

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2375

“The black and yellow tower is about to come into being!”

“This black and yellow tower only appears once every two thousand years. There are mountains of treasures and opportunities everywhere. You can enter as long as you reach the Saint realm!”

“The nine Heavens in the black and yellow tower! It means that there are nine levels inside, and the world on each level is different. The opportunities you can obtain are also different, and the higher you go, the better it is.”

In just a few days, the news that the black and yellow tower was going to appear spread all over the world, setting off a wave of excitement.

All the xiuzhe were in high spirits.

It had been a long time since such a treasure land had appeared in Pangu.

The appearance of the divine tomb had caused a sensation. However, the level of the divine tomb was too high for ordinary saints to enter. Only advanced Saints could enter.

However, the xuanhuang tower was different. It was an ancient trial ground. As long as one was in the Saint realm, they could enter and have the chance to find opportunities inside.

For most cultivators, this was the best place.

They went around asking for information about the black and yellow tower and began to make preparations. Once the black and yellow tower appeared, they would rush over.

All the ancient cities and major sects were bustling with activity.

Just like that, another two days passed, and news came from the Dragon wilderness that a small Pagoda had appeared. It was the black and yellow Pagoda.

This news spread like lightning across the entire region.

“The black and yellow tower has appeared. To the desolate Dragon!”

The eight desolations instantly boiled over.

The cultivators of the various desolates moved together and charged towards the desolate Dragon. In an instant, the sky of the eight desolates was filled with flowing light. There were more than billions.

These xiuzhe hurried to the place where the small Pagoda had appeared, set up camp, and waited.

Soon, there were tens of millions of cultivators here, and the number was still increasing. The sky around them was dark, and figures kept flying over and landing here.

Pangu world was rich in immortal Qi, so it was a lot easier to reach the Saint realm. Even in some remote and cold places, there were many Saint realm cultivators. In those clans and big sects, the Saint realm was even easier, as it was the basic cultivation.

Therefore, there were many cultivators above the Saint realm in Pangu world.

The trial ground that only appeared once every two thousand years had attracted all of them.

No one was willing to miss such an opportunity!

Not long after, on this vast land, there were many markets and even cities that rose up from the ground. Shops opened here, selling all kinds of materials.

Pills, tribulation weapons, talismans, these were the ones that sold the most.

The streets and alleys were filled with shouts and the sound of peddling. It was extremely lively.

“I heard that in the thirty-three heavens, many old fogeys returned. They were planet form Saints. Many of them had 6000 to 7000 HP, and there were even some super old fogeys with more than 9000 HP! These people are definitely here for the black and yellow tower!”

“Also! I heard that those Dao Masters have also come out of seclusion, and some of them have returned. That Dao master of the great void heaven has returned a few days ago!”

In the market, in the wine shops of the city, the xiuzhe were discussing.

“What? The great void sect master had returned? Hey! That’s going to be lively!”

Hearing about the great void sect master, the xiuzhe were all interested.

The matters of the great void heaven could always arouse the interest of the people.

It was not just because the great void heaven was one of the 33 heavens, but also because of The Grudge between the great void heaven and divine Lord Tang.

Ever since young master Taixu had challenged divine Lord Tang to a battle on the ancient deity plateau, the enmity between the two sides had continued to this day.

The great void heaven was really unlucky. From then on, things had not been going their way. Every time they fought with divine Lord Tang, they ended up in failure.

Previously, the great void heaven, the mantra, and the two heavens of the South Pole had attacked the gate of fortune together with the hundred races. They had created a huge commotion and everyone had thought that the great void heaven would win. However, they had still failed and even managed to obtain divine Lord Tang’s 500 drops of immortal blood.

The repeated failures had made the world sympathize with them.

“Do you guys think that the great void sect master will attack divine Lord Tang when he returns?”

Someone said.

This was what everyone was most concerned about.

“Definitely. With divine Lord Tang’s current cultivation level, even those star realm old monsters who have returned from the great void heaven can’t deal with him. They can only ask the Dao master to do it!”

“However, even if the Dao master were to make a move, he might not be able to kill divine Lord Tang! After all, things are different now. With divine Lord Tang’s cultivation base and the creation divine boat, we have the confidence to fight against the eighth tribulation.”

The cultivators discussed with mixed emotions.

If the great void sect master had returned a few years ago, he would have had a chance to kill divine Lord Tang. However, divine Lord Tang was no longer the same as before. He was no longer the young divine Lord he was before. Instead, he was now a giant figure who could challenge an 8th tribulation divine Lord.

Not to mention, divine Lord Tang also had some background. Not to mention the blood Emperor and the mysterious silver God spirit, even the Lingbao path master and the others owed divine Lord Tang a favor in the divine tomb. They would help him when necessary.

It would be too difficult for the great void sect master to kill him!

“Speaking of which, divine Lord Tang is quite powerful! It’s only been a few years, and he’s already able to fight against the eighth tribulation. This speed is too terrifying!”

“Exactly! I won’t submit to anyone in my life except him!”

Following that, they began to flatter and praise divine Lord Tang.

Such a situation could be seen all over the taverns.

In Pangu’s current state, divine Lord Tang was the most famous and worshipped person.

Among the young people, this person’s influence was greater and unparalleled.

After discussing divine Lord Tang, they would also talk about other figures of the younger generation, such as young master Li of the thirty-three heavens, the cursed young master, and some Holy Sons of the eight desolates, such as the Jiang clan and the Ji clan.

When these people were mentioned, no one had any feelings.

If these people were in the past, they would have been influential figures, monstrous geniuses, and the focus of people’s discussions.

But now, with the presence of the monstrous divine Lord Tang, these people seemed ordinary and did not attract much attention.

As time passed, there were more and more people here, and cities and markets were built in all directions.

Those who arrived first were mostly itinerant cultivators and those from small forces. After a few days, some clans and some large sects also began to arrive.

Every time a large ship or giant bird flew over, it would attract the attention of the xiuzhe in the surroundings.

“Look! That’s the Ji clan!”

“The Cangjie clan actually came too!”

Among these forces, the world found many big clans, and many ancient clans that usually hid from the world and rarely showed themselves, such as the Cangjie clan.

This clan kept a low profile and very few of their clansmen were out in the world. The most recent news related to the Cangjie clan could be traced back to a few decades ago. At that time, divine Lord Tang had just arrived at Pangu and had just begun to show his abilities.

At that time, the various clans had joined forces to go to Cangjie ancient city and asked the experts of the Cangjie clan to take action and occupy divine Lord Tang’s position. Since then, there had been no news of the Cangjie clan.

Even such a hidden clan could not help but show up. It was enough to show how great the attraction of the xuanhuang tower was.
