

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2434

“If there really is the so-called Buddha shrine, it should be inside!”

Tang Hao said to himself as he looked at the temple in front of him.

The temple was shrouded in a million-foot high Buddha light, and its aura was quite astonishing. He had never seen such a strong Buddha light before.

Furthermore, this temple was hidden within the millions and millions of grains of eternal sand. Such a Grand display of craftsmanship also proved that this temple was extraordinary. The most precious thing of the Rulai divine sect must be hidden inside.

He looked around again and didn't find any other venerable sovereigns.

He was the first to arrive!

His figure moved, and he decisively swept towards the temple.

He had to be quick and get the things in the temple before the other venerable sovereigns, especially the Mahesvara Buddha, arrived.

“What?”

As he approached the temple, Tang Hao's expression changed. He saw the Buddhist light that enveloped the temple suddenly grow brighter. A huge Buddha statue appeared from within and slapped at him.

In an instant, the void shook violently.

His expression changed, and he quickly retreated. The power of this palm strike was something that even he had to be wary of.

“It doesn't look like a restriction or formation. It looks more like a divine sense left behind by the ancient Rulai divine sect.” Tang Hao's expression turned serious.

Just a divine sense had such divine power, which was enough to show how high the realm of this Almighty was. He was probably an ancient existence of the ninth tribulation. With the protection of this divine sense, it would be very difficult for him to break in.

Moreover, he didn't know how many of these divine senses were guarding the place. After all, the ancient Rulai divine sect was extremely powerful and had many nine tribulations Saint Buddhas.

“So it's here! Hahaha! I've finally found it!”

Just as he was deep in thought, suddenly, a cry of surprise came from the distance.

Then, there was a soft sound of surprise.

“Why is it this kid!”

Tang Hao looked up and saw a familiar figure in the distance. It was the devil Dao ancient Emperor.

The devil Dao ancient Emperor’s expression turned ugly. He had thought that since he was the first to discover it, he would be able to keep the treasure for himself. Even if it was any other venerable sovereign, he was confident that he could snatch it.

However, he had never expected that it would be this damned brat!

This kid was a monster. Before he had advanced to the eighth tribulation, he had already made him suffer again and again. Now that he had advanced to the eighth tribulation, he was even more helpless. In a one-on-one fight, he had no chance of winning.

After all, this kid had two wisps of Black Yellow ancient Qi.

“Brother Daoist devil, what a coincidence!”

Tang Hao looked at him and smiled.

“Not good!”

“Run!” The devil Dao ancient Emperor’s expression changed as he tried to escape.

“You want to run?” Tang Hao laughed mockingly. The soul exploded without warning.

“Looks like I have to hurry up!”

Even though he had destroyed this soul clone, there was still a connection between the soul clone and the main body. Now that the main body of the devil Dao ancient Emperor knew about it, it wouldn’t be long before the great void sect master and the others knew about it as well.

Tang Hao sent out a few of his soul clones to try to get close to the temple. However, the divine sense would appear and turn into the statue of Tathagata. It could destroy his soul clones with a single palm.

As soon as his main body got close, five or six divine thoughts appeared at the same time and turned into Buddhas of different colors, attacking him together.

It was like five or six eight-tribulation venerable emperors besieging him at the same time, and they were all of more than one aperture realm.

Tang Hao stepped back with a dark expression on his face.

This lineup was a little too exaggerated. He only had a level one cultivation, so how could he block so many people of the same level?

Tang Hao tried a few times but was blasted back every time. He even tried to use the Nightingale to break through the blockade of the divine thoughts, but he found that it was futile. The divine thoughts of the eminent monks guarded the temple tightly, leaving not even a crack.

“What should I do?”

Tang Hao sat down and looked at the temple. He scratched his head.

He knew that with his current strength, it was absolutely impossible to barge in.

“Since I can’t force my way in, I’ll have to use my wits!”

Tang Hao rubbed his chin and pondered.

Not long after, ripples suddenly appeared in the void far away from this world. Several figures stepped out one after another and stepped into this world, each of them shrouded in the brilliant undying celestial radiance.

“Hurry up!”

“We can’t let that kid get the treasure!”

The moment they entered, they were a little anxious as they rushed towards the temple. They were the great void sect master and his group.

“Eh? Isn’t that the kid?”

“Why is he sitting there?”

When they got closer, they looked around and found the figure sitting not far from the temple. They were all a little stunned.

There was no doubt that the treasure was in the temple in front of him, but why was this kid sitting there without moving? could it be that ... The treasure had already been obtained by him? However, looking at the temple, it didn’t seem like it.

If the treasure had been taken away, why would there still be this million Zhang of Buddhist light!

“Hahaha! I know, this temple must be protected by a powerful magical formation, and this kid can’t break it by himself, so he’s depressed!” The great void sect master pondered for a moment and could not help but laugh.

“I think so too!”

The rest of the venerable sovereigns were stunned for a moment, and then they laughed out loud. Their expressions were relaxed and they were much happier.

They were happier than anyone else to see this kid suffer a loss. Moreover, since this kid didn't get the treasure, then the treasure inside was theirs!

There were a total of six of them, and all of them were experienced venerable sovereigns. It would be a piece of cake for them to break into this temple and snatch the treasures!
