

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2402

It was said that when heaven and earth were first created, many connate Qis were born. There were primordial Qi, creation Qi, chaos Qi, yellow Qi, and so on. They were collectively called primordial Qi.

Every one of them had great magical powers and endless wondrous uses.

This primordial Qi had seeped into every corner of the world along with the creation of the world. It was difficult to find, so it was extremely rare.

“It seems that the name of the black and yellow tower came from this black and yellow energy.”

Tang Hao mumbled.

“Let’s go!”

On the ship, the Vermillion Bird path master, Thearch golden scales, and the others followed closely behind the spirit treasure path master. They flew out of the divine boat and pounced towards the xuanhuang Qi.

Tang Hao raised his eyes and scanned his surroundings. He furrowed his brows.

There were only nine wisps of xuanhuang Qi, but there were more than forty venerable sovereigns here. There was not enough to be distributed. Each wisp of xuanhuang Qi was being fought over by three or four venerable sovereigns. It was not easy for him to get it.

“I have the myriad golden pill, so there’s still a chance. However, there’s only one chance, so I have to be careful.”

Tang Hao muttered to himself as he observed the situation.

He was analyzing which side had fewer people and which side had the best chance.

“Get lost! This ancient Qi is mine!”

In the distance, several figures were fighting around a stream of ancient Qi. All of them were Dao Masters of the 33 heavens. They were in the middle of an intense battle when a figure rushed over from the side and threw a punch.

The punch was so fierce that it distorted the entire void and collapsed it.

“This is ...”

“Is it demonic Qi? How could it be a demon?”

The Dao Masters were all shocked.

How could there still be demon emperors in Pangu?

What was the origin of this person?

Before they could react, the punch had already arrived, forcing the three of them to retreat.

They were more and more shocked. This person was not only a demon, but his cultivation base was also shocking.

“It’s that old monster?”

Tang Hao, who was on the divine boat, was shocked.

He had recognized Mi Tian’s demonic Qi at a glance, but what surprised him was that this old monster had become so brave. Wasn’t he injured? Back when he was facing the great void sect’s sect master, The Blood King and his companion could not even defeat him. Now, he was actually able to force back three sect Masters with a single punch.

“I’m afraid he used some secret technique!”

Tang Hao guessed.

This old demon had lived for so long and had so many treasures on him. How could he not have some secret techniques that could temporarily stimulate his combat power? there must be a price for such secret techniques. However, in order to obtain a treasure like the Qi of heaven and earth, this old demon was willing to go all out.

“If the old monster gets the dark and yellow energy, I’ll be in trouble.”

Tang Hao grinned. He had a headache.

This old demon was not an ordinary person. He was an invincible demon Emperor in the ancient times. He was a peerless figure who could suppress everyone in the era of the competition between the ten thousand emperors. If he recovered his divine arts at his peak, how powerful would he be?

However, he was also helpless. After using the secret technique, the old monster’s strength had increased dramatically. Even if he had the Golden elixir of all disasters, he was not confident that he could snatch the Qi of heaven and earth from his hands.

After all, this old demon’s Foundation was too deep, and he was still somewhat apprehensive.

“Change to another one!”

Tang Hao’s eyes shifted to the other side. Four venerable sovereigns were confronting each other. Three of them were glowing with undying immortal radiance, while the other one did not have any immortal radiance. He was dressed in white and looked like a Sage.

“Who is he?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“It’s the senior from my Liu clan!”

The elder of the Liu family stepped forward and said.

“So it’s him!” Tang Hao said.

This was the ancient cultivator that was sealed in the crystal source that Liu heihu had dropped into during the treasure falling ceremony.

There were many rumors about this person in the outside world. Everyone said that he might be an eighth tribulation. Now, it seemed that the rumors were true.

Tang Hao could not lay a finger on her since she was related to the Liu family. He could only look away.

When he saw the Vermilion Bird path master, the numinous treasure path master, and the others, he chose to give up. These people were too familiar with him, so it was not easy for him to make a move. After much consideration, he finally settled on the xuanhuang Qi from the great void path master.

There were four venerable sovereigns surrounding the Qi of heaven and earth, the great void sect, the divine curse sect, and two others who were unknown.

“This is it!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He steered the divine boat and charged in that direction. At the same time, a golden light flashed in his palm. He had already clenched a huge golden core.
