

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2437

“What is this kid doing?”

The great void sect master and the others soon noticed Tang Hao’s unusual behavior.

The others had already finished their cultivation and stood up. Only this kid was still sitting, as if he was still comprehending.

But it was strange. Wasn’t this kid famous for being a monster? If they were to compare comprehension, he would never lose to them, the senior venerable sovereigns.

“He doesn’t seem to be cultivating the Tathagata mantra ...”

The devil Dao ancient Emperor stared at it for a moment and hesitated.

“You’re not cultivating the Rulai Sutra? Then what is he cultivating?” The great void sect master asked in shock.

“He’s cultivating a lot of things, and his aura is constantly changing. It seems like he’s cultivating many different Buddhist scriptures.” The devil Dao ancient Emperor said, his tone becoming more and more suspicious. He couldn’t understand what this brat was doing.

“That’s strange. What is fellow cultivator Tang doing?”

After a while, more people noticed Tang Hao’s condition.

They sized him up and were also puzzled.

“Don’t tell me he thinks that he can fool those old bald donkeys just because he has cultivated many Buddhist scriptures? Ha! What a joke! If even the Tathagata dharmas can’t do it, then what’s the use of the other Buddhist scriptures?”

The path master of the divine incantation path sneered as he looked on coldly.

“I think he’s doing this on purpose. He doesn’t want to fight and is wasting his immortal essence.” The great void sect master sneered.

Then, he looked around and shouted, “Fellow Daoists, as you can see, he didn’t even use a single bit of strength. Once we break this array, he won’t have the right to obtain the treasure with us. If he dares to be thick-skinned and snatch it from us, then I ask all of you to stop him and not let him get any benefits.”

Many venerable sovereigns nodded in agreement.

That was right. Since he didn’t contribute, he didn’t have the right to snatch the treasure inside.

The great void sect master surveyed his surroundings and was secretly delighted.

This way, the kid had no chance of getting the treasure inside.

On his side, there were six people. The three great path Masters of the great void sect, the divine curse sect, and the South Pole. In addition, there were three wandering venerable sovereigns. If the six of them joined forces, they would have a great chance of seizing the treasures inside.

“Buddha’s shrine ... The most mysterious treasure of the Buddha sect must be a rare treasure. If I can get my hands on it, it will definitely allow the strength of the great void heaven to rise to another level!”

He looked at the temple, his eyes burning.

“Daoist great void, I don’t think that Daoist Tang did not make a move on purpose.”

At this moment, a loud shout interrupted his reverie.

“Old yin-yang!”

The great void sect master turned around, and his tone darkened.

The person who spoke was the master of the yin-yang sky.

“He didn’t do it on purpose?” He snorted coldly and said, “then tell me, what is he doing!”

Instantly, everyone’s eyes turned to the Yin Yang path master.

The Yin Yang path master stared at the figure sitting cross-legged not far away. His eyes were burning and his expression was slightly agitated. He had already figured out what this kid was doing!

It was also because of this that he was so excited.

“He’s calculating a cultivation technique to complete the Tathagata dharmas!”

He said word by word.

As soon as he finished speaking, the surroundings fell silent.

The faces hidden under the undying immortal radiance were all stunned.

Was this a joke?

This was the “Tathagata dharmas”! The Supreme cultivation technique of Buddhism!

How could he deduce a complete cultivation technique with just a portion of the incomplete Scripture?

This was simply a fool’s dream!

“This kid ... Is really interesting!”

The Yin Yang path master muttered to himself as he looked at the figure with admiration.

In fact, he had the same thought before. He wanted to complete this Scripture, but it was just a thought. He didn't dare to do it. Even with his talent and comprehension, he wasn't confident that he could complete this Supreme Buddhist scripture.

But this kid had really done it!

It didn't matter whether he could do it or not. Just this courage was enough to make him look at him in a new light.

"I've always said that this kid is a little demonic. Last time in the black and yellow tower, and this time ... This kid really is a little demonic!"

He chuckled and said in a meaningful tone.

"Hahaha! He wants to complete the Tathagata mantra?"

The great void sect master finally regained his senses and sneered.

It was a heaven-defying thing to complete the Tathagata dharmas. Without reading all the Buddhist sutras in the world and having extremely profound attainments in Buddhism, there was no hope at all, and it would take a long time.

By the time this kid really repaired it, they would have already blown up the temple and ransacked it.

"Hmph! It's just a futile effort!"

Emperor Ling yang sneered.

"Continue blasting! Increase the speed!" The great void sect master shouted and his speed increased.

"Fellow cultivator Tang is indeed not an ordinary person!"

Ling Bao, the Vermillion Bird path master, and the others looked at Tang Hao with bitter smiles.

They did not expect Tang Hao to be so bold as to attempt to complete the Tathagata mantra!

In their eyes, it was futile.

After all, this was a Buddhist technique. As people of the immortal path, they mainly cultivated immortal techniques. Who would study Buddhist techniques all day?

Moreover, fellow Daoist Tang is still so young. How deep can his attainments in Buddhist cultivation techniques be?

They were all helpless. After laughing, they followed the crowd and continued to bombard the temple ahead.

“A little kid from the immortal sect wants to complete the Supreme Scriptures of our Buddhist sect!”

High up in the sky, in the floating Pagoda, the Mahesvara Buddha split off a wisp of his divine sense and scanned the area below him. Then, he sneered.

At this moment, he was also doing the same thing as he was deducing his cultivation technique!

As The Guardian Buddha of dipamkara temple, he was proficient in all the dharmas of dipamkara temple. He had also dabbled in the techniques of other Buddhist sects. It was not difficult for him to complete the Tathagata mantra.

In just two to three days, he would be able to derive the technique and cultivate the Buddha golden body.

At that time, he would be able to enter the temple first and take the treasure of the Rulai divine sect.

“From what I know, the Supreme medicine of the Rulai divine sect is hidden in the Rulai shrine. As long as I consume the things inside, I can quickly recover my cultivation. By then, even the 33 heavens will be trampled under the feet of the dipamkara temple!”

He glanced in the direction of the temple and retracted his divine sense. He stayed in the pagoda and continued to deduce.

In the blink of an eye, two days had passed.

After two days of continuous bombardment, the strength of the divine senses of the ancient Saint Buddhas had been greatly reduced.

“Continue!”

The great void sect master and the others were overjoyed and enthusiastic.

At this speed, they would be able to force their way in in half a day.

“Soon! It’s almost there!”

After another four hours, everyone was excited. They could already see the treasures inside waving at them.

They all circulated their celestial core power and prepared all kinds of methods and trump cards in advance. They were just waiting for the right time to break in and snatch the treasures.

However, at this moment, at the back of the crowd, in a place that everyone had almost forgotten, an extremely bright light suddenly bloomed. In an instant, it swallowed the sky and earth, illuminating the world.

An ancient and majestic aura shot up into the sky from the dazzling Buddhist light and swept in all directions.
