

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2394

When he saw the Vermillion Bird path master's gaze land on his palm, Tang Hao put the pill away.

Since there were two venerable sovereigns here to help, he didn't need to use this treasure.

This was his strongest trump card at the moment, and it could only be used once. It was a one-time use treasure, so it was naturally best to keep it.

"Greetings, senior Vermillion Bird!"

"Dao master!" Tang Hao bowed and greeted the Vermillion Bird path master.

He had seen this Daoist master from afar before he entered the black and yellow tower.

The Vermillion Bird path master nodded at him and revealed a friendly smile.

"Greetings, senior blood!"

Then, Tang Hao bowed and cupped his hands at The Blood King.

"Ah! What's there to be polite about between us!" The Blood King waved his hand and smiled.

"If the two seniors don't mind, please board the ship!" Tang Hao said to the two of them.

"That's a good idea!"

The Vermillion Bird path master and The Blood King were stunned for a moment before they laughed out loud and boarded the ship.

The divine boat of fortune was very magical. It could gather the power of the cultivators on the ship. The more people on the ship, the stronger the divine boat would be. If the two venerable sovereigns got on the ship and fired a shot, how strong would it be?

They didn't dare to imagine it, but they were looking forward to it.

The great void sect master and the others had clearly thought of this as well, and their expressions turned ugly.

The divine boat was already as powerful as a venerable sovereign. With the combined power of the Vermillion Bird path master and old demon Xue, it was equivalent to the power of three venerable sovereigns combined. None of them could withstand such an attack.

"Senior golden scales, if you don't mind, you can also come up. The more people there are, the more power there is!"

Tang Hao shouted at the top of his lungs as he looked into the distance.

Thearch golden scales and the others, who had been hiding in the void and waiting to watch, revealed themselves with slightly awkward expressions.

They had originally planned to observe first. If this kid couldn't hold on any longer, they wouldn't have to do anything. Even though they owed him a favor, they wouldn't risk their lives to fight with the great void sect master and the others for such a small favor.

However, with the appearance of the old demon blood and the old monster Vermilion Bird, the situation had changed drastically. In addition, the young man had personally called for them, so they had no choice but to come out.

"Hahaha! Since our little friend Tang has invited us, we can't refuse!"

Thearch golden scales, Thearch Xu Yuan, and the others laughed. They flashed and boarded the ship.

"Greetings, fellow Daoist Vermilion Bird, fellow Daoist Xue!"

As soon as they boarded the ship, they all greeted each other courteously and did their best to show courtesy.

"The few of you ... Do you really have to go against us?"

The great void sect master's face turned even gloomier.

"Al! Fellow Daoist great void, you are wrong. We are not deliberately targeting you. Little friend Tang and we are fated. He took the initiative to invite us to travel with him, so how can we not agree?"

"It is! The grudges between you guys have nothing to do with us! If you guys want to deal with little friend Tang, you can continue!"

The few old monsters were all sly and easily drew a clear line between them. They did not want to give the great void sect master and the others an excuse to find trouble in the future.

"How ... How are you guys!"

The great void sect master's face turned green with anger.

These old guys were already on the ship, yet they still said they didn't want to get involved in the grudges between them?

They didn't even need to do anything. As long as they stood on the ship, who could attack this divine boat?

"Hahaha! It was so lively here! My spirit treasure heaven is here to join in the fun!"

With a long laugh, the Lord of numinous treasure Dao also arrived and landed on the ship.

“Daoist great void, if you have any grudges, let’s talk about it outside! This is the black and yellow tower, a trial ground set up by the ancient true immortals. If you attack here and try to kill a genius of your generation, isn’t it disrespectful to these mighty beings?”

Numinous treasure path master looked at the great void path master and the others and shouted.

“Brat, you’re lucky!”

The great void sect master snorted in anger, flicked his sleeves, and turned to leave.

The South Pole path master and the divine incantation path master followed closely behind.

The devil Dao ancient Emperor and monarch Ling yang were the last to leave. They glared at him and left unwillingly.

“This kid’s life ... Is really F * cking tough!”

In the distance, a gray-robed figure was hiding in the void and approaching them. It was the old demon desolate evil.

He followed the group of venerable sovereigns into the eighth level. He had been wandering there for the past few days and had obtained some opportunities. At the same time, he was also looking for the variable.

He had noticed Tang Hao the moment he entered the room. He had been watching him from afar.

At first, he thought that this kid was going to die Here, so he was very excited. But he didn’t expect that in the end, he was overjoyed for nothing. This kid’s life was still so tough.

Previously, when he was chasing after the kid, two venerable sovereigns had jumped out. Now, when this group of people were chasing after the kid, one, two, three ... A total of nine venerable sovereigns had jumped out. This line-up ... Was simply a bit abnormal!

“I have to stay away from this kid!”

Looking at the formation on the ship, the old demon of desolation could not help but shiver before he disappeared into the void.

Tang Hao heaved a sigh of relief when he saw the great void sect master and the others leave.

He knew that this calamity was over.

After he got out, he would immediately find a place to undergo Nirvana and undergo tribulation. When he successfully advanced to the 8th tribulation, he would not be afraid of these 8th tribulation old monsters.

“Seniors, I see that this world is extremely dangerous. I’m afraid that we won’t be able to find any opportunities alone. Why don’t we join forces? with the power of the divine boat, I think it will be easier to find opportunities. What do you think?”

Then, Tang Hao turned around and looked at the venerable sovereigns on the ship.

“This ... This is a good idea!”

“I think it’s good!”

The group of venerable sovereigns pondered for a while and were moved.

On the eighth floor, there were many eighth tribulation primeval bloodlines that were extremely fierce. If they encountered them alone, they could only flee in defeat. They had been here for five or six days, but most of them had not gained anything.

With the help of this divine boat, they would undoubtedly have the power to fight against these ancient bloodlines.

They all nodded and agreed.
