

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2426

Tang Hao sent his clone to investigate further, but there was no more information.

“The ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard were found in the crack in the void. Could it be that the ruins of the Tathagata divine sect fell into the crack in the void as well? is that why the dipamkara temple can't find it?”

Tang Hao recalled the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard.

Back then, he and young master Li had spent a lot of effort to find the ruins of the heavenly Buddha courtyard from the crack in the void.

He had seen many ruins that had fallen into the void crack after a great battle.

That was why he suspected that the ruins of the Tathagata divine sect were in some spatial Rift somewhere.

“What kind of treasures are there in the ruins of the Tathagata God sect?”

Tang Hao was even more curious.

This time, the dipamkara temple had made a big move. They had mobilized many of their disciples to search everywhere. Even the seven tribulation sacred Buddhas had been mobilized. This proved that there must be a precious treasure in the ruins.

“The Rulai divine sect has a lot of treasures. Among the three Holy Lands of ancient Buddhism, the Rulai divine sect was the strongest, followed by the heavenly Buddha court and dipamkara temple. It's said that the Rulai divine sect is the Orthodox lineage of Buddhism and has inherited the most ancient Dharma.”

“In ancient times, the Tathagata divine sect also produced the most experts. In that war of Immortals and Buddhas, the Tathagata divine sect was the main battlefield and withstood the firepower of several mantras of the various heavens.”

Tang Hao knew the Tathagata divine sect quite well.

He had once specially collected information on the three Holy Lands of Buddhism, and there was a lot of information about the Rulai divine sect.

“Is it the golden seal of Buddha, or the Kasaya of Buddha, or perhaps ... The heritage cultivation technique of the Buddha sect?”

Tang Hao pondered.

The Tathagata divine sect had too many treasures, several times more than the heavenly Buddha courtyard. There were countless nine tribulation Buddhist treasures and Supreme Buddhist mantras.

Some of them had been snatched away by the heavenly Daoist sects during the war of Immortals and Buddhas. Tang Hao had no idea what other treasures were left in the ruins.

“I still have to make a trip to the thirty-three heavens!”

Tang Hao thought for a long time, but he still could not come up with anything. He got up and went to Vermillion Bird heaven.

Young master Li had already gone into seclusion to break through the ten thousand blood barrier, but the Vermillion Bird path master was still there.

“The Tathagata divine sect, huh? I’ve also heard some things ...”

The Vermillion Bird path master was not surprised when he heard Tang Hao’s intention. He smiled. “Fellow Daoist, you know that the Vermillion Bird heaven participated in the war in the ancient times and has a deep grudge with the Buddhist sect. Now that the dipamkara temple has risen, I naturally have to pay more attention to it.”

“It’s not just my Vermillion Bird heaven, it’s the same for the other heavens ...”

Tang Hao nodded when he heard that.

He was not the only one worried about the rise of the dipamkara temple, but also the mantras of the various heavens.

He only had a personal grudge against the dipamkara temple, but these forces of the heavens had a feud with the temple.

“Then does Daoist master know what the dipamkara temple is looking for?”

Tang Hao asked.

The Vermillion Bird path master furrowed his brows and said in a deep voice, “during the battle back then, the heavens didn’t manage to obtain many treasures. There wasn’t enough time. After the Tathagata divine sect was broken through, the few remaining disciples activated the self-destruction formation before they retreated, forcing the Alliance Army to retreat.”

“This situation is somewhat similar to the heavenly Buddha courtyard. However, the difference is that the formation of the heavenly Buddha courtyard is weak. Even after it self-destructed, the entire Mountain Gate was preserved and fell into the crack in the void.”

“However, the ruins of the Tathagata divine sect fell apart into countless shards that were sucked into the void turbulence. Naturally, the treasures were lost as well. Among them were the three Supreme treasures of the Tathagata divine sect.”

Tang Hao’s expression changed when he heard that.

The three greatest treasures of the Tathagata divine sect were the Golden Tathagata seal, the Tathagata dharmic robe, and the Supreme cultivation technique, the Tathagata mantra.

He had thought that the various mantras must have gotten one or two, but he didn't expect that they didn't get a single one.

"No wonder!"

Tang Hao mumbled.

Each of these three Supreme treasures was a peerless treasure. The Tathagata golden seal was said to be the most powerful nine tribulations Buddhist treasure, its power almost on par with a fairy weapon.

There was also that monastic robe, which was said to be a celestial artifact.

As for cultivation techniques, they were also extremely powerful and not inferior to the inheritances of the various great heavenly Daoist lineages.

"There are more treasures than these three in the Rulai divine sect!" The Vermillion Bird path master chuckled and lowered his voice. "It's said that the Rulai divine sect has another treasure that's extremely mysterious. No one knows what it is!"

"Oh?"

Tang Hao was shocked when he heard that. He had never heard of that before.

"This is a secret from the ancient times. Apart from the heavenly Dao, very few people know about it." The Vermillion Bird path master laughed.

After a pause, he continued, "this treasure is called the Buddha's shrine!" I think that the target of the Mahesvara Buddha is most likely this secret treasure!"
