

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2417

The last time he came back, he was giving senior locust tree the divine liquid of green wood and went straight to Qiyuan, so he didn't meet these Taoist priests.

He hadn't seen them in years.

However, he had heard a lot about them from the other Taoist masters.

All these years, these Taoist masters had been running around in the starry sky and "harmed" many people. They were very famous on Donglin sacred planet and even in the entire great astral world.

"I'm back!"

Tang Hao smiled at them. With a wave of his hand, storage rings flew out one after another. They were filled with the treasures he had prepared.

"Thanks!"

"You're still the friendliest, Taoist Tang!"

The Taoist masters received it and grinned from ear to ear.

After reminiscing about the past, Tang Hao went to see the sect master to discuss the migration plan.

"Move! We must move! The upper realm is full of immortal Qi, and compared to this realm, it's a paradise. It's definitely better to develop there than here." Hearing this, the headmaster couldn't help but nod, his expression a little excited.

In the past, little Tang had many enemies in the upper realm, so he did not dare to send anyone to follow him. But now that little Tang had advanced to the eighth tribulation and become an Overlord of Pangu world, he did not have to worry about his safety.

"Only a few elders will be left here, the rest will move away ..."

"We're going to build another gate on Kunlun. That will be the main Academy, and this will be the sub-academy!"

As the headmaster spoke, he couldn't help but stand up excitedly and walk back and forth in the hall.

He had been looking forward to this day for far too long.

When the heaven-equal Department had established a firm foothold in the upper realm, it would definitely become more powerful with the help of the rich resources in the upper realm.

Tang Hao left after some more discussion.

Soon, the news of the migration spread from the heaven-equal courtyard, shaking the entire planet Dong Ling and driving countless ancient clans crazy. They fought to send people to the heaven-equal courtyard, just to ask for a place in the upper realm.

As cultivators, who didn't know that this world's immortal Qi was barren, far inferior to the upper realm. They dreamed of going to the upper realm, but they were helpless because they couldn't find the passage at all.

Now that exalted immortal Tang had descended to the lower realm and was about to send someone up, how could they not be excited and crazy?

By then, Tang Hao had already crossed the starry sky as fast as he could and arrived at the nine gates star field.

This was the most remote corner of Dong Lin astral, and also his first stop after leaving Qi Yuan.

This place had long been occupied by Kun Lun and had become the territory of his great Kun Lun sect.

Tang Hao met Daoist priest horizon at the mountain Gate.

"Why did you come back?"

Daoist priest horizon was stunned when he saw Tang Hao.

It hadn't been long since he came back.

"I've broken through!" Tang Hao smiled at him. "It's time for Kun Lun to move to Pangu!"

"Breakthrough?" Daoist priest horizon was stunned.

Then, his eyes widened in disbelief.

The last time he came back, this kid was still at the 7th tribulation. After breaking through, wasn't he at the 8th tribulation?

"Kid ... You're a monster!"

Dazed for a moment, Daoist priest horizon finally regained his senses and laughed bitterly.

When he first made the jade pendant, he only wanted to find a successor for Kun Lun to deal with the threat from Qi Yuan. He didn't expect that he would directly create a monster.

From earth to Qiyuan and then Pangu, this kid had grown too fast.

But very quickly, he grinned. This brat was a true-blue descendant of Kun Lun. The more freakish he was, the better!

“This also proves my foresight ... With this kid here, perhaps there will be a time when my Kun Lun will recover its ancient glory!” Daoist priest horizon pondered, his heart filled with joy.

The two of them sat down and discussed the migration. Horizon took out an item and threw it over.

“Kid, take this!”

Tang Hao took the mirror and looked at it. It was the Kunlun mirror.

Tang Hao was very familiar with this mirror. It was one of the few ancient treasures left behind in Kunlun. Daoist priest horizon had given him this mirror a long time ago. The passage from earth to Qiyuan was made from this mirror.

According to Daoist priest Horizon’s introduction, this mirror was a spatial treasure. It could travel through space at will and create a spatial tunnel.

“This mirror ...”

Tang Hao was shocked when he looked at it carefully.

In the past, he had not noticed anything special about the mirror and thought it was just an ordinary spatial treasure. But now, after taking a closer look, he found that the mirror was extraordinary.
