

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2469

Tang Hao smiled happily as he received the purple immortal Pearl.

This was the fourth one. There were three more left, red, yellow, and green.

“What is this? When did I swallow it?”

The blood crocodile stared at the immortal bead with a puzzled look.

Then, he realized something, and his face darkened.

Damn it, so it was this broken thing!

He had been wondering how he had been discovered by this person when he had clearly hidden it very well. It turned out that it was all because of this thing.

“Are there any other ten-thousand-year-old fierce beasts in this Sea area? half-step venerable sovereigns?”

Tang Hao kept the immortal Pearl and looked at the blood crocodile.

Every half-step venerable Emperor fierce beast was full of treasures. Just the flesh and blood of one of them could be used to cultivate a batch of Sir God thousand blood.

“There are some, but they’re not easy to find. They’re all very cautious, just like that old dragon.”

Blood crocodile said.

“That’s true!”

Tang Hao said.

Fierce beasts like the blood crocodiles were not like the descendants of the primitive times on the primitive sacred mountain. They were considered to be rogue cultivators in the beast World. To be able to survive and cultivate to the half-step venerable sovereign realm, they were all extremely shrewd and cunning.

If it were not for the immortal Pearl, Tang Hao would not have found the blood crocodile, much less the old flood Dragon.

Even he admired the cowardice of the old flood Dragon.

“I can try my best to look for one. Maybe I can lure one out!” Blood crocodile said, “I know of three others, and they are all like that old flood Dragon.”

“Six half-step venerable sovereigns ...”

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow in surprise.

There were six of them in the East Sea alone. If the other seas were included, there would be more half-step venerable sovereigns than humans.

However, after thinking about it carefully, he understood. Most human cultivators absorbed the immortal Qi between heaven and earth and devoured the natural spiritual essence such as plants. Now that spiritual essence was scarce, they could only break through to ten thousand blood by transforming into stars.

However, the conditions to transform into a star were too harsh. Normal xiuzhe could not afford it.

However, these ferocious beasts could continuously increase their cultivation base by devouring each other. As long as they were careful, they could reach the half-step venerable sovereign realm in 10000 years.

“Good! You can look for it first!”

Tang Hao nodded at the blood crocodile.

The search in the East Sea was not over yet. He still had to stay here for a while. He could ask the blood crocodile to find other half-step venerable sovereigns. If he could find one, it would be a great harvest.

After the blood crocodiles had left, Shi Yan collected the giant shark’s body and continued his search in the sea.

Seven days later, the blood crocodiles sent news that they had found another one.

It was a giant ancient octopus that was hiding in an underwater volcano. Tang Hao killed it easily and collected its flesh.

After a few days, he had almost finished touring the East Sea. He then left for the North Sea.

He released the blood crocodiles to search for the ten thousand bloodied ferocious beasts in the sea while he wandered around looking for immortal beads.

“How did that old demon Emperor disappear?”

He was very familiar with the North Sea and had come here many times. When he passed by the old demon Emperor’s old nest, he even went to take a look.

However, the place was empty, and Tang Hao was disappointed.

He originally wanted to find trouble with that old demon and take the opportunity to get some benefits, but he didn’t expect that the old demon had already run away.

“Last time in the black and yellow tower, I gave him a hard time. I wonder if he has recovered?” Tang Hao pondered.

That old demon Emperor was also a figure in the ancient times. During the era of the ten thousand emperors, he was an invincible existence. If they didn't encounter him, they might have been able to regain their glory and shock Pangu.

It was a pity that this old monster had met him and was tricked by him a few times. It was truly a bit tragic.

After walking around the demon Thearch's lair, Tang Hao continued to look for immortal pearls.

After wandering around the North Sea for half a month, he didn't find any immortal beads, but he did find two ten thousand bloodied ferocious beasts. He killed them both and collected their flesh.

So far, he had already killed Five Ten thousand bloodied ferocious beasts.

Then, he went to the West Sea.

After searching for more than a month, he found another immortal Pearl, the yellow one.

“This aura is ...”

When Tang Hao placed the five immortal pearls in his palm at the same time, each of the five immortal pearls shone with a dazzling immortal radiance and trembled slightly. This was a reaction that had never happened before.

At the same time, Tang Hao sensed that the five immortal pearls seemed to be pointing to the location of the remaining two immortal pearls.

“The sixth immortal Pearl ... Is it in the vast expanse void?!”

Tang Hao raised his head and looked up at the sky.

The five immortal pearls in his palm were pointing in the direction of the vast void.

He left the blood crocodiles at the West Sea while he followed the immortal Pearl's instructions and headed toward the vast void.

With such clear instructions, it was easy to find. He flew at full speed. Two days later, he stopped in the void of the vast expanse. In front of him was a ruin of stars.

He scanned with his spiritual will and locked onto one of the ruins.

In the next moment, his figure flickered and he appeared in front of the ruins.

He reached out his hand and pulled out an emerald-green celestial Pearl from the ruins.

Tang Hao was excited.

He had searched for too long for these immortal beads, and they were finally going to be complete.

Weng Weng Weng!

The six immortal pearls gathered in his palm and began to tremble violently, and immortal radiance shone brightly.

“This is ...?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

This reaction was a little too intense.

After shaking for a moment, all of a sudden, the six immortal beads flew out of his palm and formed a circle in the air.

The six-colored divine light shone on each other and was extremely bright.

Just as Tang Hao was at a loss, the space in front of him suddenly rippled, and a passage gradually opened.

“How could it be a void passage?”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

Could it be that the last red bead was not in Pangu world, but in some small world?

After a moment’s deliberation, he decided to go in and take a look.

He put away the six immortal beads, turned into a stream of light, and entered the passage.

When he reappeared, he was already in the sky above a mountain range.

“It’s a middle world!”

He raised his head, looked around, and said in surprise.

An ordinary small world was very different from a middle world. A small world was not a complete world. It was not large, its Dao laws were not complete, and its space was very fragile.

A middle world was a complete world. The orthodoxies of the 33 heavens were all built in a middle world.

However, Middle Worlds were very rare. Other than the 33 heavens, the old demon Emperor had one, Mahesvara Buddha had one, and this was the third.

“There are xiuzhe!”

His spiritual will went forward and he found many xiuzhe that looked similar to the ones in the eight Barrens.

He immediately retracted his aura and swept forward.

In a short while, he found a city near the mountains.

After making some inquiries in the city, he heard a very familiar name, the blood slaughter sect!

Tang Hao was shocked.

The ancient true immortal who had made the pig slaughtering knife was called the great immortal blood butcher.

Could it be that this middle world was created by the great deity blood slaughterer?
