

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2361

Tang Hao put the Jade bottle away and sat down, satisfied.

The trade fair continued. From time to time, xiuzhe would come forward and take out all kinds of treasures.

Tang Hao looked at the items one by one. He was not interested in any of them, so he did not make any more moves.

Soon, half of the people had passed.

“Please welcome the next person!”

Another xiuzhe went up the stage, wearing the clothes of the Yin Yang sky. After he went up the stage, he took out a universe bag and opened it. A pile of things poured out, such as Jade slips, beads, scrolls, a big pile.

“Daoist bi, what are these?”

When the people below saw this, they were all stunned. This pile of things was very messy. At first glance, they couldn't tell what it was.

“I don't know either!”

Daoist bi shook his head and smiled bitterly. “Even I don't know what these things are for!”

After a pause, he said, “I'm a person who likes to pick up scraps and shop for things. I've visited countless markets and participated in countless trade fairs in the past. I've bought piles and piles of treasures.”

“There are quite a few treasures among them. I've managed to pick up some of them, but many of them are also trash. I've thrown away quite a few of them. As for these, I'm not sure if they're trash or treasures.”

“I'll take all of these out and let you see. Maybe there really is a treasure inside, and it's fated with you! This way, you won't have to waste it in my hands!”

“Hurry up and take a look. If you see anything you like, exchange it!”

Daoist bi picked up the items one by one and showed them to everyone.

“Tsk!”

There was a burst of boos.

Old monster bi had more than 7000 HP. In terms of knowledge, he was no less knowledgeable than any of the fellow Daoists present. If even he could not figure out the use of this item, it must be a waste!

Taking out such a pile of trash, but asking them to exchange for treasures, wasn't this a lie!

"Old monster bi, you're such a scammer!"

"If you want to exchange for treasures, at least bring something real. It's not okay to use a bunch of trash to cheat!"

The cultivators looked at the junk, shook their heads, and shouted at Daoist bi.

"Who said you're trash! There might really be a treasure!"

Daoist Bi's face turned red as he retorted.

"Hey! I've watched it a few times, but there's nothing!"

The boos from below grew louder.

Tang Hao glanced at the items and shook his head with a smile.

He didn't see anything, so he was afraid that they were really a pile of trash.

"This old monster is quite funny!" Tang Hao chuckled when he saw the old man's face turn red as he argued with the other cultivators.

He was about to look away when he suddenly felt a sound coming from his ring.

"What's going on?"

Tang Hao was confused.

There were no living things in the ring, so why would there be any movement?

Immediately, he sank his mind into the ring. When he found the source of the sound, he was stunned.

In the corner of the space inside the ring, there was a knife. It was an ugly pig slaughtering knife.

The sound had come from this saber.

Ding! Ding!

The blade would shake slightly every now and then.

"This blade ... How could it be?"

Tang Hao had obtained the knife a long time ago at an auction when he had just arrived in the wilderness. It had been so many years, but no matter how he fiddled with it, the knife had not reacted at all.

The only thing he noticed was that the blade was very sharp.

Apart from this characteristic, it was a useless blade.

But now, the saber was reacting!

“That’s right. It must be the things that belonged to old monster bi. There must be something related to this saber. If I can get my hands on it, I might be able to solve the mystery of this saber!” Tang Hao was excited.

He immediately stepped out and squinted his eyes, carefully looking at the pile of junk.

“Is it this piece of Jade? It didn’t look like it! This one? It didn’t look like ... A scroll? It’s unlikely!”

Tang Hao looked around, but he had no clue.

He couldn’t tell which item was related to the pig slaughtering knife.

“Forget it. Since I can’t tell, I’ll just take them all!” Tang Hao was too lazy to guess. All he had to do was take them all down, then take out the butcher knife and test them one by one.

However, he was not in a hurry to make a move. Instead, he waited.

During this period, no one made a move. Daoist bi was a little disappointed. After a while, he shook his head and was about to take the items and leave the stage.

“Wait a moment!”

Tang Hao finally made his move.

“Fellow Daoist bi, I’m also quite interested in these things. Since none of you want them, why don’t you give them to me? I’ll give you a few Emperor artifacts in exchange for these things!” Tang Hao said.

The xiuzhe in the surroundings all looked over.

“Using an Emperor artifact to exchange for a pile of trash? You’re so silly!”

“What’s there to change? I’ve already studied it several times. There’s really nothing mysterious about it!”

All the cultivators stared at Tang Hao as if he was an idiot.

They felt that this newbie was really stupid. He had just done a stupid thing and now he was doing it again. Using an Emperor artifact to exchange for a pile of trash. He was really stupid.

“An Emperor artifact? Alright!”

Daoist bi said delightedly, “Daoist friend, I’ll leave these treasures to you!”

“Three should be enough!”

Tang Hao took out three Emperor weapons and gave them to senior Taiyuan.

“Enough! Enough! I’ll have to trouble senior Taiyuan!” Daoist bi collected the junk and put it into a heaven and earth bag, then handed it to Taiyuan Daoist.

“By the way, Daoist Wu Tian, right? You have to study it carefully. If you find anything in the future, remember to tell me!”

“Tang Hao!” Daoist bi shouted at Tang Hao before he left the stage.

“If you can’t even find it, how can he do it?”

The cultivators laughed.

“I will! I will!”

“Yes,” Tang Hao replied and took the heaven and earth bag from Taiyuan senior.

Although he was extremely excited inside, he still maintained a calm expression on the surface. He kept his heaven and earth bag, sat down, and looked at the stage as if nothing had happened.

If the bottle of blood essence he had just obtained was a small gain, then this time, it was a huge gain and an unexpected surprise.

He believed that as long as he could figure out the secret of the pig slaughtering knife, he would be able to reap great rewards.

The xiuzhe on the stage continued to pass by, and soon, it was his turn.

He had already made his preparations. He took out some tribulation artifacts, pills, and casually exchanged them for a lot of plants.

At this time, there were not many people left. There were about twenty people.

About an hour later, the last person had passed.

“Everyone, this year’s trading Convention has come to an end. However, the exchange is not over yet. If you are willing, you can stay on my Longyuan planet for a few more days to talk about Dao and catch up.”

“Of course, those who want to leave can leave now. We’ll meet again in 500 years.”

Tai Yuan Taoist stepped onto the stage and scanned the crowd.

“Senior Tai Yuan, we’ll meet again!”

At that moment, some cultivators stood up and bowed to Tai Yuan Taoist. Then they turned into divine light and rushed into the sky.
