

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2428

In the desolate Dragon, divine light kept shooting over from the sky above a mountain range.

These divine lights were bright and magnificent. It could be seen that they were all seventh tribulation experts.

In Pangu, such an existence was either the master of a clan or the sect master of a large sect. They were all overlords of a region and had extraordinary identities.

When they arrived above the mountain range, they revealed themselves. After looking around, they cast their eyes on a Valley below.

The valley was shrouded in smoke, and two figures were sitting cross-legged at the entrance of the valley.

When they saw the two figures, their gazes all focused.

They naturally recognized the two people at the entrance of the valley. They were the two sacred Buddhas of the dipamkara temple.

It seems that the news is true. The dipamkara temple has found another part of the ruins, and this Valley is the entrance.”

“With two Saint Buddhas guarding it, it seems like the ruins this time are not ordinary.”

They discussed in low voices.

The news of dipamkara temple’s search for the ruins of the Tathagata divine sect had spread throughout Pangu. Every ancient race and sect knew about it.

Prior to this, there had been news from time to time that a part of the ruins of the Rulai God sect had been found, which caused quite a stir. However, when they went in to investigate, they didn’t find much. There wasn’t even a decent treasure, let alone the legendary three Tathagata treasures.

However, this ruin seemed to be different from the past.

“It seems that the scale of this ruin is quite large. The people of dipamkara temple can’t finish searching quickly, so they sent two Saint Buddhas to guard outside and stop us.”

They looked down at the valley and were envious.

The three Tathagata dharmas were all extremely rare treasures, so how could they not covet them?

However, when they saw the two Saint Buddhas guarding the place, they frowned.

These two monks were both at the seventh tribulation, the same level as them. They were not easy to deal with. Moreover, there was a true ancient Almighty behind the dipamkara temple, so they did not dare to provoke them.

“No rush! If there really is a treasure inside, I don’t think the thirty-three heavens will let it go.”

Some of the seven tribulations raised their heads and looked at the sky.

“That’s true!”

The rest of the people were stunned for a moment, then they laughed.

They were all aware of the enmity between the 33 heavens and the dipamkara temple. At this time, it was natural for the 33 heavens to attack first. The various clans and sects only had to follow behind.

They then landed on the side and waited patiently.

As more and more streams of light appeared in the sky, more and more people gathered here. Many of them were primordial spirits, and they hovered in the air to watch.

After about an hour, the void in front of the valley suddenly changed, and a Pagoda shuttled out.

The two Saint Buddhas at the entrance of the valley immediately stood up and bowed to the pagoda.

The pagoda stopped for a moment before it rushed into the valley and disappeared.

“It’s The Guardian Buddha of the dipamkara temple!”

“He’s actually here!”

The valley was in an uproar.

All the cultivators were excited. Since this ancient Almighty had come in person, it proved that there was definitely a great treasure in these ruins.

Not long after they entered the pagoda, a beam of divine light fell from the sky and arrived in front of the valley. A figure appeared. His body was shrouded in a brilliant undying celestial glow, and his face could not be seen clearly. However, his robe was vaguely visible. It was green, and as it fluttered, the embroidered Green Dragon pattern was revealed.

“Greetings, master of the Azure Dragon Path!”

All the cultivators looked at him and bowed respectfully.

The eight-tribulation Dao master had finally appeared!

The path master of the Azure Dragon Path nodded in all directions before taking a step forward and heading toward the valley.

The two Saint Buddhas didn't dare to stop him and allowed him to pass through, disappearing into the valley.

"Greetings, Yin Yang path master!"

"Greetings, Dao master of the West Pole!"

After the master of the path of the Azure Dragon, divine light continued to fall. They were all the Masters of the path of the heavens, eight-tribulation emperors.

All the seven tribulations were shocked. They had expected the 33 heavens to interfere, but they had not expected so many Dao Masters to come.

Looking at the situation, it was almost the same as the time in the black and yellow tower.

"Look, another venerable sovereign is here!"

As another ray of immortal light fell from the sky, the cultivators around exclaimed again and turned their eyes to see which venerable sovereign had come.

Under everyone's gaze, the immortal light landed at the entrance of the valley, and a figure appeared. He was a handsome young man in white with black hair.

In an instant, everyone exclaimed in shock.

"It's Emperor Hao Tian!"

The clan leaders and sect Masters all had looks of respect on their faces.

The young man in white was the youngest and most famous venerable sovereign in Pangu's life, venerable sovereign Hao Tian!

"Greetings, Celestial Emperor Hao Tian!"

Then, they showed a respectful expression and bowed.

In the past, when this person was still in the ten thousand blood clan, they might have been able to befriend him as an equal because of his identity as the master of a clan. However, now that he had advanced to the eighth tribulation, his status was naturally far above theirs.

Tang Hao turned around and looked around, then nodded at them.

Then, he moved and walked into the valley.

"It's you!"

The two Saint Buddhas at the entrance of the valley recognized him, and their expressions changed drastically, revealing their anger.

This person had a deep hatred for their dipamkara temple.

“Get lost!”

“Go!” Tang Hao shouted coldly. Divine light flashed in his eyes. The two Saint Buddhas trembled as if they had been struck by lightning and were sent flying backward.

Then, he flicked his sleeve, snorted coldly, and dashed into the valley.
