only person who could make so many great elders of the various heavenly orthodoxies line up to see him was divine Lord Tang!

Only after a few days did news spread that the reason why these people had come to see him was actually for the legendary Great Yan golden pill.

The Dayan golden pill was also related to the recent craze for wood element spiritual materials.

The craze was triggered by divine Lord Tang.

“Aiya! What a loss! If I had known earlier, I would’ve stashed them. The further I go, the higher the price will be!”

Many people were remorseful. When the forces like the spirit treasure heaven were buying them, they had already sold them. Now that so many forces were buying them, the price would definitely increase by several times. The earlier they sold, the more losses they would suffer.

“The Grand Yan golden pill! It would be great if I could get one!”

Many clans were envious.

They wanted to trade too, but they knew that they did not have the right to do so. With their strength, how could they compare to the orthodoxies of the 33 heavens? with divine Lord Tang’s current position and strength, he would not even care about them.

However, some of the Super large clans were still tempted. They sent many elders to the gate of fortune to seek an audience with divine Lord Tang.

All of a sudden, the popularity of wood element spiritual materials was rising!

Almost all of the xiuzhe had joined in, searching for wood element materials everywhere in Pangu.

Not long after, another batch of materials was set off. At this time, the world discovered that these materials were the ones that the Ling clan Chamber of Commerce had offered a bounty for. These were a portion of the materials needed to refine the Grand Yan golden pill.

Wood element spiritual materials, as well as these materials, would eventually end up in the hands of the various mantras and super clans.

Then, these wood element spiritual materials would be refined into shield-shaped tribulation weapons of the seventh tribulation. Finally, they would be sent to the gate of fortune along with the materials for alchemy.

Not long after Tang Hao finished modifying the divine boat, a few batches of tribulation artifacts arrived. There were also many alchemy materials that the orthodoxies took from their own treasure vaults.

The number was huge. After all, these orthodoxies had a history of tens of thousands of years and had extremely deep foundations.

Tang Hao had concocted more than a thousand portions of ingredients in one go. Even he himself was shocked.

A thousand pills, according to the exchange rate, could be exchanged for 100000 items!

In the future, these forces would definitely send more materials over, and he would be able to refine more Great Yan golden pills. He would use a portion to exchange for them and give the rest to his disciples to create more six tribulation saints.

Now, there were more than 1000 6th tribulation experts in the sect. In addition to the 500 divine bodies in the ancestor's land, the number of 6th tribulation experts had exceeded 1500.

With these Grand Yan golden pills, he had the confidence to break through to the 2000th, or even 3000th!

Moreover, he could also create more complete 6th tribulation cultivators so that they could condense blood and attempt to break through to the 7th tribulation.

The more seven tribulations there were, the stronger the creation sect would be.

"The more, the better!"

Tang Hao thought of the nine-colored clan. Before they descended, not only did he have to improve his own strength, but he also had to improve the strength of the entire gate of fortune. After all, he could not rely on himself to fight such a large-scale war.

After preparing the materials, he started the furnace to refine the elixir. Soon, a furnace of golden elixir was formed. He gave part of it to the major forces and distributed the other part, creating more six tribulation saints.

Tang Hao also gave some to the Ling family, Jiang family, and other forces to help them cultivate many sixth tribulation lightning.
