

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2390

On the deck of the divine boat, Tang Hao opened his eyes.

He circulated the immortal blood in his body and felt his current cultivation level. He couldn't help but reveal a satisfied expression.

After reaching the ten thousand Blood Realm, he had more confidence to go to the eighth heaven.

"The next step is Nirvana. Once you succeed in Nirvana, you can transform into an immortal body and transcend the Tribulation." "It's not a problem for me. I've already prepared a large number of wood element treasures. The most important step is Nirvana."

Nirvana transformation required a long time.

However, he just lacked time.

"Al! It would be great if we had a Nirvana pill!" Tang Hao sighed.

The Nirvana elixir was a Supreme-grade divine elixir that could greatly shorten the time of Nirvana. It could originally take more than ten years, but with this elixir, the time could be shortened by half.

However, this elixir was too precious. It required a lot of materials, and all of them were rare. Although he knew the elixir recipe, he couldn't gather all of them in a short time.

"Forget it. Let's talk about this after we get out. I'll refine the rest into tonic Pills first."

Tang Hao shook his head and got rid of that thought. He took out the rest of the beasts' corpses and prepared to continue making pills.

This time, he had collected a large number of ferocious beasts, more than half of which had primordial bloodlines. He had only used a small portion of them, and there were still many left. These needed to be refined into great Supplement Pills to be able to display their greatest effects.

He had already reached ten thousand blood, so he didn't need the supplement pill anymore. His two avatars had their own ways of improving, so he could give the rest of the pills to Zao Huazi and the three sky elders.

Tang Hao was going to raise the four of them to thousand blood first and save the rest for the people in the ancestral land. He would use them when they advanced to the seventh tribulation.

Just as he lit the fire and was about to start refining, his ears suddenly twitched. He heard a commotion in the distance, as if someone was shouting the name of the Nirvana pill.

"No way? What a coincidence!"

Tang Hao was stunned.

He was just thinking about the Nirvana elixir and it appeared?

He stopped what he was doing and listened carefully. There was indeed someone shouting, "hand over the Nirvana pills!"

He looked over again and saw that it was a mess. More than a dozen forces were fighting for a golden box. Many Hua Xing old monsters had joined the battle. Many divine lights were also coming from all directions for the box.

Tang Hao's expression turned strange when he read the message.

It seemed that it was indeed the Nirvana elixir. Only such a treasure would cause the group of divine transformation realm old monsters to go crazy.

"It seems like the heavens are really good to me!"

He mumbled to himself and jumped up. He tore open the void and flew in that direction.

He had to get his hands on this Nirvana pill!

"Hahaha! This pill is mine!"

In order to fight for the Nirvana elixir, many old monsters fought fiercely. The box kept changing hands, and finally, it fell into the hands of an old monster from the God curse heaven.

He had 9000 blood and was also a super old antique.

After snatching the box, he wanted to escape.

He had gained a lot this time, and he would reach ten thousand blood very soon. At that time, he could consume this Nirvana elixir and successfully achieve Nirvana.

However, at this moment, the void in front of him suddenly split open, and a figure in black divine armor stepped out and threw a punch.

"You ... It's you ..."

The old monster of divine incantation was stunned for a moment. Then, his expression changed drastically and he cried out in horror.

The person who had come was none other than that little demon!

"You ... Have ten thousand HP?"

The next moment, he discovered something even more shocking. The aura on this kid's body was clearly already complete!

Tang Hao did not say a word. He threw a punch at the old man and sent him flying. Then, he raised his hand and took the box.

“You think you’re worthy of this pill?” He held the box and sneered.

If this pill had fallen into the hands of another orthodoxy, he would have been more polite. However, this was the God curse heaven, and he wanted to beat it to death.

At this moment, all of the Hua Xing old monsters stopped. Many of them laughed bitterly.

Once this person made a move, how could they still have a share!

“Congratulations, fellow cultivator Tang!”

They all cupped their hands and congratulated him very politely.

“Hmph!”

The people from the cursed sky, the great void sect, and the two heavens of the South Pole were all in a daze.

“I didn’t expect him to complete it so quickly. Now that he has obtained another Nirvana elixir, I’m afraid that in three to five years, he will be at the eighth tribulation of Dao vindication.”

They were even more anxious.

Once this kid advances to the eighth tribulation, they will no longer be able to kill him.

“It’s fine. There are still three to five years left. I don’t believe that he can live until then!” “Hmph!” The cursed young master snorted coldly and said, “moreover, with this guy’s guts, how could he not go to the eighth level? once he goes up, he will only die.”

“Let’s go. Don’t worry about him. He won’t be able to walk out of this black and yellow tower!”

After he finished speaking, he turned and left.

The people from the three days nodded and followed.

Tang Hao accepted the pill. He was in a great mood.

With this pill, he could save at least five to six years.

“I’ve saved five to six years, but there are still five to six years left. It’s still too long. If I could get another one, how great would that be!” Tang Hao mumbled.

He laughed after he finished speaking.

It was not easy to obtain a divine item like the Nirvana pill, so how could there be a second one?

However, at this moment, he suddenly heard another commotion from afar. There was also a treasure light soaring into the sky, and he could faintly hear someone shouting the name of the Nirvana pill.

“F * ck! It can’t be!”

Tang Hao was stunned when he heard that.

This was too much of a coincidence, and it was a little too outrageous.

“Who cares if it’s a coincidence or not, let’s snatch it first!”

The next moment, Tang Hao woke up from his daze. He urged ye Xi to tear open the void and grab the divine pill in the light.

The cursed young master and the others hadn’t realized what was going on yet. By the time they realized what was going on and were about to snatch the pill, Tang Hao had already gotten the divine pill.

“Motherf * cker!”

“F * ck!” The cursed young master cursed, and his face turned ashen.

Two Nirvana pills!

This was great. In less than three to five years, at most two to three years, this guy would be able to achieve Nirvana.
