

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2401

Boom! Boom! Boom!

In the sky, lightning flashed.

In the blink of an eye, the entire world darkened. Tens of thousands of silver lightning bolts danced wildly in the air and gradually gathered into a Lightning Vortex.

The color of the lightning was also changing. At first, it was silver, then it turned purple, and finally, it turned golden.

“What’s going on?”

Tang Hao held the treasure chest in his arms and looked up at the sky. He was confused.

The group of venerable sovereigns, who were fighting the ferocious beasts and attracting Tang Hao’s attention, also stopped and looked up at the sky, confused.

Such a shocking phenomenon was not ordinary!

“Who cares! It’s better to run first!”

Tang Hao turned around and glanced at the ten thousand Zhang tall Golden Lion. He could not help but grin as he hugged the treasure chest tightly.

This was an eight tribulation Golden Lion with a cultivation base of three apertures. He didn’t even need a slap, just a breath could hurt him.

If it were not for ye Cha, he would not have dared to take the risk of sneaking into such a monster’s lair.

“Let’s go!”

He shouted and urged ye Cha to tear open the void and leave.

The group of venerable sovereigns also came back to their senses and retreated in unison.

After a while, everyone gathered in a Valley far away and returned to the divine boat of creation.

“What’s going on?”

“Could it be that some great treasure is about to be born?”

No one cared about the treasure chest anymore. They all looked up at the sky, paying attention to the strange phenomenon between heaven and earth.

“I’ve never heard of such a phenomenon in the black and yellow tower ...” Numinous treasure path master said with a frown.

The Vermillion Bird path master also shook his head.

The two heavens had a long history, and there were records of the black and yellow tower in the sect's Scriptures. However, most of them were about the trials on each floor and the treasures that would appear. They had never heard of such a strange phenomenon in the tower.

"What's going on?"

At that moment, all the Dao Masters and venerable sovereigns on the eighth floor looked up at the sky with shock and confusion.

The great void sect master and the others, who were chasing Liu heihu, also stopped and paid attention to the phenomenon.

"This is ... Haha! Finally, it was here. This was the variable! It's the biggest opportunity in the black and yellow tower this time!"

On a divine mountain, a gray-robed old man stood on the peak of the mountain and looked up at the sky with a look of ecstasy.

He could already vaguely foresee what the opportunity this time would be!

If it was really that treasure, then his trip here was the right one. As long as he could obtain that treasure, he would have a chance to recover from his injuries and return to his peak. At that time, he would be the peerless and invincible primordial demon Emperor who could suppress the ancient Pangu!

"Such a peerless divine object must be mine!"

He looked up at the sky with a fiery gaze.

As his gray robes fluttered, a domineering and wild aura rose from his body.

He had already decided to grab this opportunity at all costs.

"This is ...?"

On the other side of the eighth floor, a white-robed old man stood in the void and looked at the sky with a bewildered expression.

"Why would I?"

He seemed to have guessed something, but he was still in disbelief.

"Damn old man, you're not loyal enough. I've been chased for so long, but you didn't do anything!"

Not far from him, the void cracked open, and a figure came out, cursing. It was Liu heihu.

“You didn’t die, did you?”

The old man didn’t look at him and said coldly.

“That’s because I’m lucky!” Liu heihu rolled his eyes.

“Right, what’s going on?” Then, he looked at the sky and asked.

“This is ... A peerless opportunity!”

The old man’s face was solemn as he spoke word by word.

Liu heihu was stunned. Then, his expression changed. He knew how high this old man’s standards were. He didn’t care about any supreme weapon. If even he said it was a rare opportunity, it must be an extremely powerful treasure.

“Could this be ...”

On the eighth floor, a voice of surprise rang out in the air. A powerful divine sense emerged from the distorted void and observed the phenomenon in the sky.

“I didn’t expect to encounter such a treasure for the first time after my return. It seems that the heavens didn’t give up Buddhism, and there is hope for the revival of Buddhism!”

He mumbled with a happy tone.

As time passed, the strange phenomenon in the sky became more and more intense. The entire sky was filled with lightning, and the dense lightning turned into a sea of golden lightning, rolling and surging.

In the middle of the sea of lightning, something seemed to be growing.

All the eyes in this world were focused on this place.

“It’s about to come out!”

Everyone held their breath, their expressions becoming nervous.

About half an hour later, a small crack appeared in the middle of the sea of lightning, and a ball of golden light fell down.

“What is this?”

Everyone looked at it and was stunned. The thing wrapped in the golden light was a small Pagoda, a small black and yellow Pagoda that was exactly the same as the black and yellow Pagoda!

Before anyone could figure it out, the small Pagoda shook slightly, and streaks of dark yellow light flew out from within.

These lights seemed to be alive. After they came out, they scattered in all directions.

“Hahaha! That’s right! I’m not wrong. This is the legendary Black Yellow ancient Qi!” On the peak of the divine mountain, the grey-robed Huang Xie demon laughed out loud. He was overjoyed.

After that, he revealed an expression of extreme shock.

“Nine! There were actually nine! Oh my God! How could there be so many? Hahaha! I only need one to recover. If I can get all of them, I’ll be able to surpass my peak state from ten thousand years ago!”

Demon Emperor Huang Xie laughed out loud.

“It’s the black Yellow ancient Qi, but why is there so much of it?”

In the void, there were also cries of shock.

“Nine wisps of Black Yellow ancient Qi ... This is incredible!”

The white-robed old man beside Liu Heihu was also shocked.

“What Black Yellow ancient Qi? can it be eaten?” Liu Heihu was surprised.

He had never heard of this thing before, but from the name, it should be very powerful and related to this black and yellow tower.

“It’s more than just powerful! This is a Supreme immortal treasure, a treasure that even true immortals would go crazy over!” The white-robed old man said.

Liu Heihu’s jaw dropped.

“This is ... Yellow ancient Qi! Hurry up! Hurry and snatch it!”

At this moment, on the divine fate boat, the spirit treasure path Lord was the first to recognize it. He did not have time to explain. With a loud cry, he soared into the sky.
