

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2374

“Hahaha! I’ve finally come out alive!”

Somewhere in the void, among the ruins of a star, a figure crawled out from the ground. He had unkempt hair and a dirty face, and he looked very miserable.

The moment he came out, he laughed excitedly.

He had been trapped underground for half a year and had encountered countless dangers. He had almost died several times, but fortunately, he had been lucky enough to escape.

“I, Liu heihu, am lucky! Hahaha! He didn’t even die from this! As the saying goes, one must have good fortune after surviving a great disaster! I, Liu heihu, am going to be rich!”

Liu heihu laughed in joy.

Although he had encountered unimaginable danger on this trip, he had also gained a lot.

Below them was a real immortal’s grave, where a true immortal was buried.

He had also successfully obtained the inheritance of this true immortal and a very powerful treasure.

“From now on, that Tang guy is nothing! I, the black Tiger, will be the one to call the shots in Pangu world!”

Liu heihu put his hands on his waist and showed off.

He could already see himself punching venerable sovereigns and kicking that bastard surnamed Tang.

“Eh? What is this aura?”

At this time, he sensed a strange aura spreading from the void in the distance and then passing by him.

“There’s something strange!”

He muttered.

“Forget it, let’s go back first and find that old man. He’s an old fogey, he’ll definitely know!” Then, he mumbled, “that old man must be very surprised to see my current cultivation. I’m afraid his eyes are going to pop out! Hahaha! This feeling is too good!”

He leaped up, turned into a divine light, and quickly left.

Eight desolates, somewhere.

In a small world.

When the aura penetrated the regional wall and entered, many monks in the realm raised their heads and revealed shocked expressions.

In the temple, a Saint Buddha stood up and flew into the air.

“Senior brother, are we going to the black and yellow tower this time?” A moment later, several figures came from all over the temple. They were all seven tribulations Saint Buddhas.

The Saint Buddha lowered his head and looked at the center of this world. “First, report to The Guardian Buddha and let him make a decision!”

The rest of the Saint Buddhas also looked in that direction, their eyes showing respect.

The great freedom Buddha, The Guardian of the dipamkara temple from tens of thousands of years ago, was sleeping there!

During the battle between the ancient Celestials and Buddhas, it was Mahesvara Buddha who protected them and allowed them to escape, leaving a trace of incense for Buddhism.

“The Guardian Buddha woke up once a few months ago. I’ll report to him later and let him make a decision!” The Saint Buddha said.

The rest of the sacred Buddhas looked a little nervous.

If The Guardian Buddha decided to go, it would mean that Buddhism was about to appear in the world. He would no longer be like before, hiding and living with his tail between his legs.

If they didn’t go, it would mean that they would have to continue lying low.

“Senior brother, how’s the Lord Guardian Buddha ... Recovering?” A Saint Buddha asked in a low voice.

“I’ve recovered quite a bit. However, as you all know, the Lord Guardian Buddha was severely injured in that battle. It’s impossible for him to recover to his peak for the time being!” The Saint Buddha said.

The group of sacred Buddhas was a little disappointed.

If The Guardian Buddha was able to recover his ancient divine power, then Pangu and the others would be able to do whatever they wanted. This was because The Guardian Buddha was at the ninth tribulation level in the ancient times.

“However, there are already more than eight tribulations, so I won’t be afraid of those Dao Masters!” The sacred Buddha said.

“That’s great!”

The group of Saint Buddhas looked overjoyed.

The reason why they had gone into hiding was because they were afraid of attracting the pursuit of these Dao Masters. However, now that The Guardian Buddha had recovered quite a bit and was no longer afraid of these Dao Masters, they had a chance to go out.

“I hope the Lord Guardian Buddha will agree. I can’t wait any longer! After we get out, I’ll go find that little bastard, kill him, and take back the Joss Flame Body!”

One of the Saint Buddhas said through gritted teeth.

This man was none other than Saint Buddha bujie.

Back then, he was ordered to go out and capture that monster surnamed Tang in order to take back the moonlight Treasure King Kasaya, the most precious treasure of Buddhism. However, he did not expect that he would not be able to get it and instead be tricked by that kid.

Furthermore, the kid had infiltrated the dipamkara temple and snatched away the body of incense that the temple had spent thousands of years to condense.

The avatar should have become the second Guardian Buddha of the dipamkara temple.

He had never forgotten this grudge.

“Right! That brat, we must kill him and take back his Joss Flame Body!”

The group of sacred Buddhas followed suit, their faces full of hatred.

It was a great humiliation for them to have someone sneak in and steal their incense bodies.

The leading Saint Buddha nodded and said, “I’ll go and report first, you guys wait!” With that, he flew to the center of this world and entered a tower.

A moment later, he came out with a face full of joy. “The Lord Guardian Buddha has agreed. In a few days, when the black and yellow tower is truly born, we will set off.”

“That’s great!”

The group of sacred Buddhas cheered.

After hiding for so many years, they could finally go out in the open.

“Hmph! You little brat, just you wait! Watch how I’m going to kill you!” The monk bujie coldly laughed.

That kid was a monster. He would definitely go to the black and yellow tower this time. He didn’t need to go out of his way to look for him. As long as he went to the black and yellow tower, he would be able to meet that kid.

Of course, Tang Hao was still unaware of what was happening in Pangu at the moment. He was still following the Compass's instructions, speeding through the void in search of the stars.

"Eh? The black Yellow tower? What's that?"

Not long after, he received the news from his clone and learned about the black Yellow tower.

"Good fellow! Once every two thousand years, that's really long!"

Tang Hao had a better understanding of the black and yellow tower after reading the message.

The xuanhuang tower had a long history. It was said that it had been there since Pangu created it. It appeared once every 2000 years. There were many treasures in it. Even eight-tribulation Supreme emperors could find opportunities in it.

Every time the black and yellow tower appeared, it would set off a huge storm that would sweep across the entire Pangu continent.

"So powerful! This time, I'm afraid that all the venerable sovereigns will show up. Those seventh tribulation star transformation realm old monsters should also be able to sense this dark and yellow Qi."

"I can't miss such a good place, so I naturally have to go and explore!"

Tang Hao said happily.

How could he not go to such a treasure land?

Even though there was a risk, as the few venerable sovereigns who had a grudge against him would go, such as the great void sect master and the Dao devil ancient Emperor, he was not too afraid now. With the creation divine boat in his hands, he had the confidence to fight against the venerable sovereigns.

"There should still be a few days before it will truly appear. If the entrance opens, it will be at least half a month later. I still have time. Once I find the last star, I will rush back."

Tang Hao quickly came up with a plan.

He continued to search for stars.
