

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2386

“The black and yellow tower has opened!”

In all directions, in all the cities and cave abodes, countless cultivators raised their heads and looked at the hundred thousand feet tall black and yellow tower in the sky.

They soared into the sky, all of them revealing excited expressions.

After waiting for so many days, it finally opened!

Tang Hao sensed the commotion outside, so he left the cave abode and went to the bow of the ship.

Looking up, the sky was already filled with dense spiritual light, and there were people everywhere. They rushed towards the tower in groups, and at this moment, the tower’s door had already opened, and they fought to be the first to rush in.

“We should also go in!”

Said Zao Huazi.

“Alright!” Tang Hao nodded. He reduced the size of the divine boat and flew toward the black and yellow tower.

The door of the tower was wide open, and there were void ripples in the door. Those who rushed in were all submerged in the ripples.

The divine boat was also swallowed by the ripples.

In the next moment, they appeared in a vast world.

“What a huge space!” Tang Hao scanned his surroundings and was shocked. The space was almost as big as a middle world.

The people who had entered before them had all scattered in all directions. The lower-level Saints had already started to look for opportunities, while the higher-level Saints were looking for the entrance to the next level.

The xuanhuang tower had nine floors, which corresponded to the nine tribulations of the sage realm. The first floor corresponded to the first tribulation.

First tribulation saints and many second tribulation saints would also stay on this level to look for opportunities.

“Let the disciples leave!”

Tang Hao said to Zao Huazi.

“Yes,” Zao huaizi replied. He then summoned the first tribulation disciples and sent them off the divine boat.

“I hope they can gain something!”

Tang Hao stood at the bow of the ship and watched as they scattered in all directions and blended into the world.

The number of people on this floor was the most, and the situation was the most dangerous and complicated. There would definitely be many disciples who died here.

Killing people for treasures and fighting for opportunities, people would always die. This was unavoidable.

The disciples who could survive and gain something would definitely have a breakthrough in their strength. They might even obtain some amazing opportunities to change their qualifications and become monstrous.

“It seems like they haven’t found the entrance to the next level!”

Tang Hao looked around. Seeing that no one had found the entrance yet, he focused his attention on this Jie.

In this world, the terrain was extremely complex. There were many extreme landforms, such as the place where the five elements gathered, the place where yin and yang were cut off. Countless rare spiritual herbs were born in these places.

In addition, there were many ferocious beasts in this world, and there was no lack of primitive bloodlines. They were very powerful, and many saints had died in the mouths of these ferocious beasts while hunting them.

Tang Hao also discovered some secrets from these beasts.

Basically, each beast had a necklace on its neck and a box hanging from it. These boxes contained all kinds of treasures, including tribulation weapons, cultivation technique Jade slips, and even many ancient pills.

Tang Hao saw a first tribulation Saint kill a Blood Python. He found an ancient pill in the box and swallowed it. His cultivation broke through instantly, reaching the perfected first tribulation. His spirit also improved greatly.

As long as he left the tower, he would be able to pass the Tribulation and advance to the second tribulation.

In addition to the spiritual herbs everywhere and the boxes on the fierce beasts, there were many training places in this world.

For example, in a Valley not far away, there was a small path. It was a path to train one's heart. There were all kinds of temptations and disturbances on the path. Only those with strong will and a stable Dao heart could pass through.

After passing through, one would be able to obtain the treasure at the other end of the path.

Many sects and clans had this kind of training ground. However, this one was more powerful and had better treasures.

"There are quite a few talents!"

Tang Hao watched for a while. A few people passed, and they all received a lot of good stuff.

"Of course!" Zao Huazi smiled. "This time, it can be said that all the ancient clans and sects in the eight desolates, as well as the Saint realm cultivators of the 33 heavens, have come. There are quite a number of monstrous talents!"

"Eh? There's a treasure chest?"

Tang Hao looked around and found something new.

There were many hidden places in this world, as well as some lairs of fierce beasts. Treasure boxes could be seen, especially those hidden in the lairs of fierce beasts. They were particularly eye-catching, and each of them was dazzling with immortal radiance. It was obvious that there were good things inside.

The color of the treasure chests would be different according to the level of danger. There were black iron, silver ... And finally, there were dark gold.

Tang Hao's expression turned strange.

This feeling was the same as when he first stepped into the great void realm. It was especially strange.

This Pagoda couldn't have been refined by the great void God, right?

Tang Hao guessed.

He felt that there was an 80% chance. Even if it was not the pagoda that was made by the great God Taixu, these designs were definitely related to him.

"This Pagoda ... Is really interesting!"

Tang Hao grinned.

He suddenly felt that the pagoda had become fun.
