

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2429

“This is an 8th tribulation divine ability?”

At the entrance of the valley, a wave of exclamations erupted.

The two Saint Buddhas of dipamkara temple were at the level of thousand blood and could be considered as experts among the seven tribulations. However, just now, they were blasted away by two beams of light from Emperor Hao Tian. Such divine power was really shocking!

“Celestial Emperor Hao Tian! This title ... Is really something!”

Someone in the crowd sighed.

The word “Haotian” referred to the heaven. It had a Grand meaning and not just anyone could give themselves such a title.

“In my opinion, he is worthy of the title. How many monstrous geniuses have appeared like him since ancient times? no one in Pangu world can surpass him. He is the only one who is worthy of the title!”

“That’s right! This title belongs to him!”

The cultivators discussed in hushed voices, their faces filled with respect.

“I thought he was destined to die and never grow up, but I didn’t expect ...”

There were also many people who revealed a look of lament.

Back then, no one thought highly of this person. How could a mere lower realm genius who was hunted down by thousands of races survive? This was destined to be a premature end!

However, this person had managed to survive in such a situation.

Moreover, not only did he survive, but he also rose like a comet, from a Little Saint of the third tribulation to an eighth tribulation, stepping on the position of a venerable sovereign, shocking Pangu!

Such an outcome was beyond everyone’s expectations.

“Hahaha! It’s a good thing I didn’t follow you guys back then, or else I’d be in big trouble!”

Someone looked at a few people in the crowd and said with a look of relief.

These people were the Yao clan and the hundred clan Alliance!

Faced with everyone’s mockery and ridicule, the new medicine master’s face turned ashen.

The current Yao clan had already become a joke. Not only was their face completely swept to the ground, they were continuously ridiculed by the world. Even their strength had plummeted.

The previous Holy Son and the medicine master had been killed one after another. This had already caused great losses to the Yao clan. Now, no one dared to be on good terms with the Yao clan and buy pills from them.

Without the support of the medicinal pill business, the Yao clan would not have more resources to nurture its clansmen. This had also caused the Yao clan's overall strength to decline.

He looked at the valley and clenched his fists. His heart was filled with hatred.

But after a while, he sighed again, revealing a dim and helpless expression.

Before this, he still had a glimmer of hope. He thought that with the strength of the great void heaven sect, they could kill this monster and avenge the Yao clan. But now, he had lost all hope and completely abandoned this thought.

An eight-tribulation venerable Emperor was simply unshakeable!

Even for the great void heaven, it was almost impossible to kill a venerable sovereign.

He shook his head and sighed for a moment, then turned around and left resentfully.

The current Yao clan could no longer afford to be tormented. If they provoked this person again, they might face the threat of extermination.

In the crowd, there was another person with a complicated expression. He was the leader of the Tang Clan of the eastern wilderness.

The Yao clan had become a joke, but his Tang Clan was not any better off. In fact, they were even more miserable than the Yao clan.

The Yao clan was not strong enough to defeat this monster, but the Tang Clan was blind to lose a genius who could become a venerable sovereign!

Now, every time news of this person came, there would be some who felt bad. Some were remorseful, some were sorrowful, and there were even many who hated this person for snatching away the luck of the Tang Clan and bringing so much criticism to the Tang Clan.

In the eyes of many members of the Tang family, this man was the enemy of the Tang family. The more dazzling this man was, the more unbearable the Tang family was.

“A!”

The Tang Lord sighed. In the end, he couldn't bear the ridicule from all directions and left with an angry face.
