

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2369

“Two masters, how is it?”

Daoist nanshou went up to him and said anxiously.

Master Luo laughed, “don’t worry, it’s already been cracked!” Once this formation is broken, the rest will be simple.”

“That’s good!”

Daoist nanshou finally heaved a sigh of relief.

“This array ... It’s not simple!” Master Luo sighed and sighed.

In order to crack this formation, he had used everything he had learned and spent a great deal of effort to crack it. It was no exaggeration to say that this was the most difficult maze formation he had ever encountered in his life.

“Yup! This formation is not ordinary, it must have a great history!”

Another master sighed, “furthermore, this is not even a complete array. In order to expand the array’s range to cover the entire planet, that demon must have changed the structure of the array. That’s why we were able to crack it in just three days.”

“If it’s a complete formation, I’m afraid it’ll take several months!”

As he spoke, the master revealed an expression of surprise.

“It’s that powerful?”

The old monsters on the ship were shocked when they heard this.

Even with the level of the two masters, they still needed to spend several months to crack it. What kind of formation was this?

“I think this is the legendary Immortal Binding array!”

Master Luo sighed.

“Immortal-binding array?”

The old monsters were shocked.

“Daoist nanshou, please wait a moment. We will be able to break the rest of the formation very quickly!”

The two masters returned to the ship and rested for a moment. Then they got up and continued to break the array.

In less than an hour, the remaining few great formations were all broken.

“That’s great! Many thanks to the two masters!”

Daoist nanshou was ecstatic.

“You’re welcome, fellow Daoist. You can go now. We’ll make some preparations and set up the array later!”

The two masters returned to the ship.

Daoist nanshou was already impatient. He immediately rushed towards the stars below. When he reached the sky above the stars, he was stunned and looked shocked and confused.

“This immortal Qi ... How is this possible?”

He discovered that the star had changed greatly. The immortal Qi in his original Star was only at an Ordinary Level, but the immortal Qi in this star was extremely rich, dozens of times richer than before he left.

This ... What was going on?

Could it be that the kid did something to the star?

But what could make the immortal Qi of a star increase so many times?

He took a closer look and his expression changed again. This star was actually revolving and continuously extracting immortal Qi from the void at an extremely high efficiency.

In the past, when he fused with the stars, the speed at which he extracted the immortal Qi was very slow, not even comparable to a stream. But now, it was clearly a Big River, and the immortal Qi was gushing out of the void and flowing into the stars.

It was no wonder that the immortal Qi on this star had become so dense.

“The stars are moving, which means there’s someone up there ... It’s definitely not that kid. And how can the speed of absorbing celestial energy be so fast? it’s incredible!”

Daoist nanshou stopped in the sky above the star, his face full of confusion.

“This star ... Something’s wrong!”

“Heavens! This immortal Qi ...”

At this moment, the cultivators on the ship also realized that something was wrong and exclaimed.

Even the two grandmasters were shocked. They stood up and looked at the stars, then revealed shocked expressions.

“I’ve never seen a planet that can absorb celestial Qi so quickly! Could it be that ... That demon has set up some kind of formation on the star?” An old monster exclaimed.

That demon was powerful in the Dao of formations, so he naturally thought of the Dao of formations.

“Impossible! There’s no formation in this world that can change the speed and efficiency of the celestial Qi absorption. It’s only related to the size of the star, and the size of the star is determined by the inner core, the growing soil. The bigger the growing soil, the bigger the star it bears, and the faster it can absorb the celestial Qi.”

Daoist Luo shook his head.

“Then ... What’s going on?” The old monster said.

“I’m not sure!”

Daoist Luo shook his head again and said helplessly.

The situation in front of him was something he had never seen before, so how could he know?

“There’s someone up there!” Daoist nanshou raised his head and looked at the warship in the sky. “I don’t know who this person is, but he must be related to that little devil. I also know what that little devil did to change this star.”

Hearing this, the eyes of everyone on the ship lit up with fanatical greed.

As long as they could capture the person on this star, they would be able to find out the secret to changing the star. Once they grasped this method, they would also be able to change their own star and greatly increase their cultivation speed.

“Hurry up! Let’s go to the core together, don’t let that person wake up!”

Daoist nanshou shouted.

Then, he took the lead and rushed toward the stars below.

“Hurry up!”

All the cultivators on the ship were anxious. They rushed down at their fastest speed and rushed to the ground below.

When they landed on the ground and were about to burrow into the planet’s core, the ground suddenly exploded with a bang, and a brilliant golden light rushed out.

“That’s ...”

They focused their eyes and were stunned.

It was a man wearing battle armor and holding a golden spear in his hand. His entire body was blooming with a dazzling golden light.

“It’s that kid’s clone! It’s a Heaven Earth origin core!”

Daoist nanshou was stunned for a moment before he cried out in alarm.

This person looked exactly like the little demon, but his entire body was golden. It was the famous heaven and earth origin embryo.

“It’s actually a Heaven Earth origin core!”

“The heaven and earth origin core is the first of the three great origin cores. It’s extremely magical. It must be him who changed the entire star after he fused with the star core!”

The old monsters quickly understood.

Then, their eyes turned red. The heaven and earth origin embryo was a priceless treasure.

“Hahaha! What a good opportunity! That brat actually left his origin core clone here. This is a perfect opportunity for us!”

“Hurry up! Seal the star and take this origin core!”

They shouted a few times, somewhat happy.

At that moment, some old monsters shot out beams of divine light and set up a great formation to seal the heaven and earth.

“Hmph!”

The origin core avatar glanced at them and sneered. “You?”

“Woof! If your real body came, I would be a bit afraid, but you’re just a clone, I can’t even deal with you!”

The old monster from the cursed sky said in disdain.

He remembered that this clone’s cultivation was not high either. It seemed to have just a thousand HP before, so it would not be much higher now.

“Is that so?”

The origin core avatar laughed mockingly. His body moved and he turned into a ray of golden light, blasting toward the old monster of the divine curse sky.

The old monster of the divine curse sky was not afraid. He took out his five-flame divine curse spear and faced the attack.

Clang!

The sound of metal clashing rang out.

Then, there was a muffled groan. Under the shocked gazes of the old monsters, the old monster from the God of curse heaven was sent flying backward. He only managed to regain his balance after retreating a few feet.

His opponent, the origin core clone, had only retreated twenty feet.

In this exchange, the old monster of the God of curse sky was actually at a disadvantage!
