

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2424

“This is the Kunlun star?”

Looking at the huge star under their feet, Daoist priest horizon and the others on the warship were all excited and shocked.

This star wasn't very big, and it was far inferior to the central sacred planet of the lower realm. However, the immortal Qi on this star was far from what the central sacred planet could compare with.

Before they even entered the star, they could already sense the unbelievably dense immortal Qi above the star.

“The upper realm has such a blessed land!”

The Qin Emperor also exclaimed.

Although he knew that the upper realm had always been full of immortal Qi and was a blessed land in the eyes of the cultivators in the lower realm, the immortal Qi on this star in front of him still shocked him.

Tang Hao could not help but smile when he heard that.

The Qin Emperor and the others couldn't be blamed for this. The lower realm's environment was barren, and even immortal Qi was scarce. They had never seen such abundant immortal Qi before.

Moreover, even if people from other parts of Pangu came, they would be shocked. After the transformation of the origin core avatar, the abundance of immortal Qi on this planet far exceeded that of any other place in this world.

Even the 33 heavens could not compare to this place.

“Go down!”

Tang Hao smiled and steered the warship toward the star.

He looked around and could not help but reveal a satisfied expression.

During this period of time, his origin core had been transforming the stars. The immortal Qi was several times denser than when he had left, and the environment had also become better. There were spiritual birds and strange beasts everywhere, giving it a somewhat celestial atmosphere.

“This place ... Is not bad!”

The old locust tree looked around and also exclaimed in surprise.

Thinking back to when his wahuang heaven's Mountain Gate was opened, it was far inferior to this place.

“Senior, that’s the main peak of Kunlun!”

Tang Hao pointed to a towering mountain in the distance.

“Good! I’ll take root there and help you protect this planet!” The old locust tree said.

“Senior, are you not going to take a look at wahuang heaven?”

Tang Hao asked.

“I don’t think so!” The old locust tree sighed. “It’s been ten thousand years. There are no old friends in wahuang heaven ... It won’t be too late to go and take a look when my cultivation is fully recovered!”

Tang Hao nodded and did not try to persuade him anymore.

Since the senior did not want to go, he naturally had his own considerations. There was no need for him to persuade him.

Then, he looked at horizon and the others and pointed in the direction of the Kunlun Mountain Gate. He asked them to bring their disciples and go first.

Back then, he had only built a mountain range and set up a large array. The specific buildings and various facilities still needed to be built by Daoist priest horizon and the others.

“Brother Qin, great Qin should pick a place!”

Tang Hao looked at the Qin Emperor again.

“That’s the place!”

The Qin Emperor hesitated for a moment before finally choosing a plain to build the new Great Qin divine dynasty.

After that, Tang Hao settled the people from the equal heaven courtyard in a place not far from the Kunlun Sect.

Although the heaven-equal Department had never been incorporated into Kunlun, it was still the place where Tang Hao had once learned from a master. They had a close relationship, and could be considered a direct force, so Tang Hao naturally had to take special care of it.

After that, Tang Hao released the people in the mobile abodes and had them spread out in all directions to find places to build mountain gates, abodes, and cities.

Tang Hao believed that it wouldn’t be long before this planet became incomparably prosperous.

After that, Tang Hao went to the main gate of Kunlun.

He took out the mirror of Kunlun and opened up the space passages to the other stars one by one. He also set up the space door on the main peak. In the future, those stars would become the trial ground for the disciples of Kunlun.

“Next, it’s time to open up the passage to the gate of fortune! However, the gate of fortune is protected by a great formation, so I can’t open it from here. I need to return to the gate of fortune.”

“Let’s go!” Tang Hao said to Tian Xuanzi, then left the Kunlun star and returned to the gate of fortune.

As soon as he returned to the sect, he heard a lot of good news. Fairy Yunrong, Daoist Yin Feng, and the others had come out of seclusion one after another. They had all succeeded in condensing blood and were only waiting to pass the Tribulation to advance to the seventh tribulation.
