

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2353

“Fellow Daoist nanshou, who stole your star?”

“When did that happen?”

All the cultivators asked.

A star being stolen was no small matter.

This Daoist nanshou was considered a senior among the star realm old monsters. He had six to seven thousand drops of blood in his cultivation base. The person who could snatch his star must be stronger than him. If this person also targeted them, they would definitely not be able to stop him.

Therefore, they were eager to know who the person who had stolen the stars was so that they could be on guard.

“Al! It’s hard to explain in a few words!”

Daoist nanshou sighed.

“Daoist nanshou, is it that old devil mu?”

An old monster asked.

As soon as he said this, everyone was shocked.

This old devil mu was the most famous figure of the evil sect among the star realm old monsters. He was also a rogue cultivator and had always been fearless in his actions. If there was someone who was most likely to commit evil deeds like snatching other people’s stars, it was definitely him.

Moreover, he was strong enough. During the last exchange, he already had more than 8500 blood. Now, he probably had 9000 blood!

This level of strength completely crushed Daoist nanshou. As long as he could find the location of the star, he would be able to seize it easily.

“It wasn’t him!”

Daoist nanshou said, shaking his head.

“Hmph! Of course, it wasn’t me!” At this moment, a cold snort came from the sky. “I wouldn’t want this guy’s star even if he gave it to me!”

All the cultivators raised their heads, and their expressions changed.

In the sky, a black divine light fell, and a black-robed figure appeared. His entire body was shrouded in black mist, and his appearance could not be seen clearly. Only a pair of blood-red eyes could be seen, which was extremely horrifying.

This person was old devil mu, who had been mentioned earlier.

Old devil MU's gaze turned and swept across the crowd coldly. He then looked at Daoist nanshou and said, "I'm a little curious. Who is he? To be able to snatch away your stars, I'm afraid he must have some ability."

"You might not believe me if I tell you!" Daoist nanshou said, "this person is not from our star transformation realm."

"What? Not a star transformation xiuzhe? How is that possible?"

"If he's not a Hua Xing or an eight-tribulation venerable sovereign, who is he?"

All the cultivators were greatly puzzled.

"Although this person isn't a star transformation cultivator, his strength far surpasses mine." Daoist nanshou said.

"This is impossible!"

"If he doesn't transform into a star, how can his strength be stronger than yours? how can there be such a freak in this world!"

The cultivators didn't believe it.

It was impossible for the kind of person Daoist nanshou spoke of to exist. This was against common sense!

"Hey! You guys don't know yet! Now, a peerless monster had emerged in Pangu world! This person is less than 100 years old, about 60 or 70 years old, but his cultivation level has long surpassed mine!"

Daoist nanshou laughed bitterly. "He's the one who stole my star!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the surroundings fell silent.

Everyone was dumbfounded!

A sixty to seventy-year-old with a cultivation base of over six to seven thousand blood?

Wasn't this ... A fantasy story?

How could such a monster exist!

"Daoist brother nanshou, you're joking, right?"

“That’s right, you must be joking with us! What monster, what star being stolen, all of these are fake!”

The cultivators gradually came back to their senses and laughed.

However, they felt that Daoist nanshou was just joking and that he was deliberately lying to them.

“I also don’t believe that there’s such a monster in this world!”

That old devil mu also shook his head.

He considered himself to be a monster of his generation, which was why he was able to transform into a star all the way to his current nine thousand blood level. However, the process took him thousands of years, and now someone had jumped out and said that there was someone who was even more monstrous than him, a thousand times, ten thousand times more monstrous, and that someone in his sixties or seventies had completed the journey that he had taken thousands of years to complete. Of course, he did not believe it!

“It’s true!”

That senior brother from the great void heaven, Daoist Xu Qi, said in a deep voice, “you might not believe it, but I can guarantee with my honor that this is all true.”

“This ... How is this possible?”

All the cultivators were stunned and in disbelief.

“It’s true!” The one from the God of curse sky also spoke with a serious expression.

The cultivators’ mouths were agape and they were once again dumbfounded.

Such a monster actually existed?

For a moment, the entire square was deathly silent.

A moment later, everyone gasped. All of the Hua Xing old monsters were shocked.

Such a monster was too terrifying! It was simply unheard of!

“What’s his name?”

“Which day is he from?”

Then, they asked eagerly, wanting to figure out the background of this monster.

“This person isn’t from the heavenly Dao. In fact, he’s not even from Pangu. He’s from the lower realms ...”

Daoist nanshou gulped and gave a simple account of Tang Hao's experience. Of course, he could not help but exaggerate when he spoke. He described Tang Hao as extremely treacherous, brutal, and inhumane.

"F * ck! I'm that bad?"

Tang Hao began to doubt himself when he heard that.

When the cultivators heard this, they fell into a daze for a long time. The shock in their hearts was indescribable.

"This ... This monster ... Is too ... Too terrifying!"

An old monster Hua Xing said with a trembling voice and a fearful expression.

"It's my misfortune to have such a devil!"

There were also old monsters who sighed.

"This guy...How can he be even more ruthless than me!" That old devil mu was also somewhat speechless.

He was such a Savage old demon, but he was shocked by this monster's experience.

"This little devil is brutal and has killed countless people from Pangu field. His crimes are uncountable! That's why the elders of the South Pole invited me to come out and kill this demon together with the Daoists of the great void sect and the divine curse sect. "

"It's a pity that this demon is too powerful and cunning. The three of us couldn't do anything to him. Instead, we fell into his trap and got the stars."

"We're here to ask everyone here to help us kill this demon and enforce justice on behalf of the heavens. Also, that demon has hidden my star with a formation. I would like to ask you to help me break the formation and take back my star."

Daoist nanshou looked in all directions and said in an impassioned manner.

"This ..." Many of the old monsters hesitated.

Such a demonic fellow is not easy to deal with. I'm just afraid that if I can't kill that kid, I'll end up like fellow Daoist nanshou and have his star snatched away. I might even lose my life.

"It's our duty to kill such a demon!"

Many old monsters said excitedly.

The old monsters of the three great orthodoxies of the great void, the divine curse, and the South Pole all stood out. This monster was the greatest enemy of their three heavens, so they had to stand out.

“Daoist nanshou, I might not be able to help much in killing that demon. However, I can still help in breaking the formation.”

Following that, an expert with formation Dao stood out and prepared to put in some effort.

“That’s great!”

Daoist nanshou was overjoyed.

He exchanged glances with the other three, and they could see each other’s excitement.

They had achieved their objective for this trip!
