

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2350

Tang Hao was sitting in the cave abode.

In the cauldron in front of him, flames were burning.

For a moment, the flames took the shape of a Dragon, and then a moment later, they took the shape of a Tiger. This was the basic Dragon Tiger pill refining technique.

Tang Hao's alchemy skills had already returned to their original state. He did not need any profound techniques. To refine a God-level pill like the Golden Yan pill, the simplest alchemy technique was enough!

A moment later, the calcination was completed.

The body of the cauldron shook and a huge golden core flew out and landed in his palm.

"I've finished refining one hundred sets of materials!"

Tang Hao put the pill into the bottle and stood up.

This time, the major forces sent many more materials. He gathered a hundred portions and quickly finished refining.

He walked out of the cave abode, went to the main hall, and handed all the elixirs to Zao Huazi.

As for creation, he gave him the Tribulation weapons that had been sent over during this period.

Tang Hao counted the items. There were more than five thousand of them.

"The efficiency is quite high, and the quality is not bad!"

Tang Hao picked up a few pieces randomly and examined them. The materials and crafting techniques were not bad. They were not crude.

"With these 5000, I have over 30000!"

It had been a month and a half since Tang Hao placed the order. The number of seventh tribulation wood element treasures he had obtained from the various factions had reached thirty thousand.

Most of the time, it was the first batch. Most of them were taken out from the treasure vaults of the major forces. The rest were collected by them from various places and refined by their own elders.

"If this continues, there's hope for 100000!"

Tang Hao grinned.

Wood element treasures were good things, so naturally, the more the better. In any case, he could afford it, and he still had many Grand Yan golden pills!

After keeping the treasure, he left the main hall and went to the back mountain to take a look at the little Phoenix.

After returning, the little Phoenix was placed in the back mountain by Zao huaizi. After swallowing a lot of spiritual essence, its cultivation successfully advanced to the peak of the sixth tribulation.

Tang Hao did not ask her to prepare for blood coagulation. Instead, he asked her to practice martial arts. She had just been born and had a lot to learn.

After playing with her for a while, Tang Hao returned to the cave abode.

After taking a look at the Buddhist Kingdom, he contacted his avatars and learned about the recent situation in the eight desolates.

The most lively event in the eight Barrens was the treasure hunt for wood element spiritual materials. Other than that, there were news of some clan elders coming out of seclusion and the success of the blood solidification realm. Many of them had even passed the Thunder tribulation and advanced to the seventh tribulation.

There was quite a lot of such news.

Tang Hao was not surprised. In fact, such a situation had already happened a few years ago, and such news had been coming in one after another.

Most of these people who had broken through had obtained their blood in King Roc mountain. After returning from King Roc mountain, these people went into seclusion and began to break through to the blood solidification realm. Zao Huazi was one of them.

After making sure that there were no major issues, Tang Hao focused his attention on the matter.

“There’s still no news!”

Tang Hao sat quietly for a moment, then suddenly sighed.

He still hadn’t found the whereabouts of the Western Fang clan. He had sent so many avatars to all corners of the world to help him find out information, but up until now, he had found no news of the Western Fang clan.

Among all the women who had been ferried up here, only sia and star pupil were still missing. He wasn’t worried about star pupil for the time being, because the cleansing clan had said that she had been taken away to cultivate, so at least there was still news about her.

“Perhaps, the Western race is just like the Fusang country. They’re hidden in some corner and hard to find.”

Tang Hao said to himself.

In fact, there were many hidden places in Pangu world. For example, the descendants of gods mostly lived in the remote areas, isolated from the world, and were hard to find.

It was said that there were quite a number of such forces, and elder lie had told him a few of them.

“This kind of thing can’t be rushed!”

A moment later, he shook his head and opened his heavenly eyes.

He wanted to see what the situation was like at the South Pole.

When the devil Dao ancient Emperor attacked, he had clashed with the four star transformation realm old monsters. These four old monsters were definitely after the star, so he wanted to see what they were up to. Were they planning to take back the star?

Very soon, he saw the situation of that old monster. He was not in the South Pole, but on a large ship. He was with two old monsters of the great void heaven and the old monster of the divine curse heaven.

“It’s in the outer-realm void. It seems like they’re planning to take the star!”

Tang Hao immediately understood.

To a star realm old monster, having his star taken away was equivalent to losing half of his life. This old monster would definitely not give up.

On the ship, other than the four planet realm old monsters, there were many other old men. They were probably invited by the old monsters to break the concealment array.

However, things didn’t seem to be going well. The four old monsters all had ugly expressions.

“I failed again!”

“Isn’t this kid not even a hundred years old? How could he have such terrifying array Dao attainments?”

The four of them frowned.

They were all stumped. They tried again and again, and even invited all kinds of array Dao experts, but they still couldn’t break the array that the kid set up.

This made them very depressed. They had to admit that their strength had been surpassed by that kid. Who asked that kid to be so monstrous? he was so lucky and had a treasure that was comparable to a fairy weapon. He could blow away an eighth tribulation expert with one shot.

However, they were also crushed by that kid in this array Dao. This was something that they could not accept.

“These are the best array Masters we can invite. We can’t count on the people from Xi Huangtian. That kid is in the limelight now, and Xi Huangtian is very close to him. They won’t risk offending him to help us.”

The old monster from the cursed sky looked at the array Masters and said helplessly.

If they were to talk about the strongest force in the array Dao, it would be none other than the xihuang heaven. If they could invite a few array Dao Masters from xihuang heaven, breaking this array and taking back the star would not be a problem. However, they could not invite them now.

Right now, other than the three of them, the rest of the orthodoxies were all in a heated battle with that brat. For the sake of the Grand Yan golden pill, they were mobilizing all their forces and desperately refining treasures for that brat! How could he turn around and help them!

“Al!”

The old monster of the South Pole sighed.

He had never thought that things would turn out like this.

How did that little brat become so powerful and popular all of a sudden?

Now, in the 33 heavens, the three orthodoxies were almost laughed at. The disciples of the panhuang city were often laughed at by other orthodoxies, especially the South Pole.

Originally, this matter was a matter of the divine curse heaven and the great void heaven. These two sects had a greater enmity with that kid. As for the South Pole, they originally had no enmity with that kid. They just coveted the treasures of the creation gate and thus got involved.

He had thought that it would be easy to take down the gate of fortune and that kid. However, he did not expect that their plans would fail time and time again, causing the South Pole to fall into such a state.

As for him, he was even more F * cking unlucky. He had even lost his star, and he had to pay so much that he vomited blood.
